KINDERGARTIN EXERCISES AT ST.
HELENS HALL—Fifty visitors, including mothers and friends, were present at St.
Helen's Hall Kindergarten yesterday morning to witness the closing exercises of the November work. As November is so important in American history, the children's historical study was the theme for the program, the little students telling the story of the emigration from England in a very intelligent manner. Each child had as a souvenir a booklet, prettily decorated by the kindergarten training class, and containing some of his own nestest work in cutting and pasting.
Some songs and games appropriate to the Some songs and games appropriate to the season came after the historical exercise. "The Chrysanthemum" deserved especial mention. Theima Richards, Lora Shay, Gretchen Smith and Inez Chambers were dressed in white gowns bedecked with beautiful watercolor chrysanthemums. The giris from the primary gave a "fag drill," also a graceful "fan drill." The following girls participated: Anna Bar-ker, Nancy Zan, Georgians Leadbetter, Agnès Allehoff, Virginia Burns, Frances Agnés Allehoff, Virginia Burns, Frances Bultes, Rebecca Van Waters, Martha Hoyt, Katheryn Hoyt, Elizabeth Dubson, Jessie Co'gate and Myla Chambers. The sudience was completely captivated when the children in kindergarten and primary danced the "minust." The girls were dressed in real colonial style, and the boys as little gentlemen, with swords. The boys were: Theodore Wilcox, Robert Morrison, Products Whiteside, Bobert Morrison, Products Whiteside, Bobert

MANY TURKEYS SOLD.—Yesterday was a busy day for all dealers in poultry and family supplies, and for their employes, who were kept literally on the jump from early morn till dewy eve. One thoroughly worn-out fellow, as he removed his apron-late last evening, said that he had not had it off a minute since 6 o'clock Tues-day morning. The number of turkeys de-livered about the city yesterday was much larger than ever before at Thanksgiving Cooks and housewives were re joiced by receiving their turkeys early, so that they had time to prepare them for cooking. It looked along Front street yesterday as if there would be lots of game and turkeys left over, but, as one of the dealers said: "What we can't sell we can cat, but there is a limit to the capacity of the human being." Turkey capacity of the many places last evening, this mild form of sambling being overlooked by the authorities, when no-ticed, "for this occasion only." All should endeavor to moderate their appetite for turkey and stuffing today, especially those who are invited out, as it is only about a month to Christmas, and then they will want to do full justice to more and larger want to do full justice to more and larger turkeys.

Was Seriously injured.—Walter Jobes, son of J. Jobes, of the St. Johns flour mills, is confined to his home with serious injuries, caused by some heavy pieces of machinery falling on him a few days ago. One portion of the machinery had been raised and placed in position, and the second piece was being lifted by means of a roge. The part attached to the rope swung around, knocking loose the part that had been placed, so that it fell on the young man, fracturing his right leg between the ankie and knee, and breaking three ribs and his collar bone. W. E. Ernest, the foreman, was also slightly injured. Walter Jobes was removed to his home, where his injuries were dressed. He is getting along as well as could be expected.

ELECTION JUDGES AFFORWERD.—C. H.

ELECTION JUDGES APPOINTED .- C. H. Reed and Captain Harlow have been ap-pointed judges of the election which will be held in St. Johns Monday, December There will be two tickets in the field.

St. JOHNS MAY HAVE FERRY.-The matter of establishing a ferry at St. Johns, to enable teams and footmen to cross the Williamette River at that point, is being considered. It is understood that the Council will give an exclusive franchise to any one who will run such a ferryboat. It would not be a free ferry, but it would probably pay with a small toll. It would also furnish the connecting link in the Portland driveway.

Big Minstrel Company, Thanksgiving Offering, Both Matinee and Night. This afternoon at 2:15 o'clock, and tonight at 8:15, the Marquam Grand Theater will present Haverly's Minstrels for its Thanksgiving attraction. A succession of surprises are promised in this season's program, while the presentation of the various special acts, first part and closing number, are produced on a scale of scenic grandeur immeasurably surpassing any previous effort in minstrel his-

Both football teams will attend the theater this evening. Watch for the big parade at high noon from the front of the theater.

Matinee at the Columbia.

