Democrats Say Parker Will Have 270 Ballots in Electoral College-No Excitement About Hotels, and Little Money is Wagered.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7 .- There was no extreme anxiety about political headquarters today, but the managers were alert watching the close of the campaign with great interest. The Democratic National Committee issued a statement claiming with confidence the election of Judge Parker, and also making assertions about the campaign fund of the Repub lican party. APPEAL OF THE DEMOCRATS.

Allege Republicans Are Using Trust Money in Campaign.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.-The National Democratic Committee today gave out a final statement for publication. It is addressed to the "Democratic and Independ-ent Voters," and reads as follows: "This committee has conducted a Na-nal canvass in a manner, it believes, belitting the dignity and integrity of the American people. It has advanced no imaginative claims respecting results and has not accepted for use in the campaign a single dollar from the tariff-bred trusts, whose exactions have so greatly increased the cost of every necessity of life and which are now contributing from their gains great sums of money to perpetuats Republican rule Republican rule.

"The Democratic candidate, if elected, will be absolutely free from obligation, direct or implied, to any person or group of persons, other than the whole people, who shall have intrusted to him the maintenance of the welfare of the republic.

"This committee asks for itself only so much credit as such conduct of a canvass "This committee asks for itself only so much credit as such conduct of a canvass men from eight to six, making our total may merit, but it does feel that both the party and the country are to be congratulated upon the fact that out of discord and weakness has been wrought a union of strength. The difficulties attendant upon this achievement are well under-ing. upon this achievement are well under-stood. At every turn, by every conceiv-able method, in every doubtful district of every doubtful state, the efforts which we maintain to have been at least patri-otic and know to have been creditable to both the candidate and this committee to both the candidate and this committee have been met by an avalanche of money.

"The source of supply of this great Republican campaign fund is no longer a matter of suspicion.' The Republican candidate declared with great vehemence that he had promised nothing more than he may be pleased to consider 'a square deal,' in return for campaign contributions. The Republican chairman, he vigorously asserted, had assured him more than once that there had been no neces. than once that there had been no neces-sity for making direct pledges—that it sity for making direct pledges—that it had been found possible to obtain all the money needed up to that time, at any money needed up to that time, at any rate, without doing so.

"Neither he nor his chairman denied that contributions had been accepted from the trusts, for the simple fact was undeniable, and each knew that it was susceptible of overwhelming proof. The payments were "voluntary," not forced; such, and such alone, was the burden of denials which were virtual admissions.

"The only question remaining was how much had been considered necessary. Fortunately, even this information was forthcoming. Simultaneously with the preparation of the most extraordinary temperamental document, indicative of the keen-ent desperation which has ever emanated from the White House, the candidate's most intimate and trusted adviser, the former Secretary of War, just returned from Washington, was uttering another and more detailed 'defense' of his chief in this city.

"The mere fact of contribution," he held to be inoffensive. His chief pride was in the great work accomplished for so small an expenditure. The fact is, he proudly deciared, 'that it is the smallest fund we have had for 12 years—about one-half the Republican fund when Mc-Kinley was elected in 1898." That fund, it is well known, was approximately 180,000,000. Accepting these figures as cor-000,000. Moreover, we have the cheering intelli-gence to convey to all Democratic, independent and patriotic citizens that the most recent and thorough canvasses of the doubtful states are absolutely con-vincing that Judge Parker will be elected.

"Fully appreciating the fact that within 48 hours the actual result will be known, and keenly sensible of the responsibility we assume, we declare our positive belief that the Democratic candidates will receive at least 270 votes in the electoral college.

NO DOUBT IN INDIANA.

Roosevelt Will Pole More Votes Than Gubernatorial Candidate.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 4.-There is no perceptible change in the political situa-tion in Indiana since Saturday night. The leaders of both parties appear confident that their work has been brought to a successful conclusion. The Vice-Fresidential candidacy of Sen-this state a peculiar and unusual contingency.

The possible necessity for the election of two United States Senators has been the incentive for the Democratic State Committee to concentrate its efforts on the legislative ticket. Many prominent Democrats believe their party will make serious inroads upon Republican strength on the legislative districts. On the other hand, Republican party leaders are confident that the Republicans will have increased representation in the Legislature. Today it appears that Indiana is Republican by a safe majority. It is, the consensus of opinion that John W. Kern, the Democratic candidate for Governor, will run considerably ahead of the National ticket or conversely that J. VIGOROUS FIGHT IN ILLINOIS.

Democrats Still Have Hopes of Carrying the State.

CHICAGO, Nov. 6.—Nothing developed today to break the regular Sunday monotony at the Western headquarters of the Republican National Committee. The day was spent by those remaining at headquarters in making estimates of how large quarters in making estimates of how large President Rocesvelt's majority would be. There was a report afloat at headquarters tonight that the Republican National Committee would maintain the headquarters of the committee in Washington during the next four years. To give strength to the statement, it was rumored that Chairman Cortelyou would be located at Washington for the next four years, and would be unable to use his office as the headquarters of the committee, as Senator Hanna did, that it would be necessary, for convenience sake, to open headquarters at the National Capital.

headquarters at the National Capital.

