QUEER LETTERS RECEIVED

One Man in St. Louis States That His Father Knew President Goode When He Started West With Lewis and Clark.

Some strange notions exist of the Lewis and Clark Exposition in different sections of the country...

There are letters from every conceivable portion of the United States, most of them, to be sure, intelligent and business-like...

He Knew President Goode. In the same connection a laughable instance occurred a short time ago at St. Louis during the visit of President Jefferson Myers...

While Mr. Myers was sitting in the Oregon State building, a darkey from Kentucky called on him and asked for the address of President Goode...

Concerning Huge Logs. Facts concerning the magnificent Forestry building have caused much attention throughout the country...

AGAINST THE CIGARETTE. Five Hundred Boys and Girls Attend Mass Meeting at Centenary. "The American boy makes a noise. He makes things move, and so in this cigarette movement he has caused a great noise in this city that will make for good."
