

ATTACK AT FORT

Russian Marines Make Serious Trouble.

TWENTY-FIVE ARE INJURED

Number of Wounded Is Estimated at 100.

ODESSA SCENE OF TROUBLE

Soldiers Send in a Volley, and the Scenes Which Follow Are Awful—Young Men Refuse to Take Advice of Their Elders.

ASK AMERICAN NAME MEMBER

Both Britain and Russia Desire High Officer on North Sea Board.

SPECIAL CABLE

LONDON, Nov. 28.—Dispatches from Odessa report that a serious mutiny occurred yesterday at the marine barracks.

In the course of which 25 recruits were killed and 100 others wounded. The riot was only one in a long chain of similar occurrences which began early last week and prompted the authorities to surround the buildings with a strong cord of loyal soldiers.

The effect of the charge was instantaneous. The mutineers huddled together and, led by the few armed men, tried to come within grappling reach of the soldiers.

The effect of the charge was instantaneous. The mutineers huddled together and, led by the few armed men, tried to come within grappling reach of the soldiers.

The effect of the charge was instantaneous. The mutineers huddled together and, led by the few armed men, tried to come within grappling reach of the soldiers.

The effect of the charge was instantaneous. The mutineers huddled together and, led by the few armed men, tried to come within grappling reach of the soldiers.

The effect of the charge was instantaneous. The mutineers huddled together and, led by the few armed men, tried to come within grappling reach of the soldiers.

The effect of the charge was instantaneous. The mutineers huddled together and, led by the few armed men, tried to come within grappling reach of the soldiers.

The effect of the charge was instantaneous. The mutineers huddled together and, led by the few armed men, tried to come within grappling reach of the soldiers.

The effect of the charge was instantaneous. The mutineers huddled together and, led by the few armed men, tried to come within grappling reach of the soldiers.

The effect of the charge was instantaneous. The mutineers huddled together and, led by the few armed men, tried to come within grappling reach of the soldiers.

The effect of the charge was instantaneous. The mutineers huddled together and, led by the few armed men, tried to come within grappling reach of the soldiers.

The effect of the charge was instantaneous. The mutineers huddled together and, led by the few armed men, tried to come within grappling reach of the soldiers.

The effect of the charge was instantaneous. The mutineers huddled together and, led by the few armed men, tried to come within grappling reach of the soldiers.

The effect of the charge was instantaneous. The mutineers huddled together and, led by the few armed men, tried to come within grappling reach of the soldiers.

The effect of the charge was instantaneous. The mutineers huddled together and, led by the few armed men, tried to come within grappling reach of the soldiers.

The effect of the charge was instantaneous. The mutineers huddled together and, led by the few armed men, tried to come within grappling reach of the soldiers.

The effect of the charge was instantaneous. The mutineers huddled together and, led by the few armed men, tried to come within grappling reach of the soldiers.

The effect of the charge was instantaneous. The mutineers huddled together and, led by the few armed men, tried to come within grappling reach of the soldiers.

The effect of the charge was instantaneous. The mutineers huddled together and, led by the few armed men, tried to come within grappling reach of the soldiers.

The effect of the charge was instantaneous. The mutineers huddled together and, led by the few armed men, tried to come within grappling reach of the soldiers.

Discipline generally is good. Patriotic relations exist between the officers and men, and the former are doing everything possible for the latter.

SERIOUSLY HARASS RUSSIANS

Japanese Bring Big Siege Guns into Play Near Da Pass.

WITH THE RUSSIAN FORCES AT SHENKING, Nov. 28.—The attack by the Japanese upon General Rennenkampf's position on November 24 resulted in three days' fighting at Tsinkhetchen, near Da Pass. Through the Japanese have been repulsed, the fighting still continues.

