MAKES A FULL CONFESSION

O. R. Holliday is Arrested While at the Home of His Parents-He Will Be Returned for Trial

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Nov. 16.—(Special.)— O. R. Holliday, aged 26, wanted at Port-land, Or., by Government authorities for alleged theft of letters and money from United States mails two years ago the United States mails two years ago when he was a carrier on a rural route, was arrested today near Jamesport, Mo, and brought to St. Joseph. He will at once be taken to Portland for trial. Post-office Inspector J. T. Clark, of Spokane, Wash., followed Holliday to Jamesport and caused his arrest. Holliday made a full confession tonight when arraigned before the United States Commissioner, Holliday's parents live at Jamesport and day's parents live at Jamesport and are highly respectable people.

BANDITS ARE CAPTURED. Men Who Have Been Terrorizing Wyoming Come to Grief.

OMAHA, Neb., Nov. 16.-A special from Cheyenne says the robbers who held up and killed Cashier Middaugh, of the Cody National Bank, and made their escape with a considerable sum of money, have been captured in Northern Wyoming. No details have yet been received.

Only One Man Captured.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 18.-A special to the Times from Cody, Wyo., says: According to news received by telephone from Thermopolis only one man has been captured. This was the larger of the two men who robbed the Thermopolis saloon. The captured man appears to fill the description of the one who shot Middaugh in the attempted bank robbery in Cody. The capture was made about three-quarters of a mile above the mouth of Owl Creek, in the Big Horn Valley, a few miles from Thermopolis. The three officers rode cautiously upon the ruffian and succeeded in getting a drop on him before he was aware of their presence, and upon being questioned as to the identity and whereabouts of his partner he refused to utter a single word; in fact, he has re-According to news received by telep utter a single word; in fact, he has re-mained silent ever since his capture.

Nan Patterson Arraigned.

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—The criminal branch of the Supreme Court was crowded with specialors when Justice crowded with specialors when Justice Davis took his sent on the bench to-day. Nan Patterson, dressed in black, was brought in by prison attendants and took a seat beside her counsel, Abraham Levy and Daniel O'Reilly. Her father, J. Randolph Patterson, sat in the bar inclosure. The work of selecting a jury was begun at once. The examination of each talesman was conducted with extreme thoroughness.

CHICAGO UNIONIST SEATED.

American Federation of Labor Engages in Heated Debate.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 15.—At the opening of the third day's session of the American Federation of Labor Convena telegram was read to the delegates alleging the complete failure of the attempt of the operators to open up the Fall River mills. This announcement was received with cheers by the delegates. Upon call for the presentation of resolutions, a number were handed to the secretary, swelling the total number to 71. A supplementary report of the committee on credentials was then submitted, and a fight was made on the floor over the seating of Delegate John Mangan, of Chicago, who can be considered to the seating of Delegate John Mangan, of Chicago, who came as a representative of the Gardeners' and Florists' Union, of Chicago. Delegate Spencer, of the United Plumbers' Association, of Chicago, led the forces in the fight against the seating of Delegate Mangan. He alleged that Man-

Considering the authority, the General's words may be accepted as a reflection of the view of the Emperor himself.
The General further stated that the surrender report was all the more ridiculous as several vessels had broken the blockade and reprovisioned the garrison. He added:

"General Stoessel also knows that the "General Stoessel also knows that the second Pacific squadron is on its way." It is intimated that the report goes at considerable length into the details of the recent flerce land fighting, but says the interior line of detenses remains intact. General Stoessel believes he will be able to withstand the Japanese assaults for some time to come. Some warships in the harbor have been damaged by shell fire, but not seriously. Many guns have been removed from the shipe and mounted on shore, where large drafts of the crews are taking turns in siding the garrison in its historic defense of the fortress.

BRILLIANT STATE FUNCTION

Guests at Windsor Castle Include Members of the Royal Family, Diplomats, Cabinet Ministers and Prominent Men.

LONDON, Nov. 16.—The state banquet at Windsor Castle tonight in honor of King Charles and Queen Ameile, of Portugal, equaled in brilliancy the previous magnificent functions at which European rulers have been the guests of Great Britain's reigning monarchs in the historic St. George's Hall.

The guests, numbering 166, included members of the royal family, foreign representatives at the court of St. James, cabinet ministers, lenders of the opposition, military and naval officials and others prominent in the highest circles of Great Britain. The guests assembled in the white drawing room, where they were arranged in order of precedence by officers of state, the ladies on one side and the gentlemen on the other.

As the clock in the great tower struck S. King Edward and Queen Alexandra entered together from their angestments.

King Edward and Queen Alexandra entered together from their apartments, and almost simultaneously the opposite doors rolled open for King Charles and Queen Amelie. The royal couples met at the center of the room, and King Edward gave his arm to Queen Amelie and King Charles gave his arm to Queen Amelie and King Charles gave his arm to Queen Amelie and King Charles gave his arm to Queen Amelie and King Charles gave his arm to Queen Alexandra, and their majesties, preceded by officers of state, led the way to the dining hall. As their majesties passed between the rows of guests, the latter bowed low and followed, pairing off in order.

The banquet was served on one table. It was a wonderful scens. At each end of the hall were great masses of celebrated gold plate piled under hundreds of electric lights, and the guests formed an avenue of the most brilliant coloring, flashing and sparkling with fabulous avenue of the most brilliant coloring, flashing and sparkling with fabulous wealth of jewels. The music by the band of the Irish Guards included Portuguess selections. There were only two speeches. That of King Edward, toasting King Charles, was followed by the Portuguese anthem and the British anthem was played when King Charles had responded with a toast to King Edward. After the dinner presentations were made to King Charles and Queen Amelie in the reception hall.

A special train for the guests left Wind-sor at 11:35 o'clock. King Charles, accom-panied by the Prince of Wales, shot in the Windsor Park today and made a record bag of pheasants. King Edward did not shoot, being lame owing to a slight injury to his foot.

The feature of the entertainment of the King and Queen of Portugal will be a visit to London, a procession through the city and a luncheon at the Guild Hall.

For more than two generations this section has been looked upon as one of the blots on the city. The place never is without a patrolman, one being detailed especially for duty in the street, little more than 350 yards in length.

Formerly the lane was the center of the Red Light district, but since the movement uptown the Red Lights have disappeared, and in their stead have come filithy houses. In the last couple of years tenement-houses of the accepted East Side model have begun to replace the low, old-fashioned brick structures, and this has made more pressing the demand for the judicious settlement work. The mission workers say the district is now in more need of attention from the charitable and the sympathetic rich than any other quarthe sympathetic rich than any other quarter in Manhattan.
