OLD FLOUR MILL IS BURNED

This Building Was Saved With Difficulty When Incendiary Effected Destruction of Brick Mill. Warehouse and Flax.

SALEM, Or., Nov. 18 - (Special.) -- Eugene Bosse, the flax manufacturer, was made the victim of a second attack by an incendiary tonight when the old wooden mill of the Salem Flouring Mill Company was set on fire and totally destroyed. In the mill was the machinery which Mr. Bosse uses to Work his flax straw and thresh out the seed. The building was worth about $10,000, fully covered by in-surance. The machinery and flax fiber in the mill were worth $1500, with no

How the fire started no one knows The building stands about 100 feet north of the location of the brick mill and warehouse which were burned four weeks ago, entailing a loss of $100,000. That fire was known to have been started by an incendiary, but no clew was ever obtained indicating the identity of the criminal. At that time the wooden mill was saved with great difficulty, but only

WARDEN ON THE WARPATH.

Discharges Deputy and Guard at Idaho Penitentiary.

BOISE, Idaho, Nov. 18 - (Special.)-The trouble in the management of the peni-tentiary developed a new feature this evening. Warden Perrin, summarily dis-missed Deputy Warden P. C. Bingham and Guard P. McClellan Smith. The former was appointed from Oneida County and Smith from Ada. Bingham has been a partisan of Q. B. Kelley, the discharged clerk, and has made himself obnexious cierk, and has made himself obnoxious to the warden, and, it is claimed, has indulged in conduct detrimental to discipile. Guard Smith has neglected his duties, the warden says, having been found asleep in the cellhouse.

In the meantime it is announced that Attorney-General Bagley is hurrying back here from his home in Bear Lake County, having postponed his trip to the St. Louis Exposition. He is coming to turn the warden out. In this he is likely to meet with some difficulty, however. Lane's Display of Products.

EUGENE, Or., Nov. 18.—(Special.)-The committee from the Eugene Commer cial Club, which has been working for an exhibit of Lane County products at the Lewis and Clark Exposition, today appointed E. M. Warren, an enthusiastic farmer of Coburg, to superintend the col-lection of agricultural and horticultural exhibits. Mr. Warren will take up the work at once and will devote his time and energies towards making an exhibit that will surpass anything of the kind ever before shown from this county. He has had valuable experience in making exhibits at state and county fairs, and already has a large assortment of grains grasses, canned fruits, nuts, etc., and will add to this by securing the best that can be produced of all kinds of products before the opening of the Exposition. The county has already made an appro-priation to defray the expenses of col-lection.
