

Portland's Largest, Foremost Store THE "DIFFERENT STORE."

Fifth, Sixth and Washington Sts.

Depot of Dependable Merchandise Portland's Quality Shop THE "DAYLIGHT STORE."

SIX O'CLOCK CLOSING

FROM A MORAL STANDPOINT

A prominent and popular local clergyman in a recent sermon referred to this store incidentally in regard to Sabbath attendupon divine worship. The writer was not privileged to hear the sermon, a fact he much regrets. Practical Christianity—such as this pastor dispenses—is what the world needs to make it better—every-day Christianity into which the Golden Rule mortises to perfection. Such sermons fill churches with interested listeners, who go out to practice what the dominie has preached. Let's ALL get down to the gingham, calico and clothespins of life—the every-day things—and see how we can better them—and the world is interested. Now, then: Hundreds, aye, thousands, of young women and girls—boys, too—are employed Saturday nights in the stores until nearly 10 o'clock, then turned loose upon the streets, with all their tempt at'on, and tempters, at an hour when vice is rampant. Is it right? Are you interested? What are YOU doing to remedy

Saturday At Portland's "Daylight Store"

TO SUIT THE MOST CRITICAL AND SATISFY THE MOST PRACTICAL IS UNENDINGLY OUR AMBITION

Our remarkable prices, so far less than the ordinary, attract the shrewdest buyers at all times. We stimulate trade daily by offering values as provokingly tempting in price as they are excellent in quality and style. The true worth of a store lies wholly in its real service to its public, and from this we ask you to judge us at all times-by the faith we keep with you, by the safe economies we offer, which have good illustration in the Saturday store news below. Every price is fixed upon true value basis. Mail orders always promptly filled. Bear everlastingly in mind the fact this is the "Daylight Store" of modern ethics-we close every day, Saturday included, at
