CLOTHES FOUND BUT NO OWNER
Police Are Seeking to Solve a Mysterious Disappearance.

More clothing belonging to some man, who may have been murdered, was found late yesterday afternoon by J. F. Booth, who lives at 450 Tenth street. These will be turned over to the police today, and further investigation made into the mystery.

A coat, vest and a partly destroyed pocket-book were the first pieces of apparel found, and were given into the hands of the police yesterday. Detectives were immediately detailed on the case, but up to a late hour last night had learned nothing definite.

The police are mystified over the clothing, as no man has been reported as missing, and nothing is known as to why the things were left where they were found. Boys playing about came across the apparel early yesterday morning. Among the things was a stamp photo which the boys destroyed. This might have proved very valuable to the police in their investigations.
