Protest Made Against Innsbruck Affair.

GREAT MASS MEETING HELD

Killing of Italians in Austria Is Deeply Resented.

Mob is Forced to Halt When It Makes a Rush for the Austrian Embassy With the Idea of Creating a Demonstration.

ROME, Nov. 18 .- An impressive meeting to protest against the Innsbruck, Austria, affair was held tonight at the Quirino Theater. The stage was decorated with the banners of Italian cities that are still subjects of Austria. Among the notable people on the stage were Bjornstoine Bjornson and his wife, whose appearance was greeted with tremendous applause. The theater would accommodate only a small part of the crowd that sought admittance, and the police were unable to keep in order the thousands that blocked the entrance. The troops were called into service and after much difficulty started to clear the streets in the vicinity of the theater after which cordons were established at the streets leading to the thea-

The meeting was opened by Professor Sighele, president of a club of former residents of Trent and Trieste now living in He was followed by Deputy Bargalla, a native of Trieste, and who represents one of the Rome constituencies; Deputy Vecchini, Conservative, and Depfought under Garibaldi against Austria. All the speakers called on the people of Rome to make a solemn and dignified pro-test, worthy of a civilized people, of their rights, against the killing and majtreatment of fellow-Italians whose only ofwas that they stood for their race in history, nationality and culture. The speeches were frequently interrupted with storms of applause, mingled with invectives against Italy. An order of the day embordering the opinions expressed by the speakers was voted by acciamation, amid cries of "Long live Italy" and "Garfbald! forever!"

Rush Made for Embassy.

After the meeting, the crowd, as if in obedience to a command, made a rush for the Austrian Embassy and Consulate, eltuated in the Piazza Colonna, in the center of Rome, to make a demonstration there. The incident had been anticipated by the authorities and precautions had been taken accordingly. At all the streets opening into the plaza, police, carbineers, bersaglieri and cavalry had been stationed, and these halted and turned back the mob from the vicinity of the embassy. In anticipation of this evening's meetings, the flags throughout the city today were holsted at half-mast. Practically the whole population of Rome, except the Socialists and anarchists, participated in nstration. The anarchists published an order of the day saying that according to their principles, which do not admit of differences between countries or sindividuals, they disapprove of today's meeting, especially to the fact that against the sacrifice of human life at against the sacrifice of human life at other Dutch farmers were brutally mur-lnnsbruck are some who approved of the dered, but 23 women and children escaped. murders accomplished not by foreigners bur by Italians against Italians," referring to the conflict between the police and peasants which was the pretext for the general strike of September.

ATTACKS IMPERIAL DYNASTY Austrian Socialist Leader Blames It for Innsbruck Affair.

VIENNA. Nov. 18.—During the session of the Reichstag this afternoon Herr Pernestorier, one of the Socialist leaders, made a violent attack on the Imperial dynasty. Referring to the Jansbruck affair, he alleged that the highest influence had been used to prevent's harmonious understanding being reached between Ger-mans and Italians within the monarchy.

mans and talians within the monarchy, adding that settlement of national differences in the Tyrol were now rendered impossible for many years.

The speaker proceeded to refer to the dynasty which he charged with being responsible for all the unhappy conditions prevailing in Austria. The Hapsburgs, he said, had always regarded the country as an object of exploitation and had been a burden upon the people for 669 years. The members of the Imperial family were not even prominent for personal qualifies. The women, he asserted, were bigots and the men clerical partisans, mostly ig-norant and uneducated. He concluded characterizing the Hapsburgs as the

EARL MINTO LEAVES CANADA

Governor-General Will Be Succeeded

by Earl Grey Next Month. VANCOUVER, B. C. Nov. 18.—The Earl of Minto Canada's retiring Governor-General left Montreal for England today, and on December 1 his successor, Earl Grey, will sail from Liverpool to take up his residence at Rideau Hall, Ottawa, for the next five years. Lord Minto was appointed Governor-General of Canada on the next five years. Lord Minto was appointed Governor-General of Canada on July 5, 1856. Both he and Lady Minto have endeared themselves to Canadians during their five years' stay. Lord Minto made a record for himself as being the most-traveled of the Governor-Generals. It was during his time that the Klondike was discovered, and he went to Dawson before many a man who today delights to call himself "an old sour dough," which means that he is not a "chechaco." He also made a couple of tripe to British Co-lumbia and traversed the prairie country as far north as Edmonton. Canada has never had a more popular representative of the King, and Canada was never more prosperous than during the time Lord Minto acted for his majesty.

Minto acted for his majesty.

Of the new Governor-General it has been said in England that "if Mr. Baifour had searched the country through he could not have found a man better fitted in every way to fill the important position to which he has been called." Lord Grey won recognition when he administered Rhodesia. True, his tenure was brief, but, says one who knew him: "He did enough to establish his reputation as a stateto establish his reputation as a states-man of the first water and to win golden opinions from the inhabitants of the colony."

A Governor-General depends a great deal on his wife if he is to be accounted a success. Hungarian Threatens President With Pair of Scissors.

MOTION IS NOT ENTERTAINED

Seats, Books and Inkwells Are Hurled at the Enraged Deputy, and Insulting Epithets Are Employed Very Freely.

BUDA-PEST, Hungary, Nov. 18.-The lower house of the Hungarian Parliament today passed Premier Tizza's motion al-tering for a year the standing orders of the House so as to allow afternoon sit-tings from 4 to 9, in addition to the ordinary morning sessions, with the object of overcoming obstruction and expediting public business. The entire opposition had previously left the House, singing the Kossuth hymn, Francis Kossuth having declared the Hungarian opposition would never agree to such an illegal procedure.

The lower house resumed its sitting at 4 o'clock this afternoon. Count Apponyl, leader of the opposition, declared the sitting was illegal, and that his party was there under protest merely to exercise commol.

The session lasted until 10 o'clock at right, with evidences of rising tempera-ture. Then Premier Tizsa, in a speech dealing with obstruction, declared thers was no choice between abandoning the nation to its fate or putting an end to Deputy Rakoski handed the President a paper demanding that the sittings be closed, and on the refusal of the President to accept the paper Rakoski threatened him with a pair of scissors.

Many members hurried to President De Perczel's assistance. Seats, books and ink pots were hurled at Perczel, and insulting epithets were freely employed.

The opposing parties were hardly prevented from indulging in fisticulfs.

Finally the Prezident read the royal rescript proroguing the House, and the sitting closed with scenes of the wildest excitement.

THE SIMPLE LIFE BY CHARLES WAGNER

BEGINS PUBLICATION IN THE SUNDAY OREGONIAN TOMORROW

Y SPECIAL arrangement with the J. S. Ogilvie Publishing Company, The Sunday Oregonian tomorrow will begin publication, serially, of "The Simple Life," by Charles Wagner. President Roosevelt says to the author of it: "I am preaching your book to my countrymen." dorsement of this character from the President of the United States is some indication of the high estimation in which the book is held by him and many others. It is a book that everyone will want to read, then have his family read, and then his friends.

The author is the most popular preacher in his own land and one of the most popular writers in his own and in other lands, and the very great audiences he obtains for his spoken and printed words are in nowise attracted by the slightest touch of what is recognized as sensationalism. He has won the hearts of the young men of France in the teaching of these simple ideas as no other preacher has ever succeeded

Each chapter as published by The Sunday Oregonian will contain a complete sermon, whether read by itself or in connection with those that precede or follow. Publication will be completed in 10 or 11
