The principal address will be given by Judge R. P. Boise, of Salem, and his topic will be "The Bench and Bar of Oregon From the Beginning of the First Court in This State Up to and Including 1880." Solomon and Grant Are Indicted by the Grand Jury.

Document States Defendants Committed an Act Against Public Morality by Owning and Operating a Gambling-House.

Indictments against Peter Grant and Nate Solomon, of the Portland Club, charging them with committing an act which disturbs the public peace and is injurious to public morals, was returned by the grand jury yesterday morning. The indictment is brought under section 1530 of the Statutes, regarding nuisances, and the facts recited in the bill are as follows:

That Peter Grant and Nathan Solomon did then and there unlawfully keep and maintain a common gaming-house, open to the public night and day, and did then and there entice, congregate and cause to congregate great numbers of disorderly and idle persons and youth, playing therein at unlawful games for money, betting and wasting their substance thereon and otherwise misbehaving themselves and leading one another and all other persons to evil ways; to the common nuisance of all the people, contrary to the statutes in such cases provided, and to the peace and dignity of the State of Oregon. The witnesses are Mrs. C. M. Badgley, Lewis W. Robertson, E. B. Williams, Martin R. Johnson. The indictment is signed by John Manning, District Attorney.

Rev. T. B. Ford, D. Challenges Detractor of Joan of Arc

PARIS, Dec. 1.—Deputy Jaures, the Socialist leader, has telegraphed a challenge to fight a duel to Paul de Roulede, who has been in political exile since his participation in the plot to overthrow the government. The challenge grows out of the agitation of the students resulting from alleged insulting remarks about

Joan of Arc made by a professor of history at the Lycee Concorde. M. de Roulede telegraphed from Spain, declaring that the Socialists were responsible for the attack on Joan of Arc, and adding that she was the most sublime figure in history, whereas M. Jaures was the most contemptible of her detractors. The student demonstrations in behalf of Joan of Arc were continued today.

SEAMEN SUFFER TERRIBLY

Nine Leave Sinking Steamer, but Only Two Survive the Trip.

LONDON, Dec. 2.—A story of terrible experiences is told by the two survivors of the crew of nine of the steamer Blanche, which was sunk in the Mersey River in collision Wednesday night. They escaped in a lifeboat, which immediately dashed against the sinking steamer. Three of the seamen being drowned, the remaining six righted the boat and rowed away, but were buffeted by the waves which soon filled the boat with freezing water. Two more died of exposure. Again the boat capsized, but the four survivors by superhuman efforts managed to scramble in. Though almost dead from cold, they renewed their efforts to reach shore, but two more succumbed before. At 3 o'clock Thursday morning the lifeboat struck shore at Forbury and the survivors painfully dragged the boat and its gruesome cargo through the surf to land.

This is a show that has gone trouping up and down the land so long that we have come to expect it with the changing seasons. Unlike the seasons, however, "The Devil's Auction" never changes. It is the same old thing gone to seed. Many people in the audience seemed to like it last night and if there be ten in the theater who like a show it will not do to fly the face of public opinion and call it bad. Anyway it was only for one night. A. A. G.
