The Thorough Thanksgiving Store

At last the man of business is coming into his own—and Europe comes first in the recognition of the toiler by granting him a degree. The man of business has lifted his work to a "profession" and the University at Brussels will give the degree of "B. E."—Business Engineers—to those eminent in the business courses.

CROWDS THROGGED THE NEW DAYLIGHT MILLINERY SALONS all day yesterday and fairly reveled in the tremendous-clearance of two monster stocks from

Two Great Wholesale Millinery Houses

Hundreds will share today's bargains. Every Hat in the house at 1-3 off regular prices until Thanksgiving.

The Millinery business isn't all sunshine, manufacturers have their off seasons as well as retailers. Two of them wrote us some three weeks ago asking if we would make their clearance for 'em. We answered, "Yes—if prices are right. They shut their eyes resolutely to cost and shipped us their stocks at prices that in some cases means a loss to them of half—in every case a loss of part of their first actual cost. Knowing our outlet and needing both cash and room for starting a new season's business we got the goods at prices to allow our patrons to buy millinery as never before. A veritable slaughter. Be in line for your share of the good luck.

100 Ready-to-wear Hats, the same qualities that have heretofore sold for $1.50 and $1.90; your choice during the slaughter sale.....40c 100 split-and-span new tailored Hats, draped felt turbans, trimmed with ornaments, others with silk velvet; $1.00 values at.....$1.49 100 Black Turbans, made over buckram frames, shirred silk facing and braid crown; $4.00 values at.....$3.49 100 regular $4.00, $3.00 and $10.00 tailored and trimmed Hats, every style among them, no two alike, black, brown, blue, green, gray, etc. choice.....$3 100 more untrimmed Hat Shapes, all 75c, 95c and $1.25 styles, black, brown, blue and gray; your choice.....$1.09 to $2.00. Panama Canal Vote

The contest ends at 6 P. M. Wednesday. The result will be announced in Thanksgiving day papers. The compositions have been handed to a committee of ladies interested in educational work for a decision as to their relative merit; that decision will also be published and awards of the $25 in gold divided and made on Thanksgiving day.

THE RESULT OF VOTE AT 5 P. M. YESTERDAY.

Table with 2 columns: School Name and Total Votes. Includes High School, St. Mary's Academy, Harrison School, etc.

Greetings From Dollyland

Fourth Floor.

We send men thousands of miles for the dolls that populate the biggest doll village in all the Northwest, situate right here on fourth floor. It's a new town, this doll-land of ours, sprung up in a week, but here to stay. And dolls have come from Germany and France to live here, or rather to visit, for little mothers will soon take 'em away to new homes and new faces will take their places here.

Annual Thanksgiving Sale of Women's Kid and Mocha Gloves

Every woman should go well gloved on Thanksgiving Day. There'll be many functions besides the home-gatherings that attract the ladies to 3rd Street. Theaters, opera, theaters, etc., and none need wear heavy gloves if they'll bring their hands to rest on treatment and cross our palms with 5c. We've gone to the best glove-maker in Saxony for the glove kids that form the special offering, and to a Gloversville maker for the Mochas. For American produces the best mocha skins in the world, and even Europe holds out the choicest for a share. Two lots in the offering. "THE MAGNET" Gloves, a glove kid manufactured from best selected stocks in Saxony—a province in the German Confederation—a grade sold by most stores at $1.25, sold regularly here at the best dollar value on earth, but for two days only—today and Wednesday—at 86c the pair.
