CARLOAD OF CANDIED HONEY.—What sweeter than honey? W. H. Pennington, of Ontario, Or., thinks it is his candied extracted honey, 25,000 pounds of which has just reached this city under the direction of Woodward, Clarke & Co. People are accustomed to buy honey in jars and tins, and although the article is sweet enough, it sticks and leaves one's fingers sticky. Mr. Pennington's candied extracted honey is sold in solid blocks in packages weighing two, three and one-half, five and ten pounds. It is unlike the yellow, sticky honey made by bees. Pennington's honey is a solid block that can be cut with a knife, and served like butter or cheese. It's new on the market, and is Mr. Pennington's invention. No jar is required to hold it, for it is sold in huge masses of paraffin paper and is easily handled. It is extracted from the comb in the usual way and left to dry in the cool, frosty, dry air of Eastern Oregon. Chemists pronounce Pennington's honey to be absolutely pure.

MAY APPOINT SUPERINTENDENT.—At a meeting of the Central Women's Christian Temperance Union, held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ada W. Unruh, 800 East Yamhill, it was decided to take steps for protection of girls and women attending the Lewis and Clark Fair from abroad. This question was thoroughly discussed. It seems the consensus of opinion that a superintendent should be appointed whose duty would be to look after the girls and women while at the fair. However, this matter was not taken, and the matter was referred to the executive committee of the union. Mrs. Unruh expresses the opinion that it would be better that all the girls and women of the city should participate in attending the fair. The Central Union meets next Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Jennings, the president, 205 1/2 Clay street, when definite action may be taken.

MANY CANDIDATES ARE MENTIONED.—Although it is six months before election numerous candidates for Councilman from the Seventh Ward are being mentioned to run on the Republican ticket. Among these are S. F. White, contractor; F. G. Uirer, grocer; M. G. Griffin, real estate; Edward Gunderson, real estate, and others. There are many who want a Bellwood or Midway man, and the name of D. M. Donaghy, a Democrat, and president of the Bellwood Board of Trade, has been suggested as a compromise. Bellwood will make a fight for Councilman, as it never yet had that honor, and Mr. Donaghy would be acceptable to Republicans and Democrats. As the big sewer will be built in the Seventh Ward during the term of the next Councilman, the property-owners are anxious that a man of force and character should be in the Council regardless of what his politics may be and are considering available timber.

WILL FURNISH SWABS.—The Oregon State Board of Health has sent out notices stating that it is now prepared to furnish swabs, known to medical men as affording excellent means in determining the conditions of patients' throats, and also blood serum tubes, to physicians in every portion of Oregon, including this city, for suspected diphtheria cases, free of charge. It is promised that a report will be sent either by telephone or letter within 24 hours from the receipt of the articles sent. The swabs and tubes can be obtained at the office of the board, 608 Marquam building, any day between the hours of 9:30 A. M. and 5 P. M., excepting Saturday after 1 o'clock. The work is in charge of Dr. Ralph C. Matson.

ARKATA SCHOOL CROWDED.—W. A. Schoelling, chairman of the board of directors of district No. 1, reports that the five rooms occupied are crowded, there being 125 pupils. Miss Bristow, a teacher, resigned to take a place in the Tacoma School, and Miss Brown has taken her place. Principal Miller has adopted the plan of having about five of the pupils in the higher grades hear recitations in the lower classes, which furnishes relief while the rooms are crowded. There is still one more room not occupied, but which will probably be used by January 1, if pupils continue to come in as they have in the past. The district has six temporary buildings.

BUDGE CALL SERVICE.—Rev. W. H. Heppie, pastor of Centenary Church, has announced a bugle call service in the auditorium of that church, every evening. He will take the place of the regular prayer meeting. The meeting will be addressed by Dr. Heppie and two of the laymen. The purpose of this special service is not given out, but matters of interest will be presented.

HIS WIFE COMPLAINED.—Upon complaint of his wife, W. G. Frank was arrested last night on a warrant issued out of the Municipal Court. He is charged with assault and battery and using abusive language. He was arrested by Policeman Grif Roberts. He deposited bail and was released to appear in the Municipal Court this morning.

GROSS OF TOUR.—Mrs. A. W. Unruh, National W. C. T. U. organizer, will leave Saturday for The Dalles, where she will hold a mass meeting every evening in the interest of that work. She will spend some time on a lecture tour in Sherman and other Eastern Oregon counties before returning to Portland.

CHINAMAN APPEALS CASE.—Ngum Lun May, the Chinaman whose hearing before Commissioner J. A. Sladen yesterday resulted in an order for deportation, filed his appeal today. His case will now come before Judge Bellinger, but no date has been set for the hearing of the appeal.

