Halloween Is Celebrated With Due Frivolity.

ONLY ONE BOY ARRESTED

Police Department Kept Busy Answering Telephone Complaints Regarding Minor Depredations and Gate Stealing.

"Helio, is this the Police Station? Send a detective here right away. That bad Rliey boy next door has taken away our gate and if we don't find it the cows will get out. Can you let Joe Day come out and watch the cows while we find the

This and kindred complaints poured in-This and kindred complaints poured in-to the Police Station last night in an endless stream. Station Officer Lillis was kept busy answering the telephone from nightfall until daybreak this morning. Hoodlums were demolishing fences in this part of town, boys were tearing down a bouse in that end. Every policeman on house in that end. Every poinceman on the force, day men and night men, every detective, every special was on duty last night. The city swarmed with policemen, and the boys attempting to celebrate Halloween found themselves very much up against the real thing. In some in-stances the boys objected to an officer's An officer was stoned in the od of Eighteenth and Thurman

But with all the bustle there were few arrests and not much damage. gates are perhaps missing this m some sidewalks are torn up, and the effects of other depredations of like character are noticeable, but there was a happy absence of destroyed property and not much noise.

Hoodiums turned in a fire alarmed

Hoodiums turned in a fire alarm from box 22 at 8 o'clock and the department made a run, only to find no fire. There were an abundance of tricks played over the telephone. Jack-o-lanterns could be seen throughout the residence district. There were many Halloween parties and he young people enjoyed themselves gen-

It was the boys' night to howl. They howied if an officer chased them and they howled if no officer could be seen. They tormented timid maidens and ticktacked old maids' windows. They made assaults on the woodsheds and attracted the wrath of the property-owners, while companions quietly removed the front rates and carried them to parts unknown. It was reported from South Portland that an officer attempted to stop young men who were wheeling away a buggy, and that the officer was made a prisoner and forced to ride three blocks in the seif-same buggy, much to the merriment of rhood.

There were no reports at police headquarters of serious destruction of prop-erty. Word came in that boys were demolishing an unoccupied house in North Portland, but investigation showed it to be untrue. Word was also received that a crowd of boys were attempting to de-mollsh the Weinhard brewery, but inves-tigation showed they were only demoish-ing the product thereof. Chief Hunt had the town flooded with policemen, in uni-form and plain clothes, and it didn't take the boys long to find it out. And when they did, the pranks were played on the policymen instead of the property-own-ers. Many an officer was suddenly sent for to put a stop to depredations only to find when he arrived that the emergency call was a hoax. Up to midnight only one boy had been arrested, and he was afterward released, the compiainant iscovering that he had caused the wrong oy to be taken into custody. Early in the evening it was reported that boys were having a gay time on Portland Heights, where police protection is poor. Captain Moore immediately or-dered a squad of officers there, and the reports of mischief stopped coming in. On one trip to Albina, when two drunken French sailors were captured, the patrol wagon passed 12 officers and saw but three boys. The East Side was the scene of the most mischief, and in spite of the numerous officers, the boys apparently had their time.

HARMONY AMONG THE BARBERS Bosses Will Let Ten P. M. Shop Work Its Own Cure.

Harmony reigned among the boss bar-bers at their meeting last night, the only discussion coming up over the profit-cut-ting 19 P. M. closing hour. But that was only discussed generally, as the bosses have decided to give the Hotel Portland shop ample time in which to find out whether they could not as well close at 8. The latter hour would gladly be taken up by all the other shops, and if the Hotel Portland shop can handle its frade and close at 8, all will. The bosses speak as if that would really be the outcome of the

if that would really be the outcome of the present 1.1xed-up condition.

The association formed by the bosses took on definite form last night with the election of permanent officers. F. J. Browning was made president; F. T. Rogers, vice-president; S. H. Howard, secretary, and A. Jubitz, treasurer. In addition an advisory committee was appointed consisting of J. D. Neidermeyer, Libuis Henry, Chester Hare, W. H. Ewell and George Febvet. George Febret.

The bosses state that they wish all bosses to join the association for a particular reason. It is part of the history of exposition cities that a man is likely to be charged any price for a shave, de-pending on whether he gets into a decent shop or a cheap one where the customer is charged about as much as he will stand without calling in the police. ciation hopes to become so well organized by next Spring that it will be able to fight these irregular shope during the Pair and force them into line with regular prices.