The Japanese have succeeded in placing several big siege guns in position, with which they were able to seriously harass the Russians. The latest estimate of the disposition of the Japanese forces is as follows: One brigade of infantry and five regiments of cavalry, with a division of one brigade between Bandoula and the Hun River; two divisions of infantry between Bandoula and Linsingui; one division of cavalry between Linsingui and the Hun River; one division between Chinansida and Kongsing; one brigade between Kongsing and the Hun River; one division consisting of one brigade and two divisions; one division at Bepuzza; one brigade occupying the country south-west of Bepuzza as far as Chingui; and one brigade of infantry and one of cavalry in the second line. Behind the main army are one brigade of infantry stationed at Liao Yang, one at Yental and one at Tsinkhetchen.

President Roosevelt has expressed his perfect satisfaction with the arrangements made for his safety, comfort and honor, and just before his train pulled out of the St. Louis Exposition grounds he congratulated and thanked President Francis and other exposition officials and the officers and men of the army.

Both Britain and Russia Desire High Officer on North Sea Board.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28.—Count Cassini, the Russian Ambassador, and Sir Mortimer Durand, the British Ambassador, met separately at the State Department today to present on behalf of their respective governments an invitation for the United States to appoint a "high ranking officer" a member of the court of inquiry which will investigate the facts in the Dogger Bank incident.

It is understood that the term "officer of high rank" used in the agreement between the United States and Great Britain means any officer having flag rank. Under this interpretation, it would be possible for the President to appoint a Rear-Admiral. It can be announced on the highest authority that the appointment of Admiral Dewey will be heartily welcomed in either Russia or Great Britain. In the latter country, the fact that Rear-Admiral French E. Chadwick is soon to go to London on account of his wife's illness has led to the belief that he might be selected for this mission. The President, however, will make the selection, and so far as can be learned, he has not intimated his attitude in the matter.

NEGOTIATING FOR STEAMER.

Russia Has an Eye on $300,000 American Ship.

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—Negotiations are reported to have been nearly completed whereby the steamship J. J. Mackenbach may eventually be the property of the Russian government.

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—Negotiations are reported to have been nearly completed whereby the steamship J. J. Mackenbach may eventually be the property of the Russian government.

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—Negotiations are reported to have been nearly completed whereby the steamship J. J. Mackenbach may eventually be the property of the Russian government.

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—Negotiations are reported to have been nearly completed whereby the steamship J. J. Mackenbach may eventually be the property of the Russian government.

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—Negotiations are reported to have been nearly completed whereby the steamship J. J. Mackenbach may eventually be the property of the Russian government.

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—Negotiations are reported to have been nearly completed whereby the steamship J. J. Mackenbach may eventually be the property of the Russian government.

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—Negotiations are reported to have been nearly completed whereby the steamship J. J. Mackenbach may eventually be the property of the Russian government.

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—Negotiations are reported to have been nearly completed whereby the steamship J. J. Mackenbach may eventually be the property of the Russian government.

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—Negotiations are reported to have been nearly completed whereby the steamship J. J. Mackenbach may eventually be the property of the Russian government.

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—Negotiations are reported to have been nearly completed whereby the steamship J. J. Mackenbach may eventually be the property of the Russian government.

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—Negotiations are reported to have been nearly completed whereby the steamship J. J. Mackenbach may eventually be the property of the Russian government.

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—Negotiations are reported to have been nearly completed whereby the steamship J. J. Mackenbach may eventually be the property of the Russian government.

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—Negotiations are reported to have been nearly completed whereby the steamship J. J. Mackenbach may eventually be the property of the Russian government.

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—Negotiations are reported to have been nearly completed whereby the steamship J. J. Mackenbach may eventually be the property of the Russian government.

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—Negotiations are reported to have been nearly completed whereby the steamship J. J. Mackenbach may eventually be the property of the Russian government.

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—Negotiations are reported to have been nearly completed whereby the steamship J. J. Mackenbach may eventually be the property of the Russian government.

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—Negotiations are reported to have been nearly completed whereby the steamship J. J. Mackenbach may eventually be the property of the Russian government.

