

CRIMSON TOO WARM

Colorado University Outplayed at All Points of Game.

DOLE KICKS GREAT FIELD GOAL

Trowbridge of Portland, With Weller, Makes Four Touchdowns for Stanford and Kicks Three Goals—Home Team Braced Up.

DENVER, Col., Nov. 24.—Sixty-five hundred people saw Stanford defeat the University of Colorado by a score of 18 to 6. The Stanford eleven outplayed the local team at every point in the first half. The Colorado men braced up in the second half and shortly after the ball was in play it looked as if Colorado would score. By quick, snappy rushes, the Colorado men got the ball within 15 yards of the Stanford goal. The local boys were penalized 15 yards for holding, and this took the snap out of them and Stanford's goal was never in serious danger again.

Stanford's tandem mass play was the feature of the first half. Trowbridge and Weller made four touchdowns, and Trowbridge kicked three goals, missing one. Score, Stanford 18, Colorado 6. In the second half Colorado adopted Stanford's tactics, battering the line constantly in wedge formation, and forced the ball to Stanford's 15-yard line. Calley tried for a Princeton, but missed goal. Dole, for Stanford, made a drop kick from the 40-yard line, kicking goal. The line-up is as follows:

Line-up table for Stanford vs Colorado game, listing players and positions.

GAME AT SEATTLE A TIE.

Washington and California Each Score a Touchdown.

'SEATTLE, Nov. 24.—(Special.)—In one of the best games of football ever witnessed in Seattle, Washington and California played a tie, the score being 6 to 6. California outclassed the locals in punting, but on all other points of the game Washington was California's equal and in many ways her superior. The Washingtonians carried the ball twice as many yards as the California.

Neither team during the first half. Washington kicked off, and immediately held California on downs. The ball went from one team to another, with neither goal in danger. In the second half Washington was California's equal and in many ways her superior. The Washingtonians carried the ball twice as many yards as the California.

California scored a touchdown early in the second half, getting the ball near Washington's goal line on a fumble by the latter team. The home eleven scored a short time afterward on a 30-yard run by Tibbals, followed by a 20-yard run by Shaw for a touchdown.

The rest of the game belonged to Washington. At one time she worked the ball within 20 yards of the visitors' goal, after carrying it 30 yards. McDonald, at right tackle, on the offensive, and quarter on the defensive, was probably the star of the game. After the California backs had come through for gains, he would dive in and put the man back for a loss. The line-up:

Line-up table for Washington vs California game.

WIN BY TEAM WORK.

Willamette Cripples Albany Team in Fierce Game on Home Grounds.

WILLAMETTE UNIVERSITY, Salem, Or., Nov. 24.—(Special.)—The plucky football team of Albany met defeat today by Willamette University in a fierce game played on Willamette field. The score was 18 to 0 when time was called, but the game was stopped five minutes early because the Albany team was too badly hurt up to complete it. Albany's demoralization began with the second half, when Coates, the Multnomah quarterback, who was carrying in the same position on the college team, sprained his ankle and was carried to the side lines. Although Babo, the regular college quarter, took his place, the change left them noticeably weaker. The game was begun with kicking to the visitors, who carried the ball to their 30-yard line and fumbled it. Willamette carried it to Albany's 30-yard line and lost on downs. Albany bucked the line to the center of the field and failed to make yardage. The varsity carried the ball to Albany's 15-yard line and was penalized 15 yards for off-side and forced to punt.

The college men returned the ball to their 30-yard line and then bucked for 15 yards and lost on downs. Nace made five yards, Rader 15 yards, Nace 15 yards and a touchdown. Rader missed the goal, time 30 minutes. During the remaining ten minutes of the first half Willamette carried the ball from their 30-yard line, where they kicked it on the kick-off, to Albany's 15-yard line, where time was called.

