Largest Store IN THE WORLD

Gimbel Brothers OF PHILADELPHIA

On the 12th inst. Gimbel Bros., of Philadelphia—the largest store in the world—announced the result of a voting contest by which was decided which 20 Philadelphia ministers of all connected with their city churches should be awarded a free trip to St. Louis and return, at the expense of the firm. The contest lasted the greater part of FOUR months. A total of 1,224,000 votes were cast.

Largest Store IN PORTLAND

Olds, Wortman & King's BY A LARGE ACREAGE

On May 16 this great store—Portland's largest—opened a grand educational contest, by which was decided by popular vote what three of Portland teachers should be sent by this house, with all expenses paid, to the great World's Exposition at St. Louis. The contest closed Saturday, August 6—OR LESS than THREE months from the day of its opening. The total vote at the close was 1,282,403, or 58,403 VOTES MORE than were cast by the patrons of

THE LARGEST STORE IN THE WORLD

We do not call attention to this fact for mere bragadocio, but as a matter of local pride. No city in America can lead this "Rose City" of ours in anything where merit is involved; and this store, that has grown so steadily and healthily from its start, setting pace for the city that surrounds it, until today it stands the biggest and sturdiest mercantile offspring, is proud of its grand mat-familias—PORTLAND. THURSDAY, THE SECOND DAY OF STIRRING INFORMAL OPENINGS, THIRD AND FOURTH STORIES NEW SIXTH-STREET ANNEX BUILDING. We mark the event by special values in every department in all three of the great buildings that form today PORTLAND'S LARGEST AND FOREMOST STORE!

SPLENDID NEW ATTRACTIONS COME TODAY

To Rejoice the Homefitters—A Gala Day Marks the Opening of the New Sixth St. Annex Store On Fourth Floor.

You won't mind the sound of the drill, the hammer, the plane and the saw; or the confusion of the workmen engaged in putting on the finishing touches of a two years' task when you look about you at the grand array of matchless values spread out here on the great Fourth Floor—for there's just much to be done before the formal "openings." But the new annex departments on third and fourth floors are ready and doing a "hand-off" business. No wonder, when temptors like these beckon to every aisle. Lookers welcome as buyers—come and see the new stores.