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—Negotiations are reported to have been nearly completed whereby the steamship J. J. Mackenbach may eventually be the property of the Russian government.

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—Negotiations are reported to have been nearly completed whereby the steamship J. J. Mackenbach may eventually be the property of the Russian government.

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—Negotiations are reported to have been nearly completed whereby the steamship J. J. Mackenbach may eventually be the property of the Russian government.

ON HIS WAY HOME

Roosevelt Is Making Very Few Stops.

THOROUGHLY ENJOYING TRIP

Train Should Reach Washington Early This Evening—Every Precaution Being Taken to Make the President Safe.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Nov. 28.—President Roosevelt's special arrived here at 6 o'clock and left at 7 o'clock for Washington. The train is expected to reach Washington at 7 o'clock this evening.

Every day yesterday the President, Mrs. Roosevelt and all the members of the party were congratulating themselves upon the success of the trip, which was regarded by many with serious apprehension.

President Roosevelt has expressed his perfect satisfaction with the arrangements made for his safety, comfort and honor, and just before his train pulled out of the St. Louis Exposition grounds he congratulated and thanked President Francis and other exposition officials and the officers and men of the army.

Both Britain and Russia Desire High Officer on North Sea Board.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28.—Count Cassini, the Russian Ambassador, and Sir Mortimer Durand, the British Ambassador, met separately at the State Department today to present on behalf of their respective governments an invitation for the United States to appoint a "high ranking officer" a member of the court of inquiry which will investigate the facts in the Dogger Bank incident.

It is understood that the term "officer of high rank" used in the agreement between the United States and Great Britain means any officer having flag rank. Under this interpretation, it would be possible for the President to appoint a Rear-Admiral. It can be announced on the highest authority that the appointment of Admiral Dewey will be heartily welcomed in either Russia or Great Britain.

NEGOTIATING FOR STEAMER.

Russia Has an Eye on $300,000 American Ship.

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—Negotiations are reported to have been nearly completed whereby the steamship J. J. Mackenbach may eventually be the property of the Russian government.

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—Negotiations are reported to have been nearly completed whereby the steamship J. J. Mackenbach may eventually be the property of the Russian government.

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—Negotiations are reported to have been nearly completed whereby the steamship J. J. Mackenbach may eventually be the property of the Russian government.

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—Negotiations are reported to have been nearly completed whereby the steamship J. J. Mackenbach may eventually be the property of the Russian government.

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—Negotiations are reported to have been nearly completed whereby the steamship J. J. Mackenbach may eventually be the property of the Russian government.

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—Negotiations are reported to have been nearly completed whereby the steamship J. J. Mackenbach may eventually be the property of the Russian government.

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—Negotiations are reported to have been nearly completed whereby the steamship J. J. Mackenbach may eventually be the property of the Russian government.

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—Negotiations are reported to have been nearly completed whereby the steamship J. J. Mackenbach may eventually be the property of the Russian government.

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—Negotiations are reported to have been nearly completed whereby the steamship J. J. Mackenbach may eventually be the property of the Russian government.

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—Negotiations are reported to have been nearly completed whereby the steamship J. J. Mackenbach may eventually be the property of the Russian government.

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—Negotiations are reported to have been nearly completed whereby the steamship J. J. Mackenbach may eventually be the property of the Russian government.

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—Negotiations are reported to have been nearly completed whereby the steamship J. J. Mackenbach may eventually be the property of the Russian government.

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—Negotiations are reported to have been nearly completed whereby the steamship J. J. Mackenbach may eventually be the property of the Russian government.

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—Negotiations are reported to have been nearly completed whereby the steamship J. J. Mackenbach may eventually be the property of the Russian government.

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—Negotiations are reported to have been nearly completed whereby the steamship J. J. Mackenbach may eventually be the property of the Russian government.