INVESTIGATING THE CASE.—The police are investigating what is believed to be an incendiary fire in a house belonging to L. Royal, on Columbia Slough road and Portsmouth street, at an early hour yesterday morning. Detective Hartman is working on the case.

DECLARED HIMSELF BANKRUPT.—Frank R. Blair, a merchant of Weston, Umatilla County, declared himself a bankrupt in the United States Court yesterday. His petition showed liabilities amounting to $280.71, with assets aggregating $108.

W. C. T. U. MEETING.—The Sarah Kern W. C. T. U. will meet tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. E. Mendenhall, 33 East Thirty-third street. Plans for the coming year will then be laid.

FREIGHT RECEIVED TODAY, by La Center Transportation Co., Leona, for Ridgefield and all Lewis River points. Oak-st. dock. MISC. AND SOCIAL MEETINGS. William G. Elliot Fraternity this evening. Unitarian Church parlors, 8 o'clock.

TO ATTEND W. C. T. U. CONVENTION.—Oregon will be represented at the National Convention of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, which is in session at Philadelphia, by Mrs. Henrietta Brown, of Astoria, state corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Sarah A. Teate, of Portland, superintendent of the flower mission. Mrs. Ada Unruh was to have been present to speak at a noted meeting of the teachers of the Quaker City next Saturday, but at the last moment she found it impossible to leave Portland. She has forwarded her paper, however, and it will be read at the meeting in question. Last Sunday and the coming Sunday are both devoted to mass meetings of all the churches of Philadelphia. Many noted women are present at the convention, and business in all the branches of work done by the Union will be transacted. The British Women's Temperance Alliance is represented by Miss Tilling, of that country.

TESTING THE LIGHTS.—Preliminary lighting tests are being made nightly this week of the incandescent lights on the Agricultural Palace at the Exposition grounds. The lights are working satisfactorily, the dome of the palace resembling a veritable shield of light when the 1000 lights now in place are turned on.

THE PASADENA collection of Oriental rugs will be closed today and tomorrow at 2 and 3 P. M. at George Baker & Co.'s, corner Alder and Park. Anyone desiring to secure any of these rare rugs will find their only opportunity.

EXHIBITION AND SALE of decorated china by the Oregon Ceramic Club, 10 A. M. to 10 P. M. today, top floor, Macleay building.

FACTORY SALE and dinner this evening. St. Lawrence Hall, Third and Sherman streets. Music, refreshments. All invited. Dr. C. W. BARR, Dentist, 517 Dekum. It's convenient to know Wooster.

TIME TO END DOG NUISANCE. Banish the Canines From the Streets, Says L. Samuel.

PORTLAND, Nov. 30.—(To the Editor.)—So as to stop in advance all possible controversy regarding the "baiting of the dog," I will admit the testimony that he is faithful. I will also admit as true the stories I have heard about his lying down on his master's grave and starving to death. This act of his is, of course, absolutely useless and extremely foolish, but some dogs are said to have done this.

I have asked the Mayor of this city, and he tells me that for all the dogs who inhabit the City of Portland their owners pay the sum of $6.00 as a tax, and for this paltry sum they are permitted to become a general nuisance to all lovers of the beautiful. Take any five blocks in the residence portion of the city and the tax paid by owners of these five blocks is a great deal more than $5000, yet not one of these owners would be permitted to become a nuisance to any one else, and, in fact, the great majority of them have the decency not to wish to become a nuisance to any one else.

I have done all I possibly could to beautify my own premises, and I am inclined to believe that I have had a good effect in the neighborhood in which I live. The result would have been very much better if marauding dogs had not done all they possibly could to destroy what we built up. Many wealthy men from other sections are attracted to Portland, not by reason of the great number of dogs that are kept in this city, but by reason of the large number of respectable citizens who have done so much to beautify the city.

My opinion is, there should be a dog as to what privileges a dog has simply because his owner pays a tax of $2 or $3 a year. I know that the more respectable portion of dog-owners keep their dogs at home; they are not permitted to roam the streets, consequently my remarks have nothing whatever to do with them, but there are dog-owners who do not care a rap for the feelings of other people and who do not care how much of a nuisance their dogs become to other people.

Portland has been a leader in a great many things, and it is right at the time, when we are endeavoring to show off to our best advantage, to banish dogs from the streets. An ordinance should be passed that no dog shall be allowed to roam the streets, and that anyone who violates this ordinance shall be fined $100.00. The police should be authorized to seize any dog found roaming the streets, and to destroy it. The police should also be authorized to seize any dog found roaming the streets, and to destroy it.

DOUGLAS WOULD HONOR MILES Governor Offers to Make Him Adjutant-General of Massachusetts.

