

Why Physicians Recommend Castoria

CASTORIA has met with pronounced favor on the part of physicians, pharmaceutical societies and medical authorities. It is used by physicians with results most gratifying. The extended use of Castoria is unquestionably the result of three facts: First—The indisputable evidence that it is harmless: Second—That it not only allays stomach pains and quiets the nerves, but assimilates the food: Third—It is an agreeable and perfect substitute for Castor Oil. It is absolutely safe. It does not contain any Opium, Morphine, or other narcotic and does not stupefy. It is unlike Soothing Syrups, Bateman's Drops, Godfrey's Cordial, etc. This is a good deal for a Medical Journal to say. Our duty, however, is to expose danger and record the means of advancing health. The day for poisoning innocent children through greed or ignorance ought to end. To our knowledge, Castoria is a remedy which produces composure and health, by regulating the system—not by stupefying it—and our readers are entitled to the information.—Hall's Journal of Health.

Letters from Prominent Physicians Addressed to Chas. H. Fletcher.

Dr. W. L. Leister, of Rogers, Ark., says: "As a practicing physician I use Castoria and like it very much."

Dr. W. T. Seeley, of Amity, N. Y., says: "I have used your Castoria for several years in my practice and have found it a safe and reliable remedy."

Dr. Raymond M. Everts, of Santa Ynez, Cal., says: "After using your Castoria for children for years it annoys me greatly to have an ignorant druggist substitute something else, especially to the patient's disadvantage, as in this case. I enclose herewith the wrapper of the imitation."

Dr. R. M. Ward, of Kansas City, Mo., says: "Physicians generally do not prescribe proprietary preparations, but in the case of Castoria my experience, like that of many other physicians, has taught me to make an exception. I prescribe your Castoria in my practice because I have found it to be a thoroughly reliable remedy for children's complaints. Any physician who has raised a family, as I have, will join me in the warmest recommendation of Castoria."

Dr. W. F. Wallace, of Bradford, N. H., says: "I use your Castoria in my practice, and in my family."

Dr. Wm. I. McCann, of Omaha, Neb., says: "As the father of thirteen children I certainly know something about your great medicine and aside from my own family experience, I have, in my years of practice, found Castoria a popular and efficient remedy in almost every home."

Dr. Howard James, of New York City, says: "It is with great pleasure that I desire to testify to the medicinal virtue of your Castoria. I have used it with marked benefit in the case of my own daughter, and have obtained excellent results from its administration to other children in my practice."

Dr. J. R. Clausen, of Philadelphia, Pa., says: "The name that your Castoria has made for itself in the tens of thousands of homes blessed by the presence of children, scarcely needs to be supplemented by the endorsement of the medical profession, but I, for one, most heartily endorse it and believe it an excellent remedy."

Dr. B. Halstead Scott, of Chicago, Ill., says: "I have prescribed your Castoria often for infants during my practice and find it very satisfactory."

Dr. William Belmont, of Cleveland, Ohio, says: "Your Castoria stands first in its class. In my thirty years of practice I can say I never have found anything that so filled the place."

Dr. R. J. Hamlen, of Detroit, Mich., says: "I prescribe your Castoria extensively as I have never found anything to equal it for children's troubles. I am aware that there are imitations in the field, but I always see that my patients get Fletcher's."

Dr. Channing H. Cook, of Saint Louis, Mo., says: "I have used your Castoria for several years past in my own family and have always found it thoroughly efficient and never objected to by children, which is a great consideration in view of the fact that most medicines of this character are obnoxious and therefore difficult of administration. As a laxative I consider it the peer of anything that I ever prescribed."

Dr. L. O. Morgan, of So. Amboy, N. J., says: "I prescribe your Castoria every day for children who are suffering from constipation, with better effect than I receive from any other combination of drugs."

Dr. H. J. Taft, of Brooklyn, N. Y., says: "I have used your Castoria and found it an excellent remedy in my household and private practice for many years. The formula is excellent."

Dr. Wm. I. Bosserman, of Buffalo, N. Y., says: "I am pleased to speak a good word for your Castoria. I think so highly of it that I not only recommend it to others, but have used it in my own family."

Dr. F. H. Kyle, of St. Paul, Minn., says: "It affords me pleasure to add my name to the long list of those who have used and now endorse your Castoria. The fact of the ingredients being known through the printing of the formula on the wrapper is one good and sufficient reason for the recommendation of any physician. I know of its good qualities and recommend it cheerfully."

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 13.—(Special.)—Portland lost two games of a double-header today by scores of 3 to 1 and 7 to 4, the first game being for the one postponed in Portland two weeks ago.

Starkles pitched the first game and was hit hard at the right time. Spies and Bernard getting triples and Cravath a homer, among others. Jones was very effective. The second game lasted but five and one-half innings and was stopped after sundown.

Mason, of Los Angeles, was hit nine times, but won because a local pitcher, Simons, who pitched for Portland, was hit for three singles and a triple in the first inning, and an error worked Los Angeles five runs. A pass, a double and an error made two more in the fourth.

READY FOR THE BIG GAME

MULTNOMAH AND OREGON TO MEET THANKSGIVING.

Both Teams Working Hard and Express Themselves Confident of Victory.

The account of the way Oregon defeated Washington in the football game Saturday at Eugene was read with delight by all the Portland football enthusiasts yesterday, because it means a game with Multnomah here which will be well worth seeing. A score of 15 to 0 against the much strengthened line of the University of Washington, made as it was by steady team work, prophesies a struggle with Multnomah which will go down in football history.