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—Negotiations are reported to have been nearly completed whereby the steamship J. J. Mackenbach may eventually be the property of the Russian government.

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—Negotiations are reported to have been nearly completed whereby the steamship J. J. Mackenbach may eventually be the property of the Russian government.

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—Negotiations are reported to have been nearly completed whereby the steamship J. J. Mackenbach may eventually be the property of the Russian government.

SUIT SURPRISES ALL

Prominent Cleveland Woman Pressed for $190,000 Debt.

CAPITALIST IS THE PLAINTIFF

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—A sensation has been caused here by the bringing of suit by Herbert D. Newton, of Brooklyn, Mass., against Mrs. Cassie Chadwick, of Cleveland, O., for $190,000 for money lent. Mrs. Chadwick is the wife of a Cleveland physician.

Newton's suit, several banks have taken legal action to recover various amounts, which bring the total sum to $257,500.

Mr. Newton alleges that Mrs. Chadwick told him she had $500,000 in bonds and securities placed in trust by Ira Reynolds, secretary and treasurer of the Wade Park Banking Company, of Cleveland, and that she had a note for $500,000, which she could negotiate at any time for the purpose of paying Newton. He lent her $250,000.

P. W. Carver, of Boston, attorney for Mrs. Newton, in a statement made for his client, said that when the loan became payable it was not met and that then he (Mr. Carver) made a conference with Mrs. Chadwick and her counsel.

"The statement was made to me," said Mr. Carver, "that the securities held as a trust fund would soon be released, and that the various obligations would be paid."

"Later I went to Cleveland, where I held a conference with Mr. Reynolds, but he refused to disclose any information as to the securities in his care."

"Following another conference with Mrs. Chadwick's counsel last Monday, we decided to bring a suit in equity for the recovery of the money, and have obtained injunction restraining Mr. Reynolds from putting the securities out of his possession and also to prevent Mrs. Chadwick from disposing of them."

"It is the evident purpose of some of our legislators at Washington to reduce the tariff on Canadian goods, because, as they will say, Canada will make no concessions."

"These three classes furnish the basis upon which a consistent scheme of tariff revision by which I mean reciprocity, must rest."

Mr. Post presented a table of the principal articles in which the two countries are interchangeable trade and continued:

"Now here is a national and necessary trade of $5,000,000 and which might be worth a pair of horses and a pair of shoes."

"It is the evident purpose of some of our legislators at Washington to reduce the tariff on Canadian goods, because, as they will say, Canada will make no concessions."

"These three classes furnish the basis upon which a consistent scheme of tariff revision by which I mean reciprocity, must rest."

Mr. Post presented a table of the principal articles in which the two countries are interchangeable trade and continued:

"Now here is a national and necessary trade of $5,000,000 and which might be worth a pair of horses and a pair of shoes."

"It is the evident purpose of some of our legislators at Washington to reduce the tariff on Canadian goods, because, as they will say, Canada will make no concessions."

"These three classes furnish the basis upon which a consistent scheme of tariff revision by which I mean reciprocity, must rest."

Mr. Post presented a table of the principal articles in which the two countries are interchangeable trade and continued:

"Now here is a national and necessary trade of $5,000,000 and which might be worth a pair of horses and a pair of shoes."

"It is the evident purpose of some of our legislators at Washington to reduce the tariff on Canadian goods, because, as they will say, Canada will make no concessions."

"These three classes furnish the basis upon which a consistent scheme of tariff revision by which I mean reciprocity, must rest."

Mr. Post presented a table of the principal articles in which the two countries are interchangeable trade and continued:

"Now here is a national and necessary trade of $5,000,000 and which might be worth a pair of horses and a pair of shoes."

"It is the evident purpose of some of our legislators at Washington to reduce the tariff on Canadian goods, because, as they will say, Canada will make no concessions."

"These three classes furnish the basis upon which a consistent scheme of tariff revision by which I mean reciprocity, must rest."

