Democrats Ponder on Parker's Defeat.

BRYAN IS THEIR MOSES

They Look to Him as Their Leader for 1908.

NO CHANCE WITH PLUTOCRAT

"It Was a Fight of Men, Not Parties," Says Tom Word—"Democrats Will Not Tolerate Plutocracy," Declares O'Day.

DEMOCRATS ON THE PARKER VOTE.

TOM WORD—It was a fight not of party against party, but of man against man.

THOMAS O'DAY—There is no room in the land for two plutocratic parties. The result means that the rank and file of the Democrats will not tolerate plutocracy.

JOHN MANNING—Bryan worked sincerely for Parker, but his following knifed the ticket.

J. B. RYAN—The people once had a Democratic administration and hard times with it, and have not forgotten the circumstances.

FAT POWERS—Unless there is a great revolution or some other great cause to the contrary, the President will for years be chosen and elected by the rich men of the country.

Like chess players who have made their last move and lost their game, the Democrats are now telling how it might have been done and of the miscalculation that brought their defeat.

And on every side it seems to be the mind of others, one it might have been done and of the miscalculation that brought their defeat.

Others have opinions, but they are similar.

"I think," he said, "that the figures will show that Roosevelt has less votes than McKinley, but Parker had none, comparatively speaking."

"Parker was nominated by men who had fought Bryan in 1896 and 1900, and defeated him and put the party in a position to rule over them."

"You can say for me," he said, "that W. J. Bryan is the strongest man in the Democratic party today. I think that he worked sincerely for Parker, but that his following knifed the ticket out of revenge for what had been done to Bryan and his belief. It was not done with the intention of electing Bryan as President. He is deserving of nomination, and he will get it in 1908. His men would not recognize Parker, and he is now, has been and will be the leader of Democracy."

"The cause of it," repeated L. T. Perry in answer to a question as to why Parker had been snubbed so deep. "Why the cause of it was too many votes for Roosevelt. Roosevelt was a strong man as he should have been, which accounts for the difference between the votes of 1900 and 1904. The great disparity was caused by the difference in the strength of the candidates. The gold telegram did Parker no good, but reacted upon him and his chances."

Roosevelt's Big Plurality in Multnomah.

RETURNS ARE NOW COMPLETE

His Majority Over the Combined Candidates is 8338—Official Board Meets to Canvass Votes.

The complete unofficial returns of Multnomah County give Roosevelt 12,002 and Parker 283 votes.

Roosevelt's plurality over Parker is 11,728, and his majority over the Democratic, Prohibition, Socialist and People's candidates is 8338.

His opponents together polled only 6986, a few votes more than Bryan won four years ago single-handed.

The returns presented by The Oregonian today were obtained during the session of the official canvassing board, consisting of County Clerk Fleish and Justices of the Peace Setzer and the Prohibition party has completed with the exception of making the official totals.

The high and low electors on each ticket are shown in the following:
