were not concerned with racial strife. The intervention of the military was unhap-ply attended by the death of innocent persons, but it ended the excesses. In closing the Premier said: "Who is to blame."

There were angry shouts of "You, Von Koerber," and amid great confusion the debate was adjourned.

French Deputy Speaks Boldly in Die

cussing Retirement of Andre.

the whole series of attacks to be built

The Chamber postponed the interpella-tion by a vote of 28 to 26.

PROGRAMME FOR BENEFIT.

Famous Balcony Scene.

offered to read a poem, and William Bernard, who is acting as manager of the matinee, has telegraphed to his friend Lester Lonergan, of the "Can-dida" Company, which is to appear here

OYSTER-HOUSE ROBBED.

Sald to Be Missing.

PERSONAL MENTION.

several weeks, is considered much better.

NEW YORK, Nov. 17 .- (Special.)

wife, at the Continental. From Salem, Or.-W. A. Jones, at

at the Astor; C. M. Roddle, at the Im-

Arrest Chinaman and Negro Woman. Roste Sherwood, a colored woman, Arrested for Defacing Property.

Defective Flue Causes Fire.

STEAM LOGGING OUTFITS, RTC.

Court today

Imperial.

awaiting a hearing.

Isaac Kay, a prominent resident of fount Tabor, has just returned from an

WILD RUN OF CAR

Four People Are Carried to Death.

MOTORMAN IS POWERLESS

Guard Gates Are Broken Down. and Freight Train Run Into.

CAR ENTIRELY DEMOLISHED

Not a Passenger Escapes Injury in Accident at Toronto-Conductor la Among Those to Lose His Life.

TORONTO, Ont., Nov. 17 .- A street-car with trailer attached got beyond control of the motorman and crashed through the guard gates at the Queen-street crossing of the Grand Trunk Railway tonight. A freight train struck the forward car, grinding it to splinters. Every passenger on the street-cars was injured, two dying soon after being taken from the wreckage and two at the hospital. The dead are:

JAMES ARMSTRONG, conductor, ONE-YEAR-OLD CHILD OF J. ROBERT-The baby was thrown from its mother's arms and both its legs were cut off.

MRS. MINNIE MAHAFFEY, internally injured: died at hospital. RUSSELL T. STEPHENS, internally injured; The forward car was struck fairly in the center and completely demolished. The vestibule, from which the motorman had jumped, was carried up the track 190 yards. The trailer was overturned, and all the windows were smashed, but the body of the car remained intact.

WRONGLY TAKEN FOR TRAMPS

Men Killed While Stealing a Ride Belonged to Promient Families.

DENVER, Nov. 17 .- A Republican special from Canen City, Colo., says that two bodies taken from a wrecked Rio Grande freight train at Salida yeaterday, and supposed to be those of tramps, were identified today as W. P. Howard and George H. Mackay, both of Ames, Ia. The men, who belonged to prominent Iowa families, had been spending the Summer in Colorado and, having run short of funds, decided to steal a ride home. They accordingly hid away in the vacant ice compartment of a refrigerator car.

The train to which the car was attached was wrecked and the car in which the men were concealed took fire. The men were suffocated. Identification was ef-fected through a memorandum book found

Men Injured in Wreck Die.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Nov. II.—Ralph C. Savoye and J. L. Smith, both of Grand Rapids, died today of injuries sustained in the Pere Marquette rear-end collision of passenger trains last night at Elmadale

These two deaths bring the total fatali-ties of the wreck to four.

The report that the body of the colored porter of the Saginaw train was dug out of the wreck late last night proved untrue. Clarence I. Pickett, of Brockline, Mass., is reported to be in a critical condition at a Grand Rapids hospital, but all the others injured are reported improving

HIS PRESENCE WORRIES HER seen Hee Wille Sit in Rear of Courtroom.

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.-When court adjourned seven jurors had been ac-cepted in the Nan Patterson case. Miss Patterson seemed in good spirits when she entered the courtroom today, and a brief chat with her counsel before the trial resumed added to her an parent cheerfulness. Mr. Levy informed the defendant that the morning mail had brought him a letter which might have an important bearing on the case What the letter contained was not di-

John Millin, who was Caesar Young's resident partner, and who, it is under-stood, will be one of the principal witnesses for the prosecution, was made to sit in the rear of the court, upon re-quest of the prisoner. Millin had a seat near the bar of the enclosure, and had been watching Miss Patterson closely for some time, when she asked that he be ordered away from the rail. As Mil-lin passed the defendant in going to the rear of the courtroom she shrank back on the shoulder of her father. An eyewitness to the shooting of Young was discovered in a most usual way today while the trial was in progress. Archibald J. C. Anderson, one of the men summoned for examina-tion as to his qualifications to serve on tion as to his qualifications to serve on the jury, was being questioned by As-sistant District Attorney Rand when he asked permission to speak with Jus-tice Davis, who is presiding at the trial. After a whispered conversation counsel for the prosecution and defense were called to the bench and a moment later Anderson was excused and joined coun-sel for the prisoner within the bar of Daniel J. O'Reilly, one of Miss Patson's attorneys, said an eyewitness the shooting had been discovered. ormation to this effect had been mmunicated to Justice Davis by Mr.

END TO SHIP-TRUST SUITS. Minority Stockholders Give Up Action Which Involves Coast Concern.

NEW YORK, Nov. II.—All action against Henry T. Scott, the Hyde Windlass Company, of Bath, Me., and the Union Iron Works of San Francisco, in the now famous illigation instituted by John A. Morris and five other minority stockholders against Charles M. Schwab and others, was discontinued today through an order signed by Judge Lacombe in the United States Circuit Court. The order releasing the defendants named from all commettion with the so-called shipbuilding litigation was issued with the consent of the complainants.

In the suit the complainants asked that the defendants be compelled to repay all the profits, money and bonuses they had derived through their connection with the formation of the new defunct Shipbeliding Corporation. Complaint was also made against Schwab individually for the method in which he accorded od in which he acquired the stock of the Bethlehem Steel Company for about $1,000,000 and sold it to the Shipbuilding Company for $30,000,000 in the securities of the latter.

A similar order was signed by Judge in member in the similar order was signed by Judge in member in the similar order was signed by John F. Harris vs. Charles G. Gutes and West.

John W. Gates, in the suit brought by Robert H. Bradbury, a minority stock-holder, against J. P. Morgan & Co., Harris, Gates & Co., Lewis Nixon, and a number of trusts and banking corporations that formed the subsidiary companies of the defunct shipbuilding trusts. The discontinuance of the action against the defendants also was made with the consent of the complainant.

RUSSIA WILL NOT RESENT IT Favors Roosevelt's Peace Move, but Can't Join in While War Is On.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 17 .- The ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 17.—The Russian formal reply says a circular note regarding the convening of The Hague Conference is not expected until next week. In the meantime the views of other powers are being ascertained through the Russian representatives abroad. While there is no reason to believe that Russia can agree to participate in a conference during the war, there is every indication that she will not only not resent the the war, there is every indication that she will not only not resent the proposal, but that her reply will be of a cordial character.

In the course of a conversation on the subject between Foreign Minister Lamsdorff and Charge d'Affaires Eddy, of the American Embassy, the former spoke feelingly of Russia's great interest in the work and aims of the peace conference initiated by Emperor Nicholas, and the important fact developed that it has been Russia's intention, had the war not intervened, herself to invite the powers to a second conference. While the war was in progress, however, Count Lamsdorff explained, it was a great difficulty to explained, it was a great difficulty to a fruitful discussion and to a decision in a question which might affect the activity of the present belligerent.

Delcasse Favors the Movement.

PARIS, Nov. 17.—A further conference between Ambassador Porter and Foreign Minister Delcasse relative to the reassemsings of The Hague Peace Conference shows that the Minister is favorable to the proposition thus practically assuring its acceptance by France, but the sub-mission of the question to the cabinet is necessarily deferred, pending a settlement of the cabinet complications.

Why Italy Delays.

ROME, Nov. 17.-Although favorable in principle to the reconvocation of The Hague Peace Conference, Italy has not yet answered the proposal of the United States officially, owing to the fact that an exchange of views on the subject is in progress between the powers forming the Switzerland Strong for Arbitration. BERNE, Switzerland, Nov. 17.—Arbitra-tion treaties will shortly be concluded bo-tween Switzerland and the United States, Great Britain, France, Italy, Austria-Hungary, Germany and Sweden and Nor-way. It is announced that a treaty has already been concluded with Belgium.

Italy Desires Treaty With America. ROME, Nov. 17.—The Foreign Office has informed Ambassador Meyer that Italy is quite favorable to the conclusion of an ar-bitration treaty with the United States, and will empower Ambassador Mayer des Planches to sign it in Washington.

VICTORIES FOR REPUBLICANS. Colorado Supreme Court Passes Election Cases.

DENVER, Nov. 17.—The Supreme Court today reaffirmed its decision that it has the right to take jurisdiction of the last election, and the hearing of testimony in the cases of 27 election officers, who have been cited for contempt, was commenced today. The court further held that the Elections Commission, in making the count in Denver, cannot go behind the re-turns, but must use the written count of the election judges and not count the tal-The decisions are victories for the sublicans, as in both cases the motions of the Republican attorneys were sus-

Counsel for the commission requested the court to instruct the commiss to proceed in instances where the totals had not been written up and also where no totals had been extended, either in figures or in writing. In the first case the court directed the commission to write the totals themselves, and in the latter to call in the election judges and clerks and require them to perform the duty exacted of them under the law. The commission has discovered several Crumpacker a Candidate.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 17.—Congress man Edgar D. Crumpacker has announced his candidacy for the United States Sen ate to succeed Senator Fairbanks

TO FIGHT SHOPLIFTERS New York Department Stores Form

an Alliance. NEW YORK, Nov. 17 .- Losses of half a million dollars through shoplifting have been suffered during the past year by 21 department stores in this city, whose proprictors, because of such losses, have formed an alliance to fight petty pilfering. The fact that such an alliance has been formed came out today when a woman was given a 15-day sentence in the Court of General Sessions after having pleaded guilty to a charge of stealing goods val-ued at $ from a department store. Hitherto the storekeepers have been willing to let offenders off with a fine and e court as a rule has acted according-Before sentence was imposed today, attorney who had prosecuted the case said that his law firm had been retained by an alliance of Il department stor prosecute every case of shoplifting.

DISTRESS IN MACEDONIA

Freezing and Starvation Stare Many in the Face.

BOSTON, Nov. 17.-The American Board

THE DEATH ROLL.

Famous Bearhunter and Scout. FI, ORENCE, Colo., Nov. 17.—Mrs. Albert Mooney, of this city, today received word that her father, William Perkins, better known as "Moccasin Bill," had died on a ranch near Montrose. He was about 50 years of age. He came to Colorado in 1860 as a Government scout to watch the nt of the Indians. He was a fa-

Pioneer Button Manufacturer. CHICAGO, Nov. 17.—John A. Conley, a doneer in the button manufacturing pusiness in the West, is dead at his residence here from a stroke of apoplexy.
Mr. Conley was born in Albany, N. Y., in 186, and came to Chicago in 1884. He was a member of the Washington Park

Kansas City Police Matron. KANSAS CITY, Nov. 17 .- Mrs. Hattle Moore, police matron of this city, died at her home here today after a long ill-ness, aged 82 years. Mrs. Moore was a member of the National Matrons' Society and was well known, especially in the King and Queen of Portugal Are Loudly Cheered.

PASS THROUGH THE STREETS

Visitors Are Guests of the London Mayor_Brilliant Theatrical Performance at Windsor Concludes Day's Pleasure.

LONDON, Nov. 17 .- King Charles and Queen Amelie, of Portugal, passed in proression through the streets of London day and had luncheon at the Guild Hall. as guests of the Lord Mayor and Corporation. As a pageant, the royal progress through the lamplit streets of the city could not be regarded even by the most enthusiastic as a success. An opaque fog, at some parts of the route so dense that it was impossible to see more than 50 yards ahead, velled the overhead decorations, and the troops lined the route and escorting the sovereigns hid the bright uniforms under heavy greatcoats. The crowds were not large, but nothing was lacking in the warmth of the reception given to their malesties.

given to their majestles.

Addresses were presented to them by the local authorities at various points along the route. One of these was typical of all. It neatly referred to Queen Amelie,

"Sprung from France, born in England, wedded to Portugal, she has linked three nations which we trust will always be found in close association with one an

At the Guild Hall, Lord Mayor Pound and the Lady Mayoress in their corpora-tion robes of office awaited the royal vis-A procession was formed and protors. A procession was formed and pro-ceeded to the library, where was the Prince and Princess of Wales, Cabinet Ministers, peers, members of the House of Commons, officials and officers of both services. An address in a gold casket was presented to King Charles and the preentations of officials and others to the sentations of officials and others to the King and Queen followed. Then the city's guests filed into the large hall, where luncheon was served. The Lord Mayor toasted the King of Portugal, who, in re-plying, referred to the long-standing al-liance between England and Portugal and hoped it would continue for all time. At the conclusion of the luncheon, the party returned to Windsor.

PLAY IS GIVEN FOR ROYALTY "A Man's Shadow" Is Presented by

Order of King Edward. LONDON. Nov. 17 .- One of the most brillant theatrical performances ever held in Windsor Castle occurred tonight when Beerbohm Tree, by the King's command, took down a special company to reproduce "A Man's Shadow." The stage was erect-ed in the historic Waterloo chamber, and the audience was worthy of its setting. In the front row of gold and red plush chairs sat King Edward; next to him was Queen Amelic of Portugal, then King Charles of Portugal at Queen Alexandra's right. They were flanked on either side by the Prince and Princess of Wales and the Duke and Duchess of Connaught. All wore the Windsor uniform, namely, evening dress, with red collars and la-pels. The orders worn by the men and pels. The orders worn by the men and the jewels on the women's dresses added brilliancy to an audience such as has seldom gathered in Engiand. King Edward and King Charles both tol-lowed the performance vivaciously. Mrs. James Brown Potter especially attracted attention, while another American, Ger-aldine Wilson, a small child of 9, upon whom this Jekyli and Hyde melodrama hinges, also won frequent applause. The cast included such well-known players as Lionel Brough, Gerald Du Maurier Clarence Blakiston and Kate Cutler, King Edward, despite a long and tiring day, looked exceptionally well. He sent hearty thanks to Mr. Tree for producing the play which, as Prince of Wales, was lways one of his favorites.

VIOLENT CRIES IN PARLIAMENT

Germans Oppose Premier's Policy Regarding Italian University.

VIENNA, Nov. 17.—After more than six months' recess, the Austrian Parlia-ment resumed its sittings today. The galieries were crowded in anticipation of Premier von Koerber's speech explaining the government's attitude and intentions regarding the Innsbruck riots and the Italian university question. After the intro-duction of the budget, the Fremier rose-amid a hostile demonstration from the German parties. His remarks regarding the Innebruck incident were frequently in the Innsbruck incident were frequently in-terrupted by noisy and violent cries from the Germans, who appeared to be greatly dissatisfied with Dr. von Koerber's ex-

The Premier asked the house to support the government bill for the establi the government our for the examination of an Italian law faculty at Roverto, in order to permit the closing of the provisional law faculty at innebruck as soon as possible. The Germans thereupon shout-ed: "The veterans will take care of that." The expenditures are estimated at $55. 205, 230, and the revenue at $355, 580 277 rentes amounting to $2,894,800 will be is-sued for the redemption of the bonds of the public scot falling due in 1995.

The Minister of Finance in his budget speech said great difficulties had been encountered in balancing the budget and though the conditions were becoming satisfactory, it is impossible to take an optimistic view while the appreciation. mistic view while the angalicht-agreement as to the cost Austria and Hungary each are to bear for the administration of their common affairs—and the commercial BONTON, Nov. II.—The American Board of Missions today received a cablegram from W. W. Peet at Constantinople announcing that the people in the vicinity of Adrianople, in Macedonia, are suffering terrible distress, death by freezing and starvation staring them in the face. Many persons will have to be fed during the Winter to keep them from starving.

The Premier announced that the govern ment accepted all the responsibility for the innsbruck affair and said the guilty parties would be punished.

It is considered improbable that th Rovereto bill will, in any degree, settle the Italian University question, the Ital-ians having absolutely declined to accept the government's offer to establish a fac-

Having announced a larger number of heaving announced a larger number of new bills dealing with a variety of international reforms, Premier von Koerbe emphasized the urgency of the country devoting itself to commercial and po-littice-economic developments, emulating Germany and other nations. Even Russla, with a great war on her hands, he said, is busily insuring her economic future by the conclusion of commercial treaties. The monarchy must adopt a customs tariff in order to protect home production and take measures to brild up a new economic Austria on modern lines. An excited discussion followed, Dr. Erelor accusing the Premier of treating him brutally in their interview following the Innsbruck trouble, Dr. Erelor decistred the Premier had not uttered a word of disapproval of the action of the Italian students. The House, he said, should concerning the except the presented the presented. customs tariff in order to protect he must abare the responsibility of the de-plorable innsbruck excesses, which never would have occurred but for mischievous agitation. Those disorders, he asserted, were not concerned with racial strife. The UNIONISTS WRANGLE

Chicago Case Comes Before Federation of Labor.

DECLARES PREMIER SHOULD GO NOW A QUESTION OF VERACITY

PARIS, Nov. 17.—In the Chamber of Deputies today M. Benoist, having announced his intention to interpellate the Ministry on the subject of magistrates who are alleged to have shielded their colleagues, Premier Combes insisted that the interpellation be placed on the list. The Premier declared he did not intend to give up republican officials to the vengeance of the opposition, and was surprised that the Chamber had allowed the whole series of attacks to be built Delegates Declare Executive Council Refuses to Hear New Testimony, Which is Indignantly Denied -Goes to Committee.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 17.—The Chicago Federation fight was threshed out on the floor of the convention at the afternoon's session of the American Federation of Labor today, but after a hot debate lasting two and one-half hours the matter was finally referred on motion to the committee or level. the whole series of attacks to be built upon papers, the genuineness of which had not even been demonstrated. He did not intend to sacrifice in a week, he said, the fruit of five years of republican propaganda. He was ready to check excesses of zeal, but never would yield to the orders of the Nationalists.

M. Ribot joined in the discussion, saying the public conscience was astonished when the Premier sacrificed General Andre when he was equally responon motion to the committee on local and federated bodies with instructions that a report be rendered at the earliest possible moment. possible moment.

Delegate Dole made an impassioned speech in behalf of the Federation. The eral Andre when he was equally responsible. The Premier, M. Ribot said, ought not to remain a moment longer in office. He also asked whether it were true that speech in behalf of the Federation. The leaders seemed disposed to sidetrack the question, John Mitchell, who occupied the chair in place of President Gompera, saying he would consider any motion to refer or defer the matter.

The point at issue rested upon the refusal of the Chicago Federation to comply with the demands of the American Federation to expel two local Chicago Federation to expel two local Chicago Federations. Premier Combes and the Minister of Jus-tice, M. Valle, had modified their con-duct after receiving a Masonic delecan Federation to expel two local Chi-cago unions. The basic principle of the whole dispute rested on a question of trade jurisdiction. The United Plumb-ers' Association of America claimed ju-risdiction over the two Chicago unions Columbia Stock Company Will Render risdiction over the two Chicago unions in question, which were not affiliated with the National body. It was upheld by the executive council of the American Federation of Labor, but the Chicago Federation persisted in disregarding the ruling and allowed the two seceding unions to affiliate with its central body. The Chicago Federation was thereupon expelled from the National body until such a time as it saw fit to comply with the edict of the ex-The balcony scene from "Romeo and Juliet," with Cathrine Counties as Juliet and Edgar Baume as Romeo, will be the contribution of the Columbia Stock Company to the benefit for Miss Edith Angus, at the Columbia Theater, Tuesday afternoon. Rose Eytinge has fit to comply with the edict of the executive council.

The fight on the proposition was the hottest that yet has been waged on the floor. The Chicago delegates stated that the members of the executive council of the American Federation of Labor had refused to permit them to introduce new evidence in the case. dida" Company, which is to appear here next week, asking Mr. Lonergan if he will give a reading at the benefit performance. Donald Bowles, George Bloomquist and Scott Seaton, members of the Columbia Stock Company, have kindly agreed to sell candy among the audience. Top-liner acts have been promised from the Star, Arcade, Lyric, Blou, Grand and Baker vaudeville theaters. Songs will be sung by Mrs. Bijou, Grand and Baker vandeville theaters. Songs will be sung by Mrs. Rose Bloch Bauer, Mrs. Walter Reed and Louise Brandt. Arthur L. Alexander will play the accompaniments. The Webber mandolin orchestra, consisting of H. C. Webber, A. P. Karns, Charles W. Yorke and W. F. Adamson, will play selections. The demand for tickets is steadily increasing, and the price, 50 cents, is found to be within the reach of mostly everyone. Tickets are on sale all day at Rowe & Martin's drug store, Sixth and Washington streets; B. B. Rich's store, at the opposite corner, and at the Arcade and Star Theater box offices. The performance begins promptthe effect that the convention appoint a special committee to journey to Chi-cago as soon as possible after the final adjournment of the convention and there study the situation at first hand In the interim they desired that Will-lam Schardt, president of the Chicago Federation and delegate of that body to the present convention, be seated. This was designated by the opposition This was designated by the opposition as a mere subterfuge and cheap political trick and was overruled. The debate was finally stopped by a motion which carried by a bare majority, setting 4:30 o'clock as a limit after which no speeches on the question could be delivered.

Among the resolutions presented was offices. The performance begins promptly Tuesday afternoon at 2:15 o'clock, and there will be no reserved seats, although the boxes have already been disposed of at good prices. It should be Among the resolutions presented was one which put the Federation on rec-ord as against all anti-ticket-scalping remembered that as far as seats are concerned, those people who are early at the theater will secure the best seats. One business man has bought 250 seats. One pusiness man has bought 250 tlokets, and one society woman has bought 106 tlokets. Dr. George F. Wilson, who is Miss Angus' attending physician, states that Miss Angus, who is a patient at Good Samaritan Hospital, is improving slightly and as rapidly as can be expected.

ord as against all anti-decet-scarping bills, and urged all labor organizations to work to that end.

A resolution introduced by a Chicago delegate to compel full insurance on vessels of over five tons displacement was characterized by Delegate Andrew Furuseth, of the Seamen's Union, as one placing a premium on murder. His vig-orous opposition to the measure caused the convention to vote that the resolu-tion be sent back to the committee and

Resolutions regarding Japanese ex-clusion and the eradication of tubercu-losis were also tabled that they might

One of the Employes of the Place is be reconsidered. Fort Worth, Tex., sent a message in-viting the Federation to hold its next meeting there. This question will come

It was reported to the police early this morning that a robbery had been up later, committed at the Oyster Parlors, located at 140 Sixth street. Detective special time for listening to fraternal special time for listening to fraternal delegates from Great Britain and delegates from Wignall, of the former Weiner was detailed on the case, but aside from admitting that they had been robbed the proprietors of the place would say nothing.

In connection with this robbery, however, it is alleged that one of the employes of the place is missing.

In connection with this robbery, however, it is alleged that one of the employes of the place is missing. country on a diplomatic mission. Speak-ing of the bonds between the two coun-tries, he said: Charles Bartell, a well-known pioneer of the East Side, who has been confined to his home at 10 East Sixth street for

"The clasp of hands across the sea and the bonds of brotherhood which must come to the Auglo-Saxon family will come through the fraternalize-ment of the toiling masses of the two countries.

William Abrahan ("Mabon"), a mer or of Parliament, was then intr extensive tour in the East, including a visit to the St. Louis Exposition. Colonel Emmet Callahan, of Baker City, John A. Flett, representative of the John A. Flett, representative of the Dominion of Canada, addressed the convention and invited the delegates to hold their next annual meeting, commemorating the quartar century of their existence, in the Dominion of Canada. He compared trade conditions in the two countries. His address was well received. arrived yesterday and is registered at the Portland Hotel. Colonel Callahan is here for the purpose of representing H. H. Rogers, of Standard Oil fame, in his injunction proceedings to prevent the sale of the Cornucopia mine under execution. The case will be argued in the Federal well received.

At this stage of the proceedings a polceman entered the hall and placed all three of the foreign delegates under arrest. This was used as a ruse to present each of them with a gold watch and a gold badge in the name of the Federation. For a time the Englishmen were completely nonplussed, but the joke took tremendously with the throng present. Northwestern people registered at New York hotels today as follows: From Portland—J. O. Ainsworth and wife, at the Bresslin; F. G. Wheeler, at the Murray Hill; D. J. Malarkey and the Broadway Central.

From Spokane—C. M. Graves, at the the joke took tremendously with the throng present.
Victor L. Berger, of Milwaukee, Wis., representing the International Typographical Union, stated tonight that the socialist element would not attempt to convert the federation to socialism, but would be content with the passage of socialistic measures concerning the wageworkers of America. From Tacoma-C. Jackson and wife, From Seattle-D. E. Frederick, at the

STRIKE OPENS WITH RIOTING Chicago Furniture Teamsters Make a Bitter Fight.

and Sing Hong, a Chinaman, were taken from the Laurel building, Third and Pine streets, last night on the ground of unbecoming conduct.

They are both held in the City Jail Make a Bitter Fight.

CHICAGO. Nov. II.—If the determination of the leader in the strike of the furniture teamsters is carried out, one of the bitterest fights that has taken place in recent years in the local labor world is predicted. Today 22 teamsters went out, 120 more having been called out for tomorrow, and other teamsters may be called out for a sympathetic strike. The strike opened today with rioting and fighting in the streets and more trouble is predicted for tomorrow, as the furniture dealers say they will continue to make deliveries with nonunion drivers and it F. B. Hamilton found the air of the North End district too exhibarating last night, and today will face a charge of defacing property. The trouble came through Hamilton's desire to break the windows of the Burnside-Street Exdealers say they will continue to make deliveries with nonunion drivers and it is expected that wagons will be attacked as soon as they appear in the streets, even though guarded by the police. Secretary A. J. Reed, of the Teamsters' Joint Union, said tonight:

"All the teamsters who are now out and who will be called out tomorrow are team-A defective flue gave the Pire De-pariment a run has night to the resi-dence of Mr. Ryan, 186 Sixteenth street. The damage will probably amount to who will be called out tomorrow are team-atters working for members of the Chicago Employers' Association, but unless we obtain our demands, which we believe are just, the strike will be carried beyond members of the Chicago Employers' As-sociation, and is likely to take in many labor organizations."

Prederick Job, who is manager of the drivers is the refusal on the employers part to sign contracts with them. There is no question of wages involved.

"It looks as if this strike will spread, and we will fight to a finish."

Opposes Strikes and Lockouts. Opposes Strikes and Lockouts.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 17.—The National Founders' Association today adopted a resolution disapproving of strikes and lockouts and favoring arbitration. "whenever and wherever it will enable them to establish and maintain just and equitable relations between our members and employes."

What is termed an "outline of policy" was adopted and will be issued in pamphlet form soon from the headquarters in Detroit.

Trust Company Will Pay Up. PUEBLO, Colo., Nov. 17.—The Pueblo Title & Trust Company today announced that it was ready to make its last payment in full of all liabilities, 75 per cent of which have already been paid. The failure occurred 18 months ago, the total liabilities amounting to $250,000.

TAFT OFF FOR PANAMA.

Will Sail From Pensacola With Message to Amador Monday. WASHINGTON, Nov. 17 .- Secretary Taft.

left this evening for New Orleans on his way to Panama, where he goes as the spe-cial representative of President Roosevelt cial representative of President Rocseveit to present a message of amity and good will to President Amador. The Secretary will sail Monday from Pensacoin, Fla., on the cruiser Columbia. He is accompanied by Mrs. Taft, Senor Obaidia, the Panama Minister; Bear-Admiral Judge Walker, president of the Panama Cansi Commission; Judge Charles G. Magoon, law officer of the Canal Commission; N. W. Cromwell, attempty for the canal commission. Cromwell, attorney for the canal pany, and others.

CIVIL SERVICE IS EXTENDED. osevelt Orders It Apply to Unskilled Labor in Canal Zone. WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.-The President has promulgated regulations which will apply in the Panama Canal zone for the appointment of unakilled laborers in the civil service, and for the selection of eligicivil service, and for the selection of eligibles for such appointment, and has authorized the creation of a board to be composed of a representative from each executive department. This board is to be under the general supervision of the Civil Service Commission, but will operate largely on independent lines. It will be required to make examinations of applicants for labor positions in the service and to prepare a list of eligibles, from which all appointments are to be made. Applicants for appointment are required to be citizens of the United States, "physically and mentally qualified, of good character and hubits, and of requisite experience, as attested by vouchers."

LOOK FOR MAN WITH WOUND Corvallie Night Officer Hit Burglar Through Saloon Window.

CORVALLIS, Or., Nov. 17.—(Special.)— Everybody in this town is interested in discovering the identity of an unknown man with a new-made bullet hole in his person. The man entered Julius Wuestfelt's saloon through a rear window at an early hour this morning, and, while he was robbing the place. Officer Osburn discovered him. The officer was in front of the building, and not hoping to be able to gain the rear via a circuitous route around the block before the man should escape, fired at him through the should escape, fired at him through the window.

The burglar was on his knees at the time, and the range from the bullet hole in the window, together with the failure to find a bullet mark in the floor or elsewhere, leaves a well-settled belief that the bullet found lodgment somewhere in the thief's body. Bloody marks on the floor and about the window through which the furtiley made his evit comwhich the fugitive made his exit co firm the theory

PRAISES WORK OF Y. M. C. A.

annual dinner of the international com-Waldorf-Astoria. Secretary of the Navy Morton, one of the speakers, sald in part "I came here for the purpose of in-ing the naval homes of the Y. M. C and the splendid work done by this : clation for the betterment and happ of the enlisted men of the Navy. I know that everybody in the Navy, from department heads down to the men themselves, is grateful for the results that have been

ACTION AGAINST FISH TRAPS Fisheries Company Alleged to Have Violated the Law.

BELLINGHAM, Wash., Nov. 17 .- Action was brought by Prosecuting Attor-ney Healy, of Whatcom County, this ney Healy, of Whatcom County, this afternoon asking that all the fish-trap locations controlled by the Pacific American Fisheries in Puget Sound be declared forfeited because of alleged violations of law in organization of subsidiary companies holding them.

The locations originally cost about $50,000. Application is made for the immediate restraining order.

The suit is said to be the beginning of

The suit is said to be the beginning of a series of actions against all the large fish companies of Puget Sound. The Pacific American Fisheries was bid in at receiver's sale for $16,000 last Saturday.

BOMB OUTRAGE IN SPAIN. Mayor's Life is Sought, but He Escapes, While Nine Others Are Hurt.

BARCELONA. Nov. 17.—A bomb was exploded in the Mayor's office in the Calle Fernando here this evening. The building was not much damaged, but nine persons were seriously injured and several others were slightly burt. There is an unconfirmed rumor that two of the wounded have died. The Calle Fernando is much frequented as a promenade by the upper classes. MILLIONS FOR DEFENSE. Turkey Will Spend $10,000,000 for Batteries of Artillery.

BERLIN, Nov. 17 .- A dispatch to the Frankfurer Zeitung from Constantino-ple says Turkey is ordering 100 new batteries of artillery from Germany, French and English factories at the cost of $10,000,006. The Krupp Company gets the largest contracts.

Red Boy Will Resume.

BAKER CITY, Or., Nov. 17.—(Special.) Everything is in readiness for resump-on of work at the Red Boy mine De-ember 1. This mine has been in trouble

cember I. This mine has been in trouble for about a year, owing to minunder-standing among the stockholders.

Last Spring it was sold by order of court at receiver's sale. A syndicate of stockholders purchased the property for $50.004 which is considerably less than the holsting works at the mine cost. Since then the company has been entirely reorganized; all the old stockholders who desired to come in on the new deal were allowed to do so on the same terms as the syndicate enjoyed.

PRIEST IN TROUBLE

Father Schell Is Arrested for Forgery.

INDIAN WOMAN COMPLAINANT

Resident of Winnebago Reservation Declares Her Name Was Affixed to Certificate of Deposit_Accused Claims Different.

OMAHA, Neb., Nov. 17 .- (Special.) -- After day spent before the grand jury regarding the systematic spollation of Winnebago Indians by the bankers and merch ants adjoining the reservation, Father Joseph Schell was arrested tonight by a Deputy Sheriff from Thurston County on a warrant charging him with forging the name of an Indian woman to a certification of deposit.

Father Scholl declared after his arrest bat the action was one more effort of people whose methods he had been trying to expose to defeat his purpose. He explains the circumstances by saying that Mrs. Littlewater, an Indian woman wished to withdraw her money from the Bank of Homer and that the bank refused to surrender it. She came to him for advice and he advised her to indorse her ame to the certificate, which she did by making her mark. The certificate was ent by his advice to a Sloux City lawyer with instructions to notify the bank to transfer the money to the bank at Sloan.

The priest charges that Bankers O'Connor and Ashford, Indian Agent Wilson and Government Inspector Wright afterward persuaded the woman to transfer the money to a Sloux City bank, and then to go to the lawyer and request the return of the certificate and subsequently to swear out the warrant charging him with forgery.

In an interview this afternoon Father

In an interview the investigation at Win-Schell declared the investigation at Win-nebago was simply child's play compared with the investigation into the timber frauds in Oregon.

MOB ONLY LACKS LEADER.

Wyoming Bandit Has a Narrow Escape From Lynching.

THERMOPOLIS, Wyo., Nov. 17.—For a time last night the bandit captured by Deputy Sheriffs Hanna and Edwards for robbing the Edwards saloon here was in danger of being summarily executed by the indignant citizens of this place. A large crowd gathered and the lynching of the robber was freely discussed, but finally the crowd gave up its plan for many the crowd gave up its plan for want of a leader.

The handit will be taken to Basin for trial. He will be accompanied by a strong posse, as it is feared an attempt may be made by his friends to rescue him during the trip across the Owl Creek Mountains. There is no further danger of mob violence.

The robber is unknown here, and is be-The ropper is unknown here, and is be-lieved to have been induced to attempt the Thermopolis crime by the success of the Cody robbers in escaping. It is not be-lieved possible he is one of the pair who shot Cashier Middaugh in the Cody bank, A pesse is still on the trail of the other bandit.

Sure He is the Right Man.

OMAHA, Neb., Nov. 17.—G. W. Burch, a rominent merchant of Cody, Wyo., who in the city, says the man captured yes-Secretary Morton Speaks at Annual Dinner in New York.

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—Many prominent guests and members identified with the work of the Young Men's Christian Association in all its branches attended the annual dinner of the international company of the international compa

Colorado Official Is Unable to Back Up Criminal Charges. COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., Nov. 17 Criminal proceedings in the District Court against E. P. Arthur, A. G. Jones, James Hadley and Bruno Hobbs, officers of the defunct Bimetallic Bank of Crippie Creek. were dismissed today at the requ were dismissed today at the request of District Attorney Trowbridge. The bank-ers were charged with having accepted de-posits while knowing that their bank was insolvent.

Judge Seeds stated that the request for Judge Seeds stated that the request for dismissal by the District Attorney on the ground that he could not secure sufficient evidence to convict was wholly within the province of that office, but declared if there was not sufficient evidence in the present case to warrant the prosecution, then depositors in Colorado banks were wholly without protection against the acts of bank officers.

Alleged Trainrobbers Captured. LAS VEGAS, N. M., Nov. II.—Rock Island Officer W. O. McIntosh and two deputy United States marshals from the Indian Territory have arrived in the city with John and Jim Black, twin brothers, and John Murphy, who are charged with having committed the train robbery at Fort Logan, N. M., last July. McIntosh trailed the men to the Indian Territory, and with the aid of the United States officials arrested them there Baron Stephen Ankeminy. WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.-Baron Stephen Ankeminy, attached to the Austro-Hun-garian Embassy, died today. He had served as an officer in a regiment of Hussars in the Austrian army.

