

ARGUMENT FOR LOCAL LAW

Lawyers Attack Power of Council to Pass It

IS LICENSE LAW REPEALED?

Judge Pipes Says It Is by Local Option Law, and Says There is Discrimination in the Ordinance.

THE FACTS ARE—That within twenty-one days... THE CHINESE SAY—'We are seeing and we can play.' CHIEF HUNT SAYS—'The game is running—that all I can say about it.'

The local option law takes the place of all other liquor laws, full and complete. It repeats them by implication. There is not one word in that law about license.

These remarks were made yesterday by Judge M. J. Pipes in an argument before Judge George against the legality and constitutionality of the ordinance prohibiting booths and boxes in saloons and restaurants, or the sale of liquor therein.

City Attorney McNary argued that there is nothing in the ordinance that is not within the police power granted to the Council by the charter.

Council Can't Discriminate.

Judge Pipes contended that, where a power is conferred, the mode of its exercise must be reasonable. In order to take away from the Council the right to pass upon the ordinance, the charter would have to provide that the Council have power to prohibit boxes.

The ordinance prohibits the sale of liquor in booths and boxes and the same kind of girls go there. Still the ordinance does not prohibit booths.

Decisions to be Rendered Today. Decisions in the following cases will be announced this morning by Judge Sears: Dixie Queen Mining Company vs. A. A. Pompe; action at law, merits.

Humbug About Boxes. In one section of the ordinance a person is prohibited from selling in booths or boxes, and in the next section is prohibited from having any booths or boxes.

How It Affects Clubs.

John F. Logan made a long speech against the ordinance and read numerous authentic authorities to prove that unless the Council has express power by charter to prohibit boxes, the Council cannot do so.

Attorneys Want a Fight. Bernstein & Cohen, attorneys, have sued Carrie Bainbridge in the State Circuit Court to recover $250 attorney's fees, and have caused the Sheriff to attach property which she owns in East Portland.

Wife Deserted Him.

J. L. Bohannon yesterday filed suit in the State Circuit Court against Anna E. Bohannon because of desertion commencing in January, 1892.

REGARDLESS OF CONSEQUENCES

Prohibitionists Speak in Church, and Say Policy Should Be Enforced.

Rev. J. J. Staub, of the Sunnyside Congregational Church, and Rev. E. Nelson Allen, of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, addressed a small audience in the Sunnyside Methodist Church Thursday evening in behalf of prohibition.

Police Power Unlimited.

J. P. Kavanaugh, Deputy City Attorney, said a good deal has been said about prohibition.

bitting business of these saloons and restaurants. If it is impossible to do business that is lucrative except in that way, it is an argument and a strong argument, that the ordinance should be sustained. Why cannot a saloonkeeper make his living by selling his liquor over the bar, or in the room in which his bar is located? Why cannot a restaurant keeper make his living in the main room and not in boxes? The principal business of the restaurant-keeper is to serve meals and not liquor.

INFORMATIONS DISCLOSED.

Other Cases Brought by Municipal League Will Be Tried.

Yesterday the information filed against Peter O'Neil, White Solomon and Harvey Dale, of the Portland Club, and Eugene Blasier and August Erickson, when James McDevitt started his crusade against gambling last summer, were dismissed by Judge George on motion of Deputy District Attorney Moser.

THREE DIVORCES GRANTED.

Judge Sears Dissolves Matrimonial Bonds for Mismatched Couples.

Three divorces were granted by Judge Sears yesterday, two for desertion and one for cruel treatment. Florence F. Green was divorced from James H. Green. She testified that they were married in this city in June, 1902, and soon afterwards he falsely accused her of unfaithfulness and closed her in various ways in the presence of others.
