

NEW IMPORTATION

We have just received twenty-five bales of fine Oriental Rugs especially imported for us from Persia, India and Turkey, by Fritz and LaRue, of New York. Every rug was bought beside the loom by an expert rug buyer, hundreds of rugs being culled over with infinite care. In beauty of design, integrity of texture and worth of fabrics, they represent the finest work of the most expert Oriental weavers. They are all handwoven in the historical hereditary designs of the various provinces and come in all shapes and sizes, from the miniature Anatolians to the largest sized Axars. As to prices---if you know anything about Oriental rugs you'll be amazed to learn how cheap they are.
