

SCORE IN WILL CASE

Edna Hopper's Attorneys Make a Strong Point.

HEARING SUDDENLY HELD UP

Plaintiff Alleges One of the Witnesses to Dunsmuir's Signature Did Not Know What He Was Signing.

VANCOUVER, B. C., Dec. 1.—The present hearing of the appeal in the Dunsmuir will case suddenly came to an end today, when a strong point was scored by the plaintiff, which sends the parties back for further evidence. The point is that the plaintiffs claim that one of the witnesses to Alexander Dunsmuir's signature to his will did not know that the document was a will. Under the California law this would make the will null and void.

EX-SHERIFF GIVEN HIS FREEDOM

Lake Taxpayers' Petition Is Granted by Governor Chamberlain.

SALEM, Or., Dec. 1.—(Special.)—A. J. Nelson, who stole over $5000 of Lake County's money while he was Sheriff of that county, was pardoned by Governor Chamberlain today upon the petition of taxpayers of the county. Nelson was met at the prison door by his wife, who has worked hard for several weeks securing the petitions which brought his release. They went to Portland this evening.

Nelson is a native of Northern California and comes of a good family, of long standing on the coast. He was Sheriff from 1888 to 1896, and at the close of his term it was found that he was $5000 short in his accounts. Suit was brought against his bondsmen and judgment was recovered. What amount the county received is not shown by the records here.

Nelson was tried on a criminal charge and after a hard fight was found guilty. He was sentenced to a four-year term in the penitentiary, and has served one year of that time. In the petition for a pardon it was alleged in his behalf that he was held in jail at Lakeview one year before being sentenced to the penitentiary. It is also alleged that he had been of previous good character, one petitioner averring in his behalf that he was a first-class citizen until he was brought to Salem there was not a day that he could not have left the county, for he was practically at liberty without bonds for a year.

It is stated also that his parents are nearly 80 years old and that they desire to see their son free before they pass into the great beyond. The petition was signed by all the jurors except three, by all the bondsmen except one and by practically all the legal voters in the county. The trial judge, H. L. Benson, recommended that the pardon be granted because the taxpayers want it. District Attorney A. E. Reames declined to recommend a pardon, but said that since the taxpayers are so interested, want the pardon issued, he will not oppose it.

OKAKMAN'S TRIAL IS SET.

Delayed That Evidence May Be Brought From Old Home.

HILLSBORO, Or., Dec. 1.—(Special.)—Hert Okakman, charged with slaying Frank Bennett, August 27, was this morning arraigned and pleaded not guilty. His attorneys asked for further time to secure depositions from Monmouth, Ill., as to Okakman's previous good reputation, and the court set the date of trial on December 13. William Hays, of Sherwood, pleaded guilty to assaulting a saloonkeeper at that place with a knife, and was sentenced to six months in the penitentiary, the minimum sentence for the crime. The second indictment, that charging him with assaulting the same man with a knife, was dismissed as the case was strong against young Hays he pleaded guilty at the suggestion of the attorney appointed by the court to defend.

WARDEN'S ACCOUNTS CORRECT

Suspect Caught at Arlington.

THE DALLES, Or., Dec. 1.—A tramp giving his name as Charles McWalters was this morning brought back to this city from Arlington last night. They were following this lead, the officers started on the first train, and after searches at Biggs and Grants, apprehended the fellow at Arlington last night. They feel sure of his identity with the robbery here. They are also of the opinion that he is the same character who held up and robbed a citizen in this city one evening in the residence portion of town.

For Uniform Irrigation Laws.

SEATTLE, Wash., Dec. 1.—During the present week's session of the Washington Irrigation Commission, a bill will be drafted to submit to the next Legislature which will have for its first object the unification of the various laws of the state and their conformity with those in effect in the other states of the West. Greater power is to be given the Government in the condemnation and appropriation of water rights, and questions respecting the general laws relating to riparian rights will also be covered by the bill. The passage of the bill, it is stated, will greatly aid the Government in the reclamation of thousands of acres of valuable lands in the West.

Pastor Invited to Return.

OREGON CITY, Or., Dec. 2.—(Special.)—At a congregational meeting of the members of the First Presbyterian Church last night a call was issued asking for the return of Rev. P. A. Missett to the pastorate of the church. At a recent meeting of the Presbytery of this district Mr. Missett was relieved of the pastorate of the Oregon City church because of a controversy between the pastor and members of the managing board of the church. Mr. Missett is now engaged in missionary work, and is located at Baker City and Sumpter.

Contest in Walla Walla County.