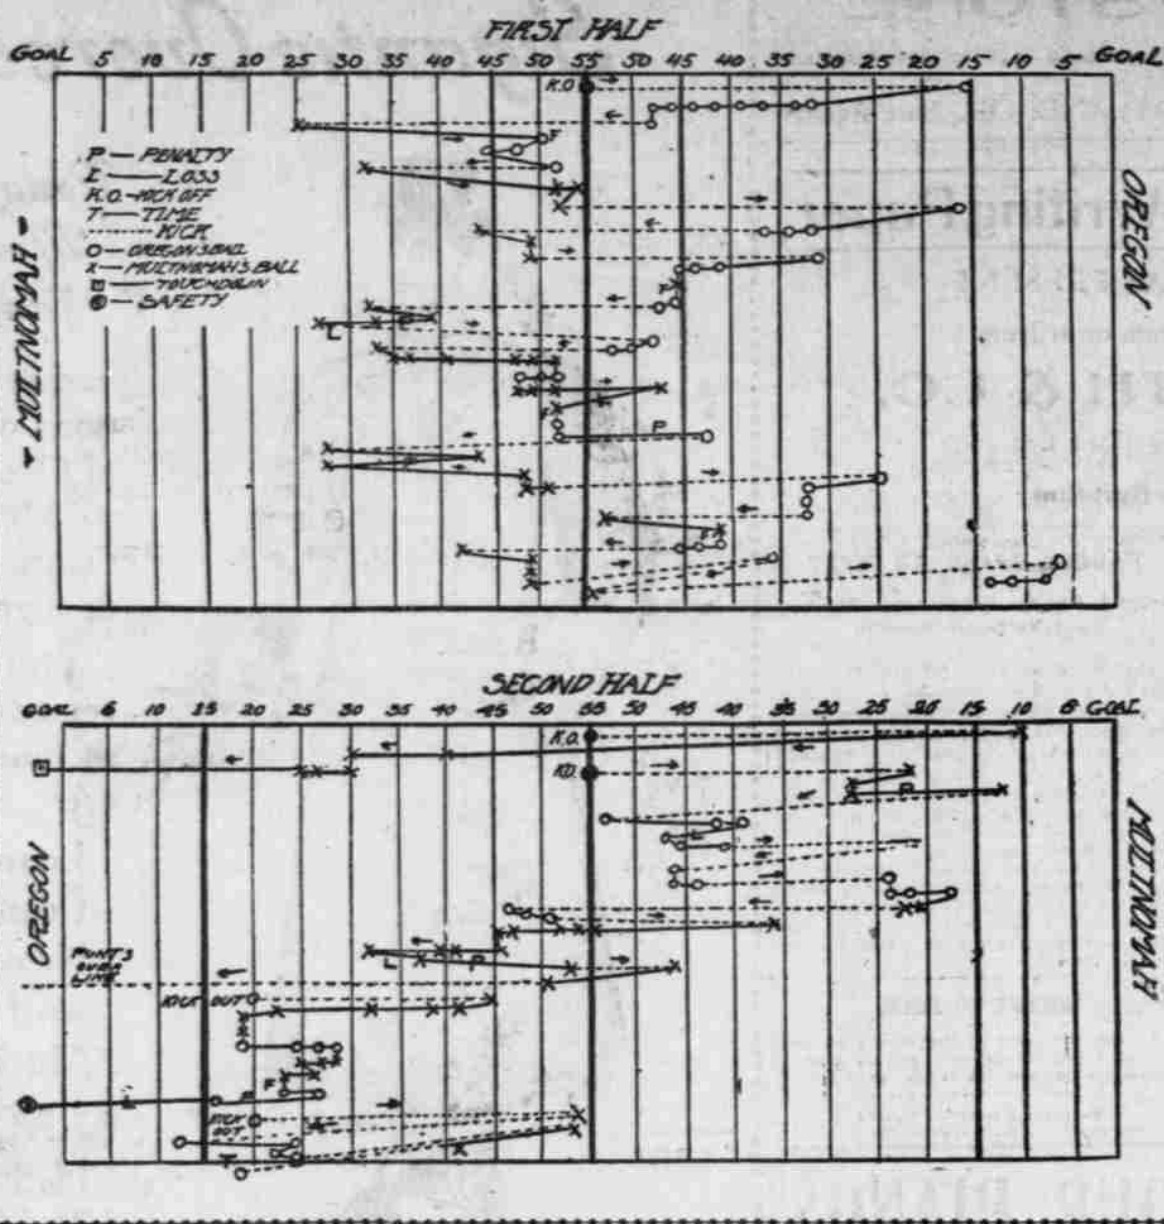

In the second half Coach McGee's men rarely made yardage when they had the ball, while Pollard opened great holes in the Phosphorians' line, even though Griffith and Morgan both massed against him. Rader was the best ground-gainer, repeatedly making it yardage covering 25 yards on one run. Nace rarely failed to make a big yardage. The second touchdown was made by Long after ten minutes of scrimmaging, and he followed with a third a few minutes later. Rader kicked one goal. Time was called with the ball on Albany's 15-yard line. Willamette won the game by her splendid team work.

