

The Art of Piano Buying

Is simplified when you are a finished performer, but not all persons can boast of such ability. Such persons as the KNABE, STECK, EVERETT, FISCHER, HARTMAN, LAUDY, PACKARD and VOSE offer a quick and satisfactory solution of the problem. They are pianos of the highest grade, possessing all those features prized by the masters of music. It pays to buy the best, but if your circumstances will not warrant it, then make a selection from our large stock of medium-priced instruments—the best the market affords for the money. The way—any way, plan makes it possible for all to possess a nice piano. Would be pleased to have you call and see us.

The speakers were Elihu Root and Frank B. Rowland, of California. Mr. Root was cheered some time before he was allowed to speak. Mr. Root said, in part:

I am glad to see so many men and women of New York who dare to come to this riding academy tonight, because it shows you are not afraid of a "man on horseback."
