AT THE THEATERS

Benefit at the Columbia. Good Samaritan Hospital. Dear Mr. Bernard: I have been thinking for hours of you all, and of the kind thoughtfulness of the people of Portland. That I might be with you this afternoon is, of course, a futile desire, but I do not wish the day to pass without being able in some way to express my deep gratitude and appreciation of what is being done for me in my helplessness.

Postmaster Has Private Secretary. Postmaster Minto now has a private secretary. Under the postal regulations, in office transacting a business of $50,000, or more, per annum, the postmaster is allowed a clerk to act in the capacity of private secretary. This allowance is made from the civil service list, and the appointment is at the pleasure of the postmaster. Postmaster Minto has just received authority to make this addition to his office force and has appointed Miss Daisy Blockston to fill the position.

CRITTELOW HOME AGENY FOR DONATIONS. -A request for Thanksgiving donations for the Florence Crittlow Refuge Home is made by the home management, the donations to be left at Sealy & Mason's grocery store, on Morrison street. The home has been doing very good work not only in the taking care of the large number of girls and in presenting very comfortable home to ten inmates, for whom a good and cheerful Thanksgiving dinner is desired.

ANTI-CIGARETTE CAMPAIGN SPEECHES. -Rev. Wallace E. Struble addressed meetings at Oakley, Green, D. P. Thompson schools and Patton M. E. Church yesterday in his anti-cigarette campaign, and was greeted with large and enthusiastic audiences. Today he will speak at 9 o'clock at the Highland school and at 2 P. M. at Woodlawn. Principal Miller has arranged a special meeting at the latter school, at which the parents of pupils are also invited to be present.

EDMUND VANCE COOKE COMING. -Will be at the Y. M. C. A. Auditorium November 30, appearing as the second number of the Y. M. C. A. star course. He reads his own poems, both serious and humorous, and is an impersonator of rare ability. If you want an evening's entertainment, do not miss the coming of the poet laureate. Admission, 50 cents, including reserved seat.

PUBLIC INVITED TO CAMERA EXHIBIT. -The tenth annual exhibition of the Oregon Camera Club is one of the attractions of the week, and the public is cordially invited to visit the clubrooms in the Macleay building, to inspect the pictures, any starting at 10 o'clock. The work is all high-class and shows great advance in photographic art.

SEAMEN'S CONCERT TONIGHT. -An excellent program will be given at the Seamen's Concert hall at 8 o'clock, under the direction of Miss St. Martin, and will include songs by Mrs. Price, Miss Ruth Eddings, Mrs. St. Martin, Miss Thomas, Miss Graves, T. E. Ryland, and T. Childers; piano duet, Mrs. Crook and Miss Blakeley, and readings by Mrs. G. F. Lively.

REHEARSAL THIS WEEK. -Thursday being Thanksgiving, there will be no rehearsal of the Chamblaine Club this week. Members can now get the cantata, "The Daughter of the Sun," at the music house. The Junior Auxiliary of St. Stephen's will hold a sale of articles made from handkerchiefs Friday afternoon and evening, November 25, at Thirteenth and Clay.

THANKSGIVING DINNER. -An elaborate menu will be served at the Calumet, 149 Seventh, near Morrison, 4:30 to 8 P. M. Regular price, 50 cents.

EDMUND VANCE COOKE, the poet and impersonator, will be at the Y. M. C. A. Auditorium, 4:30 to 8 P. M. Admission, 50 cents. Seat sale opens November 23.

THANKSGIVING TABLE D'HOZE. -Richard's public dining-room, 12 M. to 5:30 P. M., Elbert street, corner Park and Alder streets.

MEMBERS of the Barbers' Union may work until 8 P. M. today.
