PORTLAND'S LARGEST, FOREMOST STORE

DEPOT OF DEPENDABLE MERCHANDISE. THE "DIFFERENT STORE"—PORTLAND'S "QUALITY SHOP."

THE RENDEZVOUS OF RELIABILITY

From the very foundations, up through the massive steel pillars and girders, to the tip-top most pinnacle of this great store RELIABILITY stands out strongly defined. The store lives on it, you breathe it in at every inhalation. 'Tis stamped on every article of merchandise within its confines. Reliability and Quality first—and the price adjusts itself to fair methods—the lowest in all the West commensurate with RELIABILITY and QUALITY.

Successful Stores Must Expand!

THEY GROW, YEAR BY YEAR

The Great Annex Expansion Sales Go On Increasing in Interest Daily

We continue the remarkable values of the week strong in the belief that the store is creditably filling the void it has been built for. This week we celebrate the opening of the new Sixth-street Annex—an event that is the gate between the garden of blossoming endeavor and the field of ripened achievement. The hand of the public was on the latch—and it has thrown the gate wide open and accepted the great store in its new entirety as its own. The public has found it right in purpose, right in principle, right in conduct. In many things it is different from most stores, and in these things it is better. Its way is to find first what people want, then make it easy and comfortable for them to choose, then make the price easy to pay. To provide good merchandise, quality goods, of correct style at prices less than folk expect to pay—or would pay elsewhere. ISN'T THIS THE STORE YOU NEED?

THE GREATER OLDS, WORTHMAN & KING STORES—FIFTH, SIXTH AND WASHINGTON STREETS.

Friction—The Big Elevators

There's bound to be friction some times, even in well-regulated households. There was a little yesterday at the "housewarming" incident to the opening of the new Annex stores. The big elevators "bucked." It will take a day or two, perhaps, to get them regulated to a nicety so they will run along in the pleasant way this store's helpers are used to, but they'll finally get the ways of the rest of this great store family and learn to run without "friction." Meanwhile we'll ask our friends to be a little patient and overlook the bad behavior of these two huge public servants we've engaged to serve our patrons.

MILLINERY REPEATS!

Throngs crowded the light airy Millinery Salons yesterday in their new annex home. Our salespeople were busy as bees. We repeat the same offerings as yesterday for today's paper—nothing could be better. We've secured another lot of Miss Countess' photos and shall include them again in the attractions. Special offerings for the informal openings. Photographs of Miss Catherine, the popular actress and splendid woman. Given absolutely free! To the first 500 ladies making a purchase in the Millinery Department today, who will amount to be at $2.00, we will present free a beautiful cabinet photograph, large size, of this charming actress. It is ventilated over the spine, it can be worn in either direction, it is reversible and is made in seven different sizes. We sell them at Royal Worcester corset counter.
