Enthusiasm Over This "American Week's" Leading Feature, the Gigantic "Comparison Sales" Has Reached Fever Heat

Not even a Presidential contest can hold a candle to it. Not half the talk over election that there is over the matchless values that have jammed the store to repletion, Saturday and yesterday. More triumphs today and tomorrow, and all week. Watch this "COMPARISON SALE"—follow its meaning—compare Olds, Wortman & King VALUES, QUALITIES AND PRICES, with elsewhere bargains (?). COMPARE—'tis a "COMPARISON SALE" that sets a hot pace for rivals this "AMERICAN WEEK," as our country sets the nations of the world in progress.

The struggle for political supremacy ends tonight; and whatever the result, the world well knows, the Government at Washington—by the people of the people and for the people—will stand steady as ever, guiding the destiny of the greatest country on earth to its mighty and honorable place at the head of nations. America forever! Long live the President.

The struggle for mercantile supremacy goes on everlastingly and eternally. 'Tis a ceaseless task to keep a "best" store best; but firm hearts, cool heads and steady hands guide this great mercantile craft through the dangerous shoals and rocks of decadence and of sordidness to the harbor of Prosperity and Success. It stands today a mighty monument to Honesty, Quality and Fairness, Energy, Enterprise and Capital. Portland's Largest, Foremost Store.

The Race Is On!

May the Best Man Win!