The game Saturday was played while Coach "Dick" Smith was away in California reflecting the Stanford-Berkeley game. He had left orders to play straight football, simple formation plays and straight backs, and his advice brought victory. From now on till Thanksgiving Coach Smith will be with his team, and what the last week's training means for a football team was shown plentifully Saturday in the Yale victory over Princeton.

The match here Thanksgiving day will be between a team of old, tried football players, individual stars, with a necessarily smaller amount of team work, against an eleven which began the season rather worse off for material than usual, but was schooled into a machine-like body by its coach, a man who could make even Columbia play not only clean, but good football. Columbia during Smith's captaincy last year, made a big hit in the football world, for the first time in several years. Smith was not there this year, and it went to pieces once more.

Smith's record at Columbia is what gives assurance of a hard game in store for Multnomah. If his team played such a steady, sure game at Eugene when he was away, there is going to be something doing when the team lines up against Multnomah. Oregon always plays a snappy, hard game of football, and has fought Multnomah a desperate fight annually for years, but it has never had the hopes before that it has this year. In a college team all depends upon the coaching, and there have been previous few college teams in the country this year which have received the coaching that Oregon has had.

But just now Oregon is more interested in another game, that with Corvallis on Saturday. The Farmers have laid as low as bird dogs on a point ever since the beginning of the season when they walked all over Washington much worse than Oregon did, and there is no telling what the outcome of their game will be. Coach Steckle, with several of his best players, was in Eugene Saturday learning his opponent's game, and there will be some tall work in Corvallis this week. The game Saturday will be for the college championship of the Northwest.

TO YALE AND WEST POINT.

Football Honors for the Year Will Probably Be Evenly Divided.

The football honors in the East this year will very likely go to West Point and to Yale. Something seems to have happened to Annapolis since it defeated Princeton, and the big Army-Navy game to be played Saturday on Franklin Field, Philadelphia, will probably go to the Army. Yale, by its victory over Princeton Saturday, has placed itself in the

ALL IN THE GAME AT ONCE

OREGON TEAM MOVES IN FASHION AS NEVER BEFORE.

Victors Have a Hard Struggle Before Them When They Meet the Husky Men at Corvallis.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Nov. 13.—(Special.)—Yesterday's football game between Oregon and Washington will go on record as one of the hardest and best games ever seen in Eugene. Oregon's decisive victory can be attributed to the excellent coaching of "Dick" Smith, the first graduate coach in the history of Northwest football. Smith's particular system of coaching puts 11 men in every play, the result being a high standard of team work. Although previous Oregon eleven have contained many star players, such as Coleman, Shattuck and Zeiger, never before have the websters shown such speed and strength of team work.

In Saturday's game every man on the team eleven aided materially in winning the game, but the work of several individuals deserves special praise. Walter McIntyre, a big freshman, who played for the first time at right guard, demonstrated the fact that he has great possibilities on the gridiron. As a ground gainer, McIntyre showed exceptional ability. Arnsperger, at left tackle, who was pitted against the hitherto invincible McDonald, outplayed his gigantic opponent in every department of the game. Although outweighed 21 pounds by McDonald, Arnsperger repeatedly broke through the line, throwing the Washington backs for losses.

The center trio of the home team played faultlessly, and the men of the back field moved like clock-work. Captain Joe Templeton displayed better defensive form than heretofore, while Kerron and Frank Templeton were in every play. Laquette was effective in handling punts, but Oregon's ends prevented Seattle's fullback from running in the Washington line, though which Kerron and the Templeton's shot for substantial gains.

Captain McMillon, at fullback, was an effective ground-gainer, while Dean and Shaw, Washington's freshman halfbacks, made fierce assaults on the local line. Center Rusk Critt and Left End Pollard did effective work, while Tibbals and Ormand, who alternated at right end, brought the Oregon backs to the ground with an earthquake jar. On the whole, however, Washington was outplayed and the Seattle men frankly admit that the best team won. The victors made a host of friends while in Eugene, for they accepted their defeat in a most sportsmanlike manner.

Oregon's next game occurs at Corvallis, where Coach Smith's eleven will be pitted against the undefeated team of the Agricultural College. The local collegians are not overconfident of winning the game, but they are determined. "If the 'farmers' win it will be only after the most spirited gridiron struggle ever seen in the Pacific Northwest. The intercollegiate championship of three states will be at stake, and although the local eleven will be outweighed 10 pounds to the man and will be opposed by a team of veterans, Oregon's feet-footed representatives will fight like demons to win the day.

The football management will run a special train to Corvallis, and the team will be accompanied by 50 excursionists.

Finding of Strange Coin.

PORTLAND, Nov. 13.—(To the Editor.)—A singular coin or piece of token or advertising money was found on October 30, 1904, by the children of Frank Scott, about ten miles east of Wood Springs, in this wise: Mr. Scott's dog chased a woodrat into his hole in a bank, and the children dug round out, finding in its nest a lot of arrow points, a string of beads and this coin, made of brass. It is the size of a 50-cent piece, and is a very close copy of the gold piece on the 200 piece. On the reverse side appears a shield similar to that on a 250 piece, with the words "Compos. Spies-Marks." The shield bears the words "E pluribus unum." but they are almost obliterated by abrasion. While there is no date upon either side, it is evident that the coin has been handled a good deal, and might be 30 or 40 years old. The question is "Is it an attempted counterfeit, or was it issued for some advertising or other business purpose? And if so, when and by whom?"

PORTLAND, Nov. 13.—(To the Editor.)—The significance of the election last Tuesday was its endorsement by the people of honesty and integrity and high, conscientious motives in politics and in the administration of the Government. Whoever oversteps this fails to be the friend of public opinion. To be sure, it was a personal triumph for Mr. Roosevelt. It
