SON SHOOTS HIS FATHER

CLAUDE ERICKSON DIDN'T KNOW PISTOL WAS LOADED.

Injured Man is Brought From the Country to Portland Hospital, and Is Doing Well.

H. F. Erickson, of Eina, Clark County, Washington, was accidentally shot and perhaps fatally injured by Claude, his is-year-old son, at a late hour Sunday aft-arnoon. The wounded man was brought to Portland yesterday morning and taken to Good Samaritan Hospital. Sunday afternoon Erickson's son was cleaning a shotgun preparatory to a hunt-ing trip to be taken this week. While do-ing so he came across an old 38-caliber ver in a closet, took it out and began playfully, pulled the trigger and fired. He was horrified to see a flash of flame was immediately summoned, and it was around. I found that the ball had pierced the chest tertaining. on the right side, just below the lung, causing a dangerous wound. It was de-cided to bring Erickson to Portland, and the trip was accordingly made. An opera-tion was performed upon his arrival at the Portland institution, and it was anced at a late hour last night that unless unforeseen complications set in the wounded man's chances for recovery were very good. The son is heartbroken and fesired to come to Portland with his father, but was not allowed to do so.

What the Press Agents Say

"NIOBE" WEEPS AND SMILES.

At the Columbia Theater.

Niobe, billed as "All Smiles" at the columbia Theater this week bears out its name admirably.

There have been few opportunities in town, for a long time, to get more hearty, laughs in one evening. It is legitimate, clean-cut farce-comedy, capitally done by a splendid stock company, brisk in every line, beautiful as to setting, rollicking and entertaining from first to last. The ground work of the play is the statue of Niobe, taken by Miss Countiss with rare good taste and discernment, realizing before us the excrutiating pre-dicament tearful Niobe of mythological renown would be in, were she to come to life in a modern drawing-room, and make love to the old man of the house.

Mr. Dills is the old man in question, and this natural and popular comedian makes the very most of a particularly dilarious.

Mr. Bolles is the owner of the part. Mr. Bougs is the owner of the statue and naturally is prominent. Miss Angus has a telling part as the old maid sister-in-law. Miss Brandt is fetching in-stanter as the mischlevous daughter of the family. Mr. Baume, the leading man of the company, graciously steps aside this week in a less conspicuous role, prob-ably because he has well carned a week's reaplte, as he has borne the brunt of the hard work several previous weeks.

The people like Niobe, Miss Countiss looks very lovely as the statue, and makes the conception an extremely poetic.

"A Romance of Coon Hollow" is one the largest dramatic companies on the besides the fine scenery and strong company. The troupe carries a band of colored boy buck dancers and quartet, that are hard to beat. The original production is presented at Cor dray's this week. The comedy is a story something on the lines of "in Old Ken-tucky." The characters are skillfully drawn and are interpreted by a company which receives praise all along the

COMING ATTRACTIONS.

Warde-Kidder Sale Today

This morning at 10 o'clock the advance sale of seats will open for Frederick Warde and Kathryn Kidder, who come to the Marquam Grand Theater next Thurs day. Friday and Saturday nights. October 6 7, 8, with a special matinee Satur-day in the elaborate spectacular drams. "Salammbo." "Salammbo." as presented by Managers Wagenhals & Kemper, consists of five acts and six scenes, and all of them are said to vie with the best scenes in "Ben Hur" and other famous spectacles of late years. A brilliantly costumed ballet, the varied uniforms of ancient armies and a melodious strain of barbaric music which runs throughout the play enhance the general effect. The au-

Ralph Stuart at the Marquam. Ralph Stuart, one of the greatest favor Ites that ever trod the boards in Port land, will be seen next Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday matines and night, October 10, 11 and 12, at the Marquam Grand Theater in his magnificent romantic production of

AT THE VAUDEVILLE THEATERS

The Star.