Mr. Post presented a table of the principal articles in which the two countries are interchangeable trade and continued:

"Now here is a national and necessary trade of $5,000,000 and which might be worth a pair of horses and a pair of shoes."

SUIT SURPRISES ALL

Prominent Cleveland Woman Pressed for $190,000 Debt.

CAPITALIST IS THE PLAINTIFF

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—A sensation has been caused here by the bringing of suit by Herbert D. Newton, of Brooklyn, Mass., against Mrs. Cassie Chadwick, of Cleveland, O., for $190,000 for money lent. Mrs. Chadwick is the wife of a Cleveland physician.

Newton's suit, several banks have taken legal action to recover various amounts, which bring the total sum to $257,500.

Mr. Newton alleges that Mrs. Chadwick told him she had $500,000 in bonds and securities placed in trust by Ira Reynolds, secretary and treasurer of the Wade Park Banking Company, of Cleveland, and that she had a note for $500,000, which she could negotiate at any time for the purpose of paying Newton. He lent her $250,000.

P. W. Carver, of Boston, attorney for Mrs. Newton, in a statement made for his client, said that when the loan became payable it was not met and that then he (Mr. Carver) made a conference with Mrs. Chadwick and her counsel.

"The statement was made to me," said Mr. Carver, "that the securities held as a trust fund would soon be released, and that the various obligations would be paid."

"Later I went to Cleveland, where I held a conference with Mr. Reynolds, but he refused to disclose any information as to the securities in his care."

"Following another conference with Mrs. Chadwick's counsel last Monday, we decided to bring a suit in equity for the recovery of the money, and have obtained injunction restraining Mr. Reynolds from putting the securities out of his possession and also to prevent Mrs. Chadwick from disposing of them."

"It is the evident purpose of some of our legislators at Washington to reduce the tariff on Canadian goods, because, as they will say, Canada will make no concessions."

"These three classes furnish the basis upon which a consistent scheme of tariff revision by which I mean reciprocity, must rest."

Mr. Post presented a table of the principal articles in which the two countries are interchangeable trade and continued:

"Now here is a national and necessary trade of $5,000,000 and which might be worth a pair of horses and a pair of shoes."

"It is the evident purpose of some of our legislators at Washington to reduce the tariff on Canadian goods, because, as they will say, Canada will make no concessions."

"These three classes furnish the basis upon which a consistent scheme of tariff revision by which I mean reciprocity, must rest."

Mr. Post presented a table of the principal articles in which the two countries are interchangeable trade and continued:

"Now here is a national and necessary trade of $5,000,000 and which might be worth a pair of horses and a pair of shoes."

"It is the evident purpose of some of our legislators at Washington to reduce the tariff on Canadian goods, because, as they will say, Canada will make no concessions."

"These three classes furnish the basis upon which a consistent scheme of tariff revision by which I mean reciprocity, must rest."

Mr. Post presented a table of the principal articles in which the two countries are interchangeable trade and continued:

"Now here is a national and necessary trade of $5,000,000 and which might be worth a pair of horses and a pair of shoes."

"It is the evident purpose of some of our legislators at Washington to reduce the tariff on Canadian goods, because, as they will say, Canada will make no concessions."

"These three classes furnish the basis upon which a consistent scheme of tariff revision by which I mean reciprocity, must rest."

Mr. Post presented a table of the principal articles in which the two countries are interchangeable trade and continued:

"Now here is a national and necessary trade of $5,000,000 and which might be worth a pair of horses and a pair of shoes."

"It is the evident purpose of some of our legislators at Washington to reduce the tariff on Canadian goods, because, as they will say, Canada will make no concessions."

"These three classes furnish the basis upon which a consistent scheme of tariff revision by which I mean reciprocity, must rest."

Mr. Post presented a table of the principal articles in which the two countries are interchangeable trade and continued:

"Now here is a national and necessary trade of $5,000,000 and which might be worth a pair of horses and a pair of shoes."

