

PRESIDENT AT POLLS

Roosevelt Is Received by an Immense Crowd.

ENTHUSIASTIC CHEERS GIVEN

Executive Retires Immediately to Booth, and Marks His Ballot in About Half a Minute—He Then Goes for Drive.

OSTER BAY, L. I., Nov. 8.—President Roosevelt and his party arrived here at 8:15 A. M. today, on a special train from Long Island City.

The polling-place is located in the second story of the Fisher building. The President was received with enthusiasm by an immense crowd.

As he turned away from the ballot-box he was cordially greeted by many old friends and acquaintances who had gathered to see him.

As he drove away the crowd cheered him enthusiastically.

The President's reception at the station was notably cordial. The station building had been decorated with flags and bunting, and a crowd of several hundred people had assembled to greet him.

Roosevelt Again Home. WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—President Roosevelt arrived at Washington at 6:15 P. M. from voting at Oyster Bay.

NEIGHBORS WELCOME PARKER

Judge Sleeps Late, but Appears at the Polls Shortly After Ten.

KINGSTON, N. Y., Nov. 8.—Judge Parker slept later today than he had in many months. It was after 8 o'clock when he arose.

Judge Parker drove up to the old pottery on Greenhill avenue, the voting place of the third district of the south ward, at 10:40 o'clock.

Fairbanks Goes to Wrong Booth.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 8.—When Senator Fairbanks went to the polling booth he was accompanied by his two sons, Richard and Frederick. The Senator went to the wrong booth and was directed to his own precinct voting place. He was in the booth one minute and 30 seconds.

MURPHY MUCH SURPRISED.

He Makes No Attempt to Account for the Result.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall, made the following statement tonight: "Of course I am very much surprised at the result. I do not attempt to account for it."

"I sincerely regret the defeat of Judge Parker. He was in all respects a worthy candidate. As much can be said for Judge Herrick and his associates on the state ticket. They undoubtedly were the choice of the Democracy, and their defeat is to be regretted more for the sake of the country and the party than for the candidates individually."

ELECTION ROW FATAL.

One Colorado Man Is Killed, and Two Others Are Wounded.

CRIPPLE CREEK, Colo., Nov. 8.—Three men were shot in this district today as a result of election quarrels. One of them is dead, another mortally wounded, and the third seriously injured.

The dead man is Christopher Miller, an ex-Alderman of Goldfield, and a Deputy Sheriff under Sheriff Robertson prior to that official's forced resignation after the independence explosion and Victor riot.

Miller was shot while sitting on a fence in front of a Goldfield polling booth. Isaac Lebo, a friend of Miller, was also sitting on the fence, was shot in the shoulder a second later.

Miller and Lebo were members of the Western Federation of Miners. Miller was deported last June, but recently returned.

Edward Hoyle, a Republican Deputy, was shot in the groin by Constable O'Leary after he had assaulted Mrs. Kennedy, a Democratic Judge of election, and attempted to shoot the Constable, who interfered. Warford and O'Leary were arrested. Mrs. Kennedy was also arrested on an order from Sheriff Bell, who charged her with creating a disturbance. She was subsequently released, but was not permitted to serve longer as a judge.

Companions Up to Arms in Water on Sandspit Are Unable to Give Any Aid.

HOQUIAM, Wash., Nov. 8.—(Special).—W. H. Karr, prominent young man of the city, capsized in a small skiff half a mile from shore today and was doubtless drowned. Karr, with two companions were hunting geese down the bay and having shot one started the skiff to secure it, leaving his companion on a sandspit half a mile from shore.

When a quarter of a mile from them he capsized. This was about 11 o'clock this morning. Dr. Wells tried to swim ashore to secure Karr's launch to go after him but the storm and tide beat him back and he was forced to return to the spit. The two men were forced to spend the hour on this spit while the tide came up to their armpits and receded, while Karr, who was clinging to the overturned boat was carried from sight by the wind and tide.

After the wind died down the men swam ashore took the launch and came to this city for help. Four steamers left tonight down the bay but little hope is entertained for his recovery. Karr was to have been married to Miss Knapp, of Aberdeen, in that city tomorrow.

REES TRIAL IS SET.

Detail of Officers Who Will Pass on Case of Paymaster.

VANCOUVER BARRACKS, Wash., Nov. 8.—(Special).—The detail for the court for the trial of Major Harry L. Rees, of the Pay Department, has been announced and will meet November 10 at 10 o'clock. The charges arraigned against Major Rees are as follows:

For making false reports as to the amount of money belonging to the Government which was deposited in the First National Bank of Portland; for the conversion of certain amounts to his own use for a period of several months; for the borrowing of money from a man in Portland in exchange for a worthless personal check given on the First National Bank of Portland, at which place he had no personal deposit.

It is given out, however, that Major Rees' accounts are not now incorrect and no charge is made on that score, as he has made good all moneys due the Government.

The detail of the court reads: Colonel George G. Grimes, Artillery Corps; Colonel Frank Taylor, Nineteenth Infantry; Colonel Edgar Z. Steever, Fourth Cavalry; Lieutenant Colonel William H. Comess, Deputy Paymaster-General, U. S. A.; Lieutenant Colonel Frank Taylor, Nineteenth Infantry; Major Rudolph G. Esbert, acting Chief Surgeon of the Department of the Columbia; Major George B.