Daring and clever acrobatic work is shown by the three Forrest marvels at the Star this week. The Forrests are top-liners, two men and a young woman, all models of perfect physical training, and it is interesting to watch how they all work together and at the same time. One of the young men has tremendous muscles, and he has the endurance to hang from the cradle of the trapeze while he swings the two other performers as if they were feather-weights. The single casting feather-weights. The single casting act, as it is professionally called, is watched in breathless silence. The team is a first-class one. Every time little Miss Kramer, she with the assumed Bowery gait and funny teeth, makes a joke, something about her says: "Toot, toot." She is a very comical girl, and she and her partner earn many a hearty laugh by their songs, "The Bowery Queen" and "Barney." Two little girls, the Downeys, have and they made hits with: "I'm Wearing My Heart Away For You," and 'The Village by the Soa." Clifford Eskell, ma-gician, comes straight from the great Harry Rickards' show in Meibourne, Australia, and is well dressed, clever and a good talker. Bell and Dalton, German comedians, and Will C. Hoyt, in a new song, make good. One of the hits in the projectoscope display is the illusion "Rock of Ages."

so many different sounds came from So many different sounds came from the Lyric stage when Rafel, the ven-triloquist, was doing his turn, that it was difficult to believe that several peo-ple were not helping him. His doils seemed to have minds, speech and live muscles of their own, and they even got into a vocal conflict, so clever is Rafel's work. The vitascope flushes sthring war netures of events that are taking clace. pictures of events that are taking place in Manchuria, in which fluss and Jap are the principal actors, and the contribu-tion is both entertaining and timely. tion is both entertaining and timely. will remember the genuine humor of He-brew comedy, and the dozen and one mannersms that produce hearty laugh-ter without hurting anybody. Dave Samuela is the Hebrew comedian at the Samuels is the Hebrew comedian at the Lyric this week, and he is very amusing. His work is tactful and well done. "Southern Skies" is the title of the song the new baritone, Harry Hoyt, offers, and he makes good. So do the Jupiter trio, a singing, dancing and comedy act, and the Carters, who present musical comedy.

Pictures of the burning steamer, General Slocum, in New York Harbor, last Spring, are making a hit at the Bijou. The vitascope illustrates most of the in-cidents of the tragedy as if it were taking place before one's eyes, so vivid is the portraysi and so faithfully has the artist done his work. Smith and Burns, colored comedians, make a strong team, and their step dancing is a feature. Their dialect work is sparkling, and their stories are of the same degree of excel-tence. Baby Ruth is a child contortion-ist, and her work is quite gracefully done. Tint Walsh makes a fine appear "This couldn't hurt a fica," he said.
"It is a pretty old gun," answered the father, advancing to take it from his son's alded in advance as a character comedienne, and she is worth all the good At that moment the boy raised the gun things that one can say about her. No sooner had the great Burdock performed one trick on the Arcade stage yesterday than he had the people with him. Burdock is a magician, and the way he creates eggs, apparently out of nothing threatens to drive all hens out of the business. One of his star acts is taking different-colored silks from an in-nocent-looking newspaper and making them into the Stars and Stripes. He also juggles about gold coins, and the latter ear to fly to him from the realms of nothingness. "I'm only in the business for fun. I don't work for this money," he explains. Kate Coyle is heard in a very attractive ballad, "Stay in Your Own Back Yard," the offering being well sung and worthy of the hearty reception it is getting. Russell and O'Neil, Irish comedi-ans, are the funny due of the show. Mr. ans, are the funny duo of the show. Mr. Russell has a good make-up as a son of the Emerald Isle, and he aroused interest by singing a song—"All We Want Is John L. Sullivan Back Again." Emma O'Neil. female baritone, is heard in a couple of new songs, and is again a winner. One of the greatest pictures shown this season in vaudeville is that flashed by the Again bloscope Unstruiting the work of a Arcade bioscope Hustrating the work of a lifeboat crew. This act is alone worth the price of admission.

Death Rate in September Low. CHICAGO, Oct. 2.—September, 1904, takes its place in the vital statistics of the city as that of the lowest September mortality on record, according to the weekly bulle-tin of the Chicago Health Department. Its total of 1935 deaths from all causes represents an annual death rate of 12.33. The lowest previous death rate for the month was that of September, 1903, when the rate was 13.12 per thousand. LOW RATES TO ST. LOUIS FAIR.