SUIT SURPRISES ALL

Prominent Cleveland Woman Pressed for $190,000 Debt.

CAPITALIST IS THE PLAINTIFF

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—A sensation has been caused here by the bringing of suit by Herbert D. Newton, of Brooklyn, Mass., against Mrs. Cassie Chadwick, of Cleveland, O., for $190,000 for money lent. Mrs. Chadwick is the wife of a Cleveland physician.

Newton's suit, several banks have taken legal action to recover various amounts, which bring the total sum to $257,500.

Mr. Newton alleges that Mrs. Chadwick told him she had $500,000 in bonds and securities placed in trust by Ira Reynolds, secretary and treasurer of the Wade Park Banking Company, of Cleveland, and that she had a note for $500,000, which she could negotiate at any time for the purpose of paying Newton. He lent her $250,000.

P. W. Carver, of Boston, attorney for Mrs. Newton, in a statement made for his client, said that when the loan became payable it was not met and that then he (Mr. Carver) made a conference with Mrs. Chadwick and her counsel.

"The statement was made to me," said Mr. Carver, "that the securities held as a trust fund would soon be released, and that the various obligations would be paid."

"Later I went to Cleveland, where I held a conference with Mr. Reynolds, but he refused to disclose any information as to the securities in his care."

"Following another conference with Mrs. Chadwick's counsel last Monday, we decided to bring a suit in equity for the recovery of the money, and have obtained injunction restraining Mr. Reynolds from putting the securities out of his possession and also to prevent Mrs. Chadwick from disposing of them."

"It is the evident purpose of some of our legislators at Washington to reduce the tariff on Canadian goods, because, as they will say, Canada will make no concessions."

"These three classes furnish the basis upon which a consistent scheme of tariff revision by which I mean reciprocity, must rest."

Mr. Post presented a table of the principal articles in which the two countries are interchangeable trade and continued:

"Now here is a national and necessary trade of $5,000,000 and which might be worth a pair of horses and a pair of shoes."

"It is the evident purpose of some of our legislators at Washington to reduce the tariff on Canadian goods, because, as they will say, Canada will make no concessions."

"These three classes furnish the basis upon which a consistent scheme of tariff revision by which I mean reciprocity, must rest."

Mr. Post presented a table of the principal articles in which the two countries are interchangeable trade and continued:

"Now here is a national and necessary trade of $5,000,000 and which might be worth a pair of horses and a pair of shoes."

"It is the evident purpose of some of our legislators at Washington to reduce the tariff on Canadian goods, because, as they will say, Canada will make no concessions."

"These three classes furnish the basis upon which a consistent scheme of tariff revision by which I mean reciprocity, must rest."

Mr. Post presented a table of the principal articles in which the two countries are interchangeable trade and continued:

"Now here is a national and necessary trade of $5,000,000 and which might be worth a pair of horses and a pair of shoes."

"It is the evident purpose of some of our legislators at Washington to reduce the tariff on Canadian goods, because, as they will say, Canada will make no concessions."

"These three classes furnish the basis upon which a consistent scheme of tariff revision by which I mean reciprocity, must rest."

Mr. Post presented a table of the principal articles in which the two countries are interchangeable trade and continued:

"Now here is a national and necessary trade of $5,000,000 and which might be worth a pair of horses and a pair of shoes."

"It is the evident purpose of some of our legislators at Washington to reduce the tariff on Canadian goods, because, as they will say, Canada will make no concessions."

"These three classes furnish the basis upon which a consistent scheme of tariff revision by which I mean reciprocity, must rest."

Mr. Post presented a table of the principal articles in which the two countries are interchangeable trade and continued:

"Now here is a national and necessary trade of $5,000,000 and which might be worth a pair of horses and a pair of shoes."

A Cheat that Came in the Mayflower

Is sure to attract the attention of every New England woman and with pride in her heart she marvels that it is so strong and well preserved