M'MINNVILLE FUMBLES BALL.

Nothing-to-Nothing Game With Columbia University.

M'MINNVILLE, Or., Nov. 24.—(Special.)—This afternoon on the college field, before a large and enthusiastic crowd, M'Minville College and Columbia University played a hard-fought and scoreless game. The field was slippery and the teams were evenly matched, but from the time the referee's whistle blew the locals played by far the best game both on offensive and defensive. Three times the Baptists were in striking distance of the goal, only to be disappointed by a costly fumble. Not once was Columbia able to make yardage through the local line, and not five times could she make the distance on end runs. The game was called at 3 o'clock. Columbia won the toss and chose to defend the south goal. Gray kicked 30 yards to Quinn, who ran it in three yards. Columbia failed to make the required distance and punted to Gray on M'Minville's 40-yard line. The local team worked the visitors' line for from two to three yards at each back, when a fumble forced them to punt. Leaston Smith ran the ball back 15 yards. Columbia, by formation plays, made the required distance twice on short end runs. She was then once more forced to punt.

CHART SHOWING HOW THE BALL WAS CARRIED BY THE OPPOSING TEAMS

Again the home team hammered Columbia's line and ran her ends, and it looked as if they would soon score, when time was called, with the ball on Columbia's 20-yard line.

The second half opened by Meany kicking to Patty on M'Minville's ten-yard line. Patty ran the ball back 20 yards. A weak place was found in Columbia's left line and the local backs were sent through time and again for good gains. The ball was worked to the visitors' ten-yard line, when it was lost on a fumble. The visitors failed to make yardage and punted to the center of the field. By fierce line plunges and runs around Columbia's left end, the local men worked the ball within 25 yards of their opponents' goal. A place-kick was tried. A poor pass was made, the ball falling on the ground, and the goal was missed by about six inches. The ball was carried out to Columbia's 25-yard line and punted to Gowen, who returned it five yards.

The ball was again advanced to the opponents' 25-yard line, where the visitors for the first time during the game held the local players for downs. Columbia made yardage twice and was forced to punt. The punt was blocked by Miller, who secured the ball. The local men made yardage once when the slippery ball was lost on a fumble. The visitors punted well into the Baptists' territory. By tackle plays and two 25-yard end runs by Captain Patty, the ball was placed on Columbia's 25-yard line. Day made five more yards through the visitors' left tackle, and Thompson hurried for five more, when time was called with the ball on Columbia's 15-yard line. Score, 9 to 9. They lined up as follows:

Line-up table for M'Minville vs Columbia game.

MISSIONARIES ARE WALLOPED

Pullman Runs Up a Score of 34 Points.

WHITMAN COLLEGE, WALLA WALLA, Wash., Nov. 24.—(Special.)—In the fiercest gridiron contest seen here for three years, Whitman College went down to defeat before her old rival, Washington Agricultural College. The Missionaries put up a plucky fight to the very end, but were outclassed and outplayed by the heavier and speedier team from Pullman. Nearly 100 people watched the game, which was in the main a straight, clean one, devoid of sensational plays. Pullman went over the line for a touchdown six minutes after the game started, and made three more in the first half by line plunges and short end runs at Whitman's weak left line. The feature of the game was the place kick of Dutcher, halfback, for goal from the 30-yard line, which gave Whitman the only four points she made. His punting was superior. In the last half Whitman succeeded in breaking some of Pullman's terrible line plunges, which were working her defeat, and held Pullman down to a couple of touchdowns, leaving the final score 24 to 4.

Hardy, Pullman fullback, was the star of the game. Once he carried Perringer, the 200-pound Whitman captain, 10 feet after being tackled around the neck. He and Captain Gill of Pullman, were the principal ground-gainers. This is the last game Gill will ever play, said to be his best. Hill, the Whitman crack halfback, went out early in the game with a dislocated shoulder. There were no other serious injuries to either team. Pullman was penalized several times, and Whitman once. The field was dusty and the weather ideal. Frank, of Walla Walla, was referee; Rothrock, of Spokane, umpire. At the end of the game both teams were so tired they could hardly walk off the field.

