

SHOW THEIR JOY

Republicans Gather at Headquarters.

CAY SCENES IN NEW YORK

Shouting, Noisy Multitude Packs Broadway.

OTHER STREETS ARE BLOCKED

Prominent Indiana Republicans Tender Vice-President-Elect Fairbanks a Reception at Indianapolis.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—Republican National headquarters was a scene of rejoicing tonight. The row of rooms which have been occupied by the committee were opened to a number of specially invited guests. The communicating rooms were thrown open, making a long corridor from Chairman Cortelyou's room to the pressroom.

Congressman N. Bliss, treasurer of the committee, was one of the first to appear, and soon after his arrival the result of the election was known. Chairman Cortelyou was delayed on Long Island. Just before 9 o'clock he went to the National headquarters, and soon afterwards issued a statement saying: "At this hour the indications are that the country has given an overwhelming vote of confidence in the President and his Administration."

Many personal friends of the President called to join the general celebration. James Bryce, M. P., was among the visitors.

As the reports from New York were received they were greeted with applause, and the Republicans seemed surprised, as well as gratified, at the great majority. They felt assured that the Empire State had pointed the way which the remainder of the Northern States would show, and later returns from outside increased their joy. During the evening luncheon was served in the rooms.

Broadway tonight was packed with a shouting, noisy multitude who were celebrating election. Horns, bells, rattles, whistles and other contrivances, which would create a din, were used with vigor and effect. Around the various points where bulletins were displayed the crowd jammed the streets until they were completely blocked. It was a good-natured crowd, and all seemed to be Republicans for the time, as the names of Roosevelt and Higgins were often and heartily cheered.

The result was known so quickly that much interest was taken out of the bulletins, and the crowds marched up and down the streets creating a deafening din that developed into a roar for more than a dozen blocks.

RECEPTION FOR FAIRBANKS.

Prominent Republicans Honor the Vice-President-Elect.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 8.—Senator Charles W. Fairbanks, who was today elected Vice-President of the United States, was given a reception at the Columbia Club tonight by prominent Republicans of the city and state. The affair was an informal jollification. Senator Fairbanks said to the Associated Press: "The result is a very generous endorsement of President Roosevelt and of his most admirable Administration."

Senator Fairbanks announced that he and President Roosevelt had exchanged congratulations.

GLAD TIDINGS FROM COAST.

Washington, Montana and California Are Strongly for Roosevelt.

CHICAGO, Nov. 8.—Secretary Dover, of the National Republican Committee, has received the following telegrams:

"Democrats concede Washington to Roosevelt by 20,000. We claim by 40,000. E. B. PALMER, Chairman."

"Butte, Mont., Nov. 8.—Accept sincere congratulations. It's glorious. Put Montana in the grand triumphal procession. LEE MANTLE, Chairman."

"California will give Roosevelt 75,000 majority, and all the Congressmen will be Republicans."

"GEORGE STONE, Chairman."

Chairman Fairley, of Colorado, reported early in the evening as follows: "Roosevelt and Peabody will carry Colorado. The latter's majority will be smaller than Roosevelt's."

CORTELYOU TO ROOSEVELT.

Country Has Given an Overwhelming Vote of Confidence.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—Chairman Cortelyou, of the Republican National Committee, sent the following telegram to the President tonight: "New York, Nov. 8.—To the President, Washington: "The country has given an overwhelming vote of confidence in you and your Administration. My associates of the Republican National Committee join me in heartfelt congratulations."

"GEORGE B. CORTELYOU."

Fairbanks Wins Roosevelt.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—President Roosevelt tonight received the following from Senator Fairbanks: "Indications are you have carried Indiana by largely increased plurality. Returns are meager."

Chairman William Barnes, Jr., of the State Executive Committee of New York, wired: "Your majority in the state will exceed 250,000. Higgins will have about 100,000."

Taggart Telegraphs Congratulations.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 8.—Democratic National Chairman Taggart has conceded the election of Roosevelt and Fairbanks, and has telegraphed his congratulations to Republican National Chairman Cortelyou.

Cleveland's Home Against Parker.

TRENTON, N. J., Nov. 8.—The first district, in which ex-President Cleveland voted today, gave Roosevelt a majority of 18 over Parker.

Incomparable, Matchless Sale

Of Women's Theater and Evening Wraps—Calling and Carriage Gowns, Evening Gowns and Party Costumes—Magnificent Creations, Fresh From Their Makers at

has excited the ire of a few inconsequential stores; the rest will follow—is coming every day, as a natural sequence. Stores that do business in a blundering way today cannot hope to cope with such organization as this. We gauge our supply upon demand and outlet; basing all on "style." Few women would dream of going to a "grocery store" for magnificent evening gowns—and few do as the days that go by in the week attest. Hundreds of home-folk and some good neighboring people, as well as tourists, have taken advantage of this GREAT HALF-PRICE SALE! Hundreds more will, Monday and Tuesday were record-smashing days in the great Salons of Dress. For the balance of the week we want to urge the importance of attendance upon OUT-OF-TOWN FOLK. It will pay to plan a special trip to Portland to attend this sale. Think of saving $50.00 on a $100 evening gown, wrap or costume, or $100 on a $200 value of the same, that's just what you do when you buy these same here this week—and our regular prices, at all times, are lower than elsewhere in all the West for same qualities—to say naught of the exclusive styles obtainable only at this store, west of Denver. In them you'll recognize the master touch of the famous Parisians who dominate the world of fashion, as well as leading Berlin, Vienna, London and New York designers, among the latter that world-famous fashion moulder and creator Mile. Schroeder herself, noted as "New York's best-dressed woman," and whose creations are not shown on the Pacific Coast outside this great style store. Worth, Paquin, Sara Mayer, Douillet, Radnitz, Francis & Cie, Doucet, Gustave Beer, Madam Agnes and other famous Parisian designers' models are represented here. In smartness and style naught is left to be desired. It's a sale that vibrates with vital interest and holds forth the greatest buying opportunities to every woman who wants the latest and most authoritative expression of Fashion's later ideas in theater and evening wraps $50 to $250, now one-half price—$25 to $125; calling and carriage gowns, $75 to $250, now one-half price—$37.50 to $125; costumes and evening gowns, $85 to $500, now one-half price—$42.50 to $250.