The eccentric comedy of Boucicault's "Led Astray," which is being presented by the Columbia Theater Stock Company this week, is furnished by Mount Gosline, a typical English dude, who falls in love, imperatively, with every woman he meets. The part is capitally presented by Scott Seaton.

In one scene, for example, he falls upon his knees before the wife of Count Chandoce and declares his infatuation in these words.

"My life has undergone a change, I have lost the gayety of youth. I live spart from the world. Solltude is my only companion. The frivilous conver-sation of the club wearies me. I find no one with whom I can sympathise—no one who can indulge with me in melancholy.

Continuous Bill at the Star.

Continuous Bill at the Star.

Thanksgiving day will not be complete without a visit to the Star. The bill today is continuous from I to 11 P. M., so that the patrons of the Star will have ample opportunity to celebrate the holiday by seeing the best vandeville bill ever presented in Portland.

One of the greatest acts of the vaudeville stage is presented by the Four Flying Banvards. Their aerial feat is so breath-taking and sensational that they keep the audience in a suspense during all their act. The great Zang does a marvelous jumping stunt by jumping marvelous jumping stunt by jumping backward is feet, taking in three chairs and a barrel. Two pretty soubrettes are Hickman and Morton. Harry Brown does credit to his act by singing and cartoonmaking. The classical music by Schiller Bros. is good. The talking and singing act given by the Fletchers concludes the bill.

Thanksgiving at the Lyric.

In accordance with an almost immemo-rial custom and the proclamations of Pres-ident Roosevelt and Governor Chamberlain, the Lyric will celebrate this Thanks giving day by giving continuous performances from 2 o'clock today until il to-night. The same great staff of entertain-ers which has been delighting drowded houses all week will positively appear in their great acts, the whole comprising the best vaudeville show ever seen at the Loric, and when we say the best at the Lyric, the wise ones will understand that the statement is a strong one. The proof of the pudding and the turkey will be in the eating today and the proof of the the eating today, and the proof of the Lyric's great bill will be in seeing it. After that it will be easy.

At the Bijou.

Continuous performances will be given at the Bijou Theater today from 2 to 10:30 P. M. After your Thanksgiving dinner visit this popular vaudeville house and see some of the feature acts on the bill. More than making soul and the property of the property some of the reature acts on the bill. More than making good are the acts of Zerelda, the musical gymnast: Frye and Allen, an exceptionalty clever sketch team; Fedro, the juggler, amuses all. Ellmore and Elliott, Dan McGreeney and the moving pictures fill out a big bill suitable for all Thanksgiving lovers of vaudeville.

Baker is Thankful.

All of us have many things for which to be thankful today, and the Baker's cause for thankfulness is that it has the best people in Portland for its patrons, that it has all the business it can accommo-date and that it is able to offer the public the best entertainment in town on this auspictous occasion. Your Thanksgiving day will not be well spent unless it in-cludes a visit to the Baker, where the finest artists and the finest acts in the innest artists and the linest acts in the business are prepared to entertain you in a right royal fashion. Barnold's cats and dogs, the most remarkable of all edu-cated animals; the George family of comedians; the Voltens, famous European acrobats; Tim Calvin, the funny old clown juggier, and all the rest of the apot-light favorites will spend their Thanksgiving amusing and entertaining the elite of Portland with the best bill in the city. Performances continuous from 2 until 11 P. M.

Give Thanks at the Arcade.

If you go to the Arcade Theater today you will be more than thankful. The bill is continuous from 2 to 11 P. M. today, and is composed of numerous good acts with the Edwards team taking the lead. They do excellent Roman ring performing in such a manner as to receive encore after encore from the interested audience. The black-faced monologuist, George Wilson, keeps the audience in an uproarby his funny stories and laughing song. The Harvey children, girl and boy, give a musical act which is entirely new on the vandeville stage. Kate Coyle, the Arcade's popular favorite, gives a new song this week, while comical pictures are shown on the bioscope.

Bijou Continuous Today. Today the Bijou will celebrate Thanks-Today the Bijou will celebrate Thanks-giving by giving continuous performances during the afternoon and evening. After dinner try the big amusement feast. Frye and Allen have one of the funniest musi-cal sketches on record, and Zereida does great work on a trapeze, playing a man-dolin while balancing a chair on the treacherous bar. Friday night will be watch wight