BOSTON, Nov. 30.—(Special.)—Lieutenant-General Nelson A. Miles, retired, may be Adjutant-General in the administration of Governor Douglas. A representative of Governor-elect Douglas, authorized to offer the place to General Miles, has been in communication with the distinguished soldier. Miles is not yet prepared to say whether he will take the place. He has not yet seen Mr. Douglas, who is still at Hot Springs.

If General Miles accepted the office of Adjutant-General of Massachusetts he would receive the full pay, $11,000 a year, of a Lieutenant-General of the United States Army, and a salary of $3600 a year, which the commonwealth pays to the Adjutant-General.

THE THIRD DAY Of the Big $12.50 Suit Sale.

The third day of the great woolen mills sale of men's clothing has demonstrated that the people readily respond to a genuine reduction sale when advertised by a reliable and responsible store. We intend to reduce our stock as much as possible until January 1st, and we will sell the pick and choice of any of our high-grade suits for only $12.50.

We show 28 patterns, all of this season's make, and they are worth regular prices from $20 to $30.00. BROWNVILLE WOOLLEN MILLS, 308 Third Street, Opposite Chamber of Commerce.

MALE CHORUS ORGANIZED

MEMBERSHIP WILL BE LIMITED TO TWENTY-FOUR.

Musicians Will Be Under the Leadership of Arthur L. Alexander, and Concerts Will Be Rendered.

Men who sing will be more than interested to know that the Orpheus Male Chorus, consisting exclusively of 24 selected men's voices has just been organized under the leadership of Arthur L. Alexander, and will give concerts in the near future. The Orpheus will only work along the lines of high-class music, after the pattern of men's vocal societies in large Eastern cities. The music will be sung without any accompaniment, and the Orpheus members include the best singers in Portland. Many of them can at a moment's notice sing a solo before a critical audience. The chorus membership:

Tenors—Harry W. Hogue, J. W. Bisher, J. C. Jones, John Ross Fargo, W. G. Hodson, Dr. George Alston, John Gill, John P. Barrett, James White, C. C. Richard and Leon M. Jones.

There is a need for such an organization in this city, for it will have nearly all the vocal field to itself, as with the exception of one or two church choruses the only other organization here singing male choruses is the Arion Society, which largely uses the German language in making up programmes. The successful constitution and by-laws of the Orpheus Male Chorus the membership is limited to 24 men, but there is a waiting list, and applications for this list can be made to the secretary, J. W. Bickford, 256 Morrison street. The names will be placed on file, and after the applicants have passed examinations at the hands of the membership committee the names of the successful singers will be placed on the waiting list, to be promoted to active membership when vacancies occur.

Musicians already been selected for rendition from the works of Brahms, Wagner, Mozart, etc. Lighter music is also on the list, including songs, etc. Those who have organized this chorus say they are in it to stay, and that under the skillful direction of Arthur L. Alexander the Orpheus Male Chorus will develop into one of the best, if not the best, men's voice choirs in the Northwest. The next rehearsal of the chorus will take place Tuesday night at 8 o'clock at Acolian Hall, Park and Washington streets.

"POOL KILLER" IS MISSING. Man Crossing Lake in Balloon Is Believed to Have Met Death.

CHICAGO, Nov. 30.—Peter Nissen is believed either to have smothered or frozen to death in his rooming balloon, the "Pool Killer," in which he started for a trip across the lake yesterday. The balloon that Nissen was in was blown down the river by a strong wind, and he was seen by a boatman in a launch. He has not been sighted by any vessel.

Possibility of Nissen's smothering to death was considered more definitely when it was learned that his only supply of air was that pumped into the "Pool Killer" before the craft was launched. It was said by Nissen's brother, however, that the navigator had figured on his supply of air and was sure it would last him for a great number of hours.

At the Weather Bureau, it was said that even if Nissen reached the shore he would suffer from the cold as there was a snow storm blowing near the Michigan shore, and as his boat had no means of heating, the navigator would suffer severely. The wind toward midnight increased from 25 miles an hour to a 60-mile rate.

REPUBLICANS HOLD JUBILEE Seven Hundred Attend Dinner in New York City.

NEW YORK, Nov. 30.—Seven hundred Republicans attended the jubilee dinner given tonight at the Waldorf-Astoria in honor of the victory of President Roosevelt and Vice-President Fairbanks. President Roosevelt sent his regrets, as did also George B. Cortelyou, chairman of the National Committee. Senator Fairbanks made a brief speech, leaving early to take a train for Boston.

Senator Scott, of West Virginia, in a brief address, said: "The Republicans went before the country upon the present conditions of the country and should now let well enough alone."

"If we revise the tariff, we make an apology to the country we don't owe," he added.