INDIANS OUTPLAY THE SOLDIERS.

CHEMAWA, Or., Nov. 24.—(Special.)—Chemawa defeated the first team from Fort Stevens this afternoon on the home gridiron by a score of 26 to 8. The game was one of the cleanest ever played here. The Indians scored three touchdowns in the first half and one in the second. The soldiers took a brace toward the close of the game and bucked the ball the length of the field for a touchdown.

The Indians skirted the ends for long gains. Poland and Payne were the best ground-gainers for the reds. Smith and Biggs played strong games for the soldiers, and O'Toole's bucks were hard to stop. The soldiers were weak on the defensive, but were able to make some good gains.

The game was witnessed by a large crowd. Rain fell during the greater part of the game and rendered the field exceptionally slippery. With the soggy ball the Indians were unable to kick any of their goals. Time of halves, 25 minutes. The teams lined up as follows:

Line-up table for Chemawa vs Fort Stevens game.

NO SCORE MADE AT LA GRANDE.

LA GRANDE, Or., Nov. 24.—(Special.)—The Thanksgiving football game between the Union and La Grande High School teams at La Grande ball park this afternoon was well attended. The score was 0 to 0.

MONTESANO WAS OUTPLAYED.

CENTRALIA, Wash., Nov. 24.—(Special.)—Centralia won the football game today from Montesano by a score of 26 to 0. Montesano was outplayed at every stage of the game, not having had much practice.

MEDFORD MADE ONE GOAL.

MEDFORD, Or., Nov. 24.—(Special.)—The Thanksgiving football game between Ashland and Medford, played on Medford grounds, ended with a score of 6 to 0 in favor of Medford. Butler and Strange alternated as referee and umpire. The line-men were Whitington and Bryant. Mickey made a touchdown and Miles kicked a goal. The line-up:

Line-up table for Medford vs Ashland game.

SPokane Boys Are Outclassed.

SPOKANE, Nov. 24.—Seattle High School rolled up 73 points this afternoon and prevented Spokane High School from scoring. Only in one instance did Spokane make yardage. Seattle excelled in every department of the game. The eleven was heavier, speedier, better trained and in fact played in a manner that so outclassed Spokane that the result was a foregone conclusion from the first scrimmage. About 1000 people saw the game. It was clean and sportsmanlike.

Sloppy Field at Marshfield.

MARSHFIELD, Or., Nov. 24.—(Special.)—The Thanksgiving football game between the High School and Independents was won by the former by a score of 7 to 5. The game was played in a field under water in places a foot deep.

ROUTERS DEFY THE RAIN.

The Thanksgiving football game is such a gala occasion that few women can resist wearing their best hats and gowns, no matter what the weather, and the lowering clouds of yesterday did not bring out a sombered, rain-coated gathering, but rather one of gay plumage. The milliners will no doubt be unusually busy during the next few weeks, for many a bonnet was ruined by the rain while its wearer enthusiastically rooted for Oregon or Multnomah on the side lines or in front of the grandstand. A stunning-looking girl in brown—from Eugene, I think—stood under her escort's umbrella until there was a howl from the grandstand for Oregon, and with reckless disregard of the dainty feather hat she wore, she darted to the edge of the line and "rah-rah-rah'd" for the yellow boys at the top of her voice—and spotted the hat. White hats, velvet toques, tulle creations and every other sort of headgear known to femininity suffered the same drenching, but the wearers were happy, so why worry about it?

Feminine Spectators Cheer While Gay Plumage is Dampened.

Everybody was there. Every player had a large following, each team had its scores of admirers, and then there were hundreds of spectators who went from sheer love of the sport. Society turned out, for it is quite the thing to go to a football game, you know. School girls came by gent filled about half the grandstand.

All the old graduates of the University of Oregon remain faithful when the football season rolls around and appear wearing their yellow chrysantheums. Mrs. George D. Linn was there for the occasion and attended the game with Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Linn and Miss Linn. Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Friendly and their daughters, Miss Rosalis and Miss Therese, were present with Portland friends, and Mrs. Emma Thompson was with her sisters, Mrs. Jerry Brough and Mrs. Charles Macrum. Miss Dolly Ankeny, Mr. and head, however, and he fell on it back of the goal line to prevent a touchdown. This safety gave Multnomah two more points. Score, 7 to 0.

MULTNOMAH BOYS WIN

(Continued from First Page.)

