EXPOSITIONS OF QUALITY IN MERCHANDISE. Quality:—"A grace which no amount of artifice can ever hope to produce."—Stedman.

It was with a feeling akin to pity that the writer read the plaintive wail of a competing store in yesterday's Oregonian, bemoaning the fact that so few people read their ads. This store has no such fault to find, for RESULTS prove our ads. are read from the Atlantic to the Pacific. Last week we had an inquiry emanating from one of some two weeks ago, sent by a firm in BATH, ME., inquiring for goods advertised—which, by the way, are made here in PORTLAND, OR. The letter is on file at this office. In last week's call for a name for the new public thoroughfare running through this store, connecting Fifth with Sixth streets (between Washington and Alder), over 2000 responses were received, some from points distant to Montana and Wyoming, Washington, Idaho and Southern California. More gratifying, however, were the hundreds upon hundreds from home-folk that not only read our store news daily, but are numbered among the hundreds of thousands who do not stand aloof and "LOOK" at US, but come in daily and greet us as old-time friends and TRUSTED neighbors. TRUTHS presented in attractive form, backed by RELIABILITY, always attract, and GOOD STOREKEEPING holds, the mighty shopping hosts of Portland to her BEST AND LARGEST STORE. Today's mentions, added to yesterday's, form the GRANDEST ARRAY OF AGGRESSIVE BARGAINS EVER OFFERED BY A WESTERN HOUSE!

The Matchless Values in SUITS, WRAPS, FURS and Other Garments for Dressy Women's Wear Continues This Week

Real Bargains That Add to Thanksgiving Joys

Comparisons are urged.—J. F. Clarke, the eminent writer, says in "Self Culture": "The power of comparison gives definiteness and clearness to thought; we never can understand well but by comparing it with something else." We want the women of Portland to compare the exquisite creations in the women's-wear sections, garments selected by an expert woman designer and buyer, who spends five months of the year with New York's leading modistes, and the other seven here at home keeping in touch with the wants of our clientele, with the products of New York's squalid tenement-house rooms—mere imitations, and bad at that, of the high-class garments shown here—as exploited by other houses who are now frantically trying to unload their debris upon a wise public. Stores that send men East with memorandums to fill, running from a barrel of lard to a fine evening gown can hardly expect to compete with a chain of specialty stores of the Olds, Wortman & King character. A woman can best buy for women's needs and women know it. The high-grade garments sold here at lower prices than inferior stuff of questionable style is offered elsewhere prove it.

A Tremendous Clearance of Two Great Stocks From Wholesale Millinery

Starts Here Today. New "Daylight Salons"—Sixth-Street Annex, Second Floor. The millinery business isn't all sunshine, manufacturers have their off seasons as well as retailers. Two of them wrote us some three weeks ago asking if we would make their clearance for 'em. We answered, "Yes—if prices are right." They shut their eyes resolutely to cost and shipped us their stocks at prices that in some cases means a loss to them of half—in every case a loss of part of their first actual cost. Knowing our outlet and needing both cash and room for starting a new season's business we got the goods at prices to allow our patrons to buy millinery as never before.

A veritable slaughter starts here this morning. Be in line for your share of the good luck. 100 Ready-to-wear Hats, the same qualities that have heretofore sold for $1.50 and $2.00; your choice during the slaughter sale. 49c. 100 Spick-and-span new tailored hats, draped felt turbans, trimmed with ornaments, others with silk velvet; $3.00 values at. $1.49. 100 Black Turbans, made over buckram frames, shirred silk facing and braid crowns; $4.00 values at. $2.49. 100 regular $6.00, $8.00 and $10.00 tailored and trimmed hats, every style among them, no two alike, black, brown, blue, green, gray, etc.; your choice. $3.00. 100 more untrimmed hat shapes, all 75c, 98c and $1.25 styles, black, brown, blue and gray; your choice. 49c.
