FIGHTING AT PORT ARTHUR

Desperate Hand-to-Hand Conflicts Are Numerous.

JAPS TAKE MANY CHANCES

Their Total Casualties, as a Result of the Late Attacks, Are 1100—Several Fires and Explosions Occur Within the Fortress.

No final decision has been reached, but the officials here think Fournier will be selected.

Agreement Practically Complete.
LONDON, Nov. 7.—After today's cabinet meeting the Foreign Minister said that the Anglo-Russian agreement on the subject of the injury into the North Sea incident was practically complete. The one or two unimportant details remaining to be settled, it was said, would occasion no difficulty.

Nationality of Fifth Member.
ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 7.—It is believed that the fifth Admiral to be selected by the four commissioners who are to inquire into the North Sea incident will be an excellent British officer. The one or two unimportant details remaining to be settled, it was said, would occasion no difficulty.

Russia Likely to Meet Every Term.
LONDON, Nov. 7.—Colonial Secretary Lytton in a speech at Legationton today said there was excellent hope of almost immediate agreement by Russia to all of Great Britain's demands in connection with the North Sea affair.

Passes Through the Bosphorus.
CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 7.—The Russian volunteer fleet steamer Voronej, loaded with coal and provisions, passed through the Bosphorus at noon today, bound for the Mediterranean.

LIBERALS FOR ROOSEVELT.
Prominent Englishmen Know He Will Have a Firm Foreign Policy.

SPECIAL CABLE.
LONDON, Nov. 7.—"Liberals throughout Europe want to see Roosevelt elected. Reactionaries desire his defeat," said Herbert Eastwick Compton, the well-known historian, traveler and fiscal reformer, this morning. "Englishmen," he continued, "are unanimously for Roosevelt. They have nothing against Parker except that his personality is ill-defined and suggestive of negation, so far as international affairs are concerned. Roosevelt, however, is positive with regard to Roosevelt's aims. With him as President we expect America to exercise its rightful influence beyond the shores of the American continent and beyond the wider boundaries of its nonterritorial sphere of dominion."

Italy Favors Roosevelt.
ROME, Nov. 8.—Italian political circles are watching the Presidential contest in the United States with keen interest. They desire the success of Roosevelt, whose policy is highly appreciated as an element of international peace, justice, internal order, prosperity and political purity. The Vatican is also sympathetic toward Roosevelt, owing to his attitude with regard to the church in America and his straightforward dealing with the Filipino clergy.

Official Russia Against Roosevelt.
ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 8.—Official Russia is against Roosevelt. It believes a Republican triumph would be inimical to Russia in the Far East, since it would mean a vigorous extension of American interests in China. Besides the American spirit which would frequent and striking expression in the event of Roosevelt's election emboldens Russian reformers. The autocracy grieves that diplomacy, once exclusively the affair of the European Chancellories, must now always reckon with America.

EASILY STOPS STUDENTS' RIOT
Russian Police Exhibit Kindness, and Affair Ends in a Laugh.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 7.—There was a small student disturbance at the University today, but it was handled in the most rational manner as the one at the Kazan Cathedral about ten days ago, and as a result the whole affair passed off without serious consequences. About 1000 university students divided into two groups, one singing the Russian national anthem, and the other the "Marseillaise." The police appealed to the latter group to stop, and they agreed to do so if their opponent stopped. This was done, and the affair ended with a hearty laugh all around.

CUBAN CONGRESS OPEN.
Nationalist Leaders Will Not Pursue Former Obstructive Tactics.

HAVANA, Nov. 7.—The winter season of Congress opened today, promisingly in sharp contrast to the rows and disinclination to legislate which characterized the summer session, the members of the minority party occupied their seats in full force. Nationalist leaders have informed the Associated Press that it is not their intention to pursue their former obstructive tactics. There were less than half a dozen absentees in each House, and the proceedings were characterized by friendliness.

Highest Award at St. Louis.
ST. LOUIS, Nov. 7.—(Special Dispatch to The Oregonian.)—Economy fruit-jar exhibit of Kerr Glass Manufacturing Co., Portland, Oregon, has received the highest award and medal at Louisiana Purchase Exposition.

Still No Agreement With Strikers.
FALL RIVER, Mass., Nov. 7.—Representatives of the Fall River manufacturers and the striking operatives held another meeting tonight, but were unable to reach an agreement, and the situation is unchanged. The mills will be opened on November 14, as previously decided upon, to give the strikers an opportunity to go to work under a 12 1/2 per cent cut.

Charged With Stealing Bicycle.
Detectives Snow and Kerrigan arrested Henry Dine, aged 15 years, at Sixth and Washington streets, at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The young man is charged by R. Livingstone with the theft of a bicycle. He was released on his own recognizance by Judge Hogue.

Seals of Freight-Cars Broken.
Captain Moore, of the Police Department, was notified last night by railway officials that some one had been breaking the seals of freight cars in the yards just before trains pull out of the city. Whether any merchandise was stolen from the cars or not was not determined. Detectives will be placed on watch.

PRIEST CHARGED WITH FRAUD
Said to Have Registered on Illegal Naturalization Papers.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 7.—Rev. Father T. J. Aylward, assistant pastor of St. Patrick's Catholic Church, was arrested today at the parochial residence, adjoining the church, on the charge of having in his possession fraudulent naturalization papers, and having illegally registered on them. Father Aylward tonight made the following statement: "I want to find out if somebody has not used my name. I have been in St. Patrick's Church for two years. I took out papers at the Court of Appeals three years ago, and have them at the parochial residence. So far as I know, they are legal in every respect."

HOPES TO WIN BACK LOVE.
Mrs. Maybrick Believes Her Book Will Convince Her Children.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—(Special.)—Mrs. Florence Maybrick, as her attorney announces, will take up her residence here the last of this month. She will then complete the book she is preparing. It is to be her life history. She hopes to prove by the book her innocence of the crime charged against her, and to win back the affection of her two children, a beautiful girl of 18, and a son of 14. It is said they still believe their mother guilty, and she has not seen them since she was imprisoned, more than 15 years ago.

BEER FAUCET SAVED HIS LIFE
Bullet Intended for Bartender by Robber is Deflected.

SALT LAKE CITY, Nov. 7.—A beer faucet which deflected the course of a bullet saved the life of Frank Pagliusi tonight. A gray-haired man entered the saloon in which Pagliusi is employed as bartender and, drawing a gun, demanded the money in the till. As the bartender did not comply as quickly as desired, the bandit fired point blank at his stomach, but the ball was intercepted by a beer faucet. The hold-up rushed out to his buggy and drove rapidly away.