Four punts, two by Latourette and two by Murphy, placed the ball on Oregon's 15-yard line, when the game ended.

The Line-Up.

Line-up table for Multnomah vs Oregon game.

ROUTERS DEFY THE RAIN.

The Thanksgiving football game is such a gala occasion that few women can resist wearing their best hats and gowns, no matter what the weather, and the lowering clouds of yesterday did not bring out a sombered, rain-coated gathering, but rather one of gay plumage. The milliners will no doubt be unusually busy during the next few weeks, for many a bonnet was ruined by the rain while its wearer enthusiastically rooted for Oregon or Multnomah on the side lines or in front of the grandstand. A stunning-looking girl in brown—from Eugene, I think—stood under her escort's umbrella until there was a howl from the grandstand for Oregon, and with reckless disregard of the dainty feather hat she wore, she darted to the edge of the line and "rah-rah-rah'd" for the yellow boys at the top of her voice—and spotted the hat. White hats, velvet toques, tulle creations and every other sort of headgear known to femininity suffered the same drenching, but the wearers were happy, so why worry about it?

Feminine Spectators Cheer While Gay Plumage is Dampened.

Everybody was there. Every player had a large following, each team had its scores of admirers, and then there were hundreds of spectators who went from sheer love of the sport. Society turned out, for it is quite the thing to go to a football game, you know. School girls came by gent filled about half the grandstand.

All the old graduates of the University of Oregon remain faithful when the football season rolls around and appear wearing their yellow chrysantheums. Mrs. George D. Linn was there for the occasion and attended the game with Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Linn and Miss Linn. Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Friendly and their daughters, Miss Rosalis and Miss Therese, were present with Portland friends, and Mrs. Emma Thompson was with her sisters, Mrs. Jerry Brough and Mrs. Charles Macrum. Miss Dolly Ankeny, Mr. and defeated the second eleven from the artillery company at Fort Stevens. The score was 15 to 0, and the soldiers did not have a look-in during the game. They failed to make yardage even once, many times fumbling the ball or mistaking the signal.

Soldiers are not particularly good football players as a rule, but Fort Stevens has turned out one excellent team this year, that which played Chemawa yesterday, but the second team was not up to expectations. It had the disadvantage of all second teams of being drawn on for the first team and was more or less disorganized.

Fort Stevens was constantly on the defensive, and its line was hard to break, but the Y. M. C. A. backs were cleverer than the soldier ends, gaining constantly by long runs. The line-up:

Line-up table for Fort Stevens vs Eugene High School game.

Big Score in Montana.

MISSEOLA, Mont., Nov. 24.—University of Montana, 25; Agricultural College, 6.

Will Suppress the Concordat.

PARIS, Nov. 24.—The Chamber of Deputies today voted, by large majorities the details of the budget of public worship as drawn up by the government. The feature of the debate was Premier Combes' declaration "in reply to motions to suppress or reduce the budget." The Premier said he was determined to suppress and not reform the concordat and therefore asked Republicans to be patient and solve complicated matters by partial modifications, but to await his bill for the separation of church and state.

Injured by Street-Car.

A Japanese by the name of Nikiyama was struck by a street-car at Third and Couch last night and sustained injuries about the head and face. He was removed to Good Samaritan Hospital in a patrol wagon, and was attended by Dr. Pantou, the physician for the Portland Consolidated Railway Company. The victim was crossing the street when the accident occurred.

AN ARTIST'S GLIMPSES AT THE OREGON-MULTNOMAH GAME AND A FAITHFUL ROOTER

Advertisement for Tull & Company House Furnishings, featuring a large image of a chiffonier and the text 'PRETTY CHIFFONIERS AS LOW AS $8.50'. Includes the slogan 'YOUR CREDIT IS GOOD' and 'MAKE YOUR OWN TERMS'.

A collection of smaller illustrations and text snippets, including a cartoon of a man with a speech bubble saying 'CHESTER MURPHY WAS AN OBJECT OF UNIVERSAL ADMIRATION IN HIS NIFTY NEW UNIFORM, UNTILL...', and another cartoon with the text 'THE FATAL MOMENT THAT HE CAME IN SURELY CONTACT WITH A TWO PUDDLE!'. Other text includes 'GO AT 'EM, YOU OREGON!' and 'A DASH OF FRANK MERRICK'S LEWIS & CLARK PUBLICITY FAME'.