HOPS-Dealers believe the murket is on the eve of important developments. A number of pressing Eastern orders were received yesterday, which would indicate that the brewers have seen the error of their ways and are now trying to get hold of hops before it is too late. The views of growers have been materially stiffened by the pool project, and they declare they will make no concessions. If they persist in this attitude at the present time, they will probably force prices up to the figure they have been wait-TE Sor

The New York Journal of Commerce, of scoper 29, said: Up-state advices continued The New Jork Journal of Commerce, of October 28, maid. Up-state advices receiltneed to report firm markets, and miles reported were 250 bales medium to prime grades at Shifts. Locally, there was a firm market, with a fair inquiry at 30005c for prime to choice states, but few sales resulted, deal-ers holding for higher prices owing to the strength shown by the primal markets. Brewess continued steady buyers and have paid, it was learned, up to 60c for choice states. It is stated that there is considera-ble complaint from brewers who have con-traded outstanding with cortain certain deal-ers would be be market short early in the scanney, in fast some of the trade express their inability to obtain shipments on these constituents.