The state campaign is still being pushed vigorously by both parties. The state leaders on both sides claim to be hopeful of victory, although the indications are apparently in favor of Republican success. Roy West, chairman of the Republican State Committee, said tonight:

"The probabilities are that the state will be represented in Congress by at least 17 Republicans. Two of the districts are still doubtful, and we may be able to cut down the number of Democratic Congress.

down the number of Democratic Congress-

"While it is a far reach to place Illinois in the Democratic column, still it must be remembered that Illinois went Democratic in 182, when nobody expected it would do so. There are many of the same political conditions in Illinois this year as there were 12 years ago, and we earnestly believe we have a chance for success again."

ONLY A QUESTION OF SIZE.

Pennsylvania Will Be Overwhelmingly Republican.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 6.—About the only interest in the National and state tickets in Pennsylvania is the size of the Republican plurality. Republican Bate Chairman Penrose predicts a plurality of from $00,000 to $25,000 for the National ticket and the same vote for John P. Elkins, the Republican nominee for Supreme Court Justice.

The Democratic managers have made no estimates beyond anying that the Republican prediction is too high. The Democratis have made a determined light in eight of the $1 Congressional districts, and hope to increase their membership in the National House by three. The Republicans claim the Republicans claim the Republicans delegation will remain the same.

The Legislature will remain overwhelm—

It has aggressive organizations in every state of the Union except Vermont, Rhode Island and Pennsylvania. In all except these states the ticket is on the official ballot. Mr. Watson advises us that the electoral vote of Georgia will be cast for him. A people's party Congressman will in all probability be elected in Alabama.

BOISE, Idaho, Nov. 6.—(Special.)—The campaign in this state is closing with every indication pointing toward a large Republican majority. It is admitted even by the Democrats that Rossvelt will carry the state with a majority much larger than was cast for the Republican state ticket two years ago, but the Democrats insist they will make great inroads on the state ticket.

Another influence in the campaign is what is called the sheep question. Mr. Gooding, the Republican candidate for Governor, is a sheepowner. There is a feeling among settlers in the mountain valleys against sheep and their owners, and Mr. Gooding will undoubtedly be cut considerably on that account He has announced his adhesion to what is called the two-mile-limit law which gives settlers right of action for damages against the owner of sheep driven within two the owner of sheep driven within two miles of his habitation; but the Demo-crats demand a more stringent law, one making it a public offense to drive sheep within that distance of a habitation.

Sheep interfere with the small settlers, particularly in the matter of range for their cows and horses. They likewise interfere with prospectors. Hence the feeling. It cannot be overcome, and is likely to cost Mr. Gooding several hundred In the northern portion of the state some inroads are said to have been made some inroads are said to have been made upon Republican strength because of the sugar-bounty law. Under the law the companies have earned some $250,000, but there is no appropriation for payment of this sum, excepting $20,000. It has been held by competent attorneys that the law is unconstitutional and the sugar companies have not pressed claims for bounty. The law expires by limitation at the close of the present year, but that earned bounty of $250,000 has given the Democrats opportunity to appeal to the people, and they have done so with some success in the North.

Jefferson Fond of a Good Horse.

From Family Letters of Thomas Jefferson in Scribner's. I am compleatly satisfied with my horse from Major Eggleston. a better one in harness I never drove. he brought me in my single phaeton from Washington, without over appearing fatigued, aitho the roads were bad, & and the weather rainy, he is fine tempered and manageable, tho high-spirted, tho the price was about 50 D too much from appearances, yet I would give that advance in the purchase of a horse to know that he was what I wished. Castor, & Fitzpartner are both left here at nurse, and I shall have them sold, consequently my stable will be reduced to Diomede & St. Louis, a match for Diomede, as good as he is, would make it up what will suffice for me as a private citizen. I will thank you to be on the enquiry, for such an one, and to give me notice of price & properties, but it will be essential that he match Diomede tolerably, and be well broke to the carriage & no baulker. I trouble you with these commissions because you are in the only part of the country where a fine horse can be got. I leave this for Wissin ington the day after tomorrow. I have received no foreign news of consequence since I saw you. present me with all pos-sbile affection to the family, and be as-sured of my constant attachment & re-TH. JEFFERSON

WOODARD, CLARKE & CO. OUR LOCAL DRUGGISTS

Say That the Wonderful Popularity of Vinol is Due to Intrinsic Merit.

"The intrinsic merit of this new cod liver oil preparation, Vinoi," said Mr. Clarke, of Woodard, Clarke & Co., "is Clarke, of Woodard, Clarke & Co., "is beginning to be realized by the people of Portland. Of course, in my position as a druggist I have seen innumerable medicines and proprietary articles introduced, but never in my long experience have I ever known or heard of a mesicine that would produce more beneficial results than Vinol.

"I attribute this to the fact that Vinol contains in a concentrated form all the medicinal elements contained in cod liver oil, actually taken from fresh cods' livers, but without a drop of oil or grease to nauseate and upset the stomach, and it contains no sickening drugs.