WALLA WALLA, Wash., Dec. 1.—(Special.)—An action was commenced in the Superior Court today by James Caskey, an elector of Ritz precinct, Walla Walla county, contesting the election of R. J. Berryman, the Republican nominee for Assessor, who was declared elected on the official count by a plurality of 34 votes over Michael Toner, Democrat. The complaint filed by the plaintiff's attorneys alleges that the election officers of the precinct in the county were guilty of misconduct in counting for Berryman votes which were cast for Toner to the effect of the election. It is also alleged that in Ritz precinct the election officers permitted two votes to be cast and counted after the polls had been declared closed; that in Clyde precinct the election officers allowed the polling place from the place designated by the County Commissioners. Berryman had the smallest majority of any Republican elected on the county ticket.

FIGHT FOR AN HOUR

Sailors Battle on Board Schooner Annie Larsen.

ONE BADLY CUT WITH KNIFE

Race Prejudice Starts Combat That Rages in Spite of Captain and Crew Until Police Answer Riot and Make Arrests.

In one of the fiercest and most bloody fights ever waged on the deck of a vessel in Portland harbor John Codesmann was stabbed three times in the head by Neer Eitanon and suffered a broken thumb. On board the schooner Annie Larsen, lying at the dock of the Inman-Poulsen Lumber Company, the men fought for an hour last night, ending their terrific battle with knives and belaying pins only when met with force by Special Police Francis and Parker.

Assailant Is Arrested.

Eltanon, still defiant and vowing vengeance on the wounded man, was handcuffed, placed under guard of Policeman Stuart and taken to headquarters. He was booked on a charge of assault with a dangerous weapon and locked up in City Jail to answer to the charge before Municipal Judge Hogue today. He is regarded as the aggressor in the affray, and witnesses state that Codesmann was obliged to fight for his life, as his assailant was armed with a long knife. Too much liquor had been consumed during a walk on shore, was the direct cause of the outbreak last night, but, according to witnesses, among whom are Captain W. M. White, of the Annie Larsen, and John Eitanon, who has existed between the two teams ever since the schooner left San Pedro, bound for this port. They met each other coming through the lumber yards last night about 10 o'clock. It is claimed that Eitanon dared Codesmann to go aboard the schooner, saying that if he did, he would murder him.

Crew Afraid to Interfere.

Members of the crew of the Annie Larsen heard the men quarrelling as they came down the gang-plank to board the schooner, but they were too afraid to interfere. Shortly after midnight Eitanon came on deck, it is stated. Eitanon went to his bunk and secured his knife. Codesmann went to bed, or was in the act of undressing, when he was attacked in a most vicious manner by Eitanon. Codesmann threw down his weapon and started on a series of sprints fore and aft, dodging the vicious blows aimed at him with the knife of the hands of Eitanon.

Paid No Need to Captain.

All hands were roused by the watchman, including Captain White. Huddled together, they rushed on deck and commanded the men to cease fighting. They paid no heed to him, however, and he dispatched a member of the crew to notify Special Policemen Francis and Parker. They sent in the call to police headquarters, bringing the wagon load of officers. Arriving at the dock, the special policemen rushed in on the fighters, but it was necessary for Officer Francis to use his club to subdue Eitanon. He was ferried to the dock and held down until the arrival of the police.

SLAIN IN BATTLE WITH POSSE

Texas Man Who Killed Son-in-Law Has Advantage Until He Sleeps.

FORT WORTH, Tex., Dec. 1.—The sequel to the tragedy that cost the lives of Steve McKinney, his father and a hired man on their farm near Alvarado Tuesday came today. J. M. Williams, the triple murderer, bragging from his home and led the officers. He went word to his daughter, the widowed bride of the man he had murdered, that if she did not come to him he would kill her. She went fearfully to the house, where she found her father, armed with a Winchester and in a frenzy of rage. The officers were afraid to fire into the house, for fear of killing some member of Williams' family, whom he held prisoners there to shield him.

Miss Agnes Miller, of Chicago, speaks to young women about dangers of the Menstrual Period—how to avoid pain and suffering and remove the cause by using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"To YOUNG WOMEN:—I suffered for six years with dysmenorrhea (painful periods), so much so that I dreaded every month, as I knew it meant three or four days of intense pain. The doctor said this was due to an inflamed condition of the uterine appendages caused by repeated and neglected colds.

"If young girls only realized how dangerous it is to take cold at this critical time, much suffering would be spared them. Thank God for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, that was the only medicine which helped me. Within three weeks after I started to take it, I noticed a marked improvement in my general health, and at the time of my next monthly period the pain had diminished considerably. I kept up the treatment, and was cured a month later. I am like another person since. I am in perfect health, my eyes are brighter, I have added 12 pounds to my weight, my color is good, and I feel light and happy."—MISS AGNES MILLER, 25 Potomac Ave., Chicago, Ill.

The monthly sickness reflects the condition of a woman's health. Anything unusual at that time should have prompt and proper attention. Fifty thousand letters from women prove that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound regulates menstruation and makes those periods painless.

READ WHAT MISS LINDBECK SAYS:

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has greatly benefited me. I will tell you how I suffered. My trouble was painful menstruation. I felt as each month went by that I was getting worse. I had severe bearing-down pains in my back and abdomen.
