Wife of Coloradan Wires to Learn if He Is Not Dead.

BODY IS FOUND ON DESERT

Woman Wakes Up Suddenly, Belleving She Has Heard Husband Call for Help, and Is Unable to Rid Herself of the Feeling.

BRECKENRIDGE, Colo., Dec. 2,-(Spe. cisi.)-When a telegram was received this orning by Mrs. William Howe, announce ing the finding of the body of her husband, William Howe, on the Nevada des ert, near Tonopah, the sad sequel of an occult incident became known, Mr. Howe went to Goldfields six weeks ago to in-vestigate conditions in the gold camp. Several days ago Mrs. Howe received a letter from him, in which he said he would be home soon. That night she had a vivid dream, in which she heard him scresm her name in apparent agony. She awoke in terror, and could not rid herself of the feeling that she had actually heard

An inquiry set on foot by J. Gough and D. McNell at Tonopab, in response to tel-egrams she sent them, led to the search which resulted in finding her husband's which resulted in inding her husband's remains. They will be brought here for interment. Whether the death of the gold-seeker was due to heart failure or violence is not known here. The deseased had lived in Summit County for more than 20 years, and left a widow and two

"The New Dominion."

This afternoon and tonight will be th last two opportunities to witness Clay Clement's great play, "The New Domin-ien," which is being so beautifully given by the Columbia Theater Stock Comby the Columbia Theater Stock Com-pany. Every line, every situation, is gem of pretty sentiment or comedy. "The New Dominion" is an ideal matinee play and will doubtless again crowd the Co-lumbia to the doors at both this after-noon and tonight's performance.

Land Frauds in Vaudeville.

Have you heard that topical song which broi and Trainer, the cleverest team of sketch comedians in the country, are sing-ing this week? They sprung it yesterday and the audiences simply worked them to death answering encores. The song has fun with the trials which are now in progress for ten days in the United States Court. ALL EYES ON MRS. CHADWICK Woman Who Has Borrowed So Much Money Visits Wall Street.

NEW YORK, Dec. 2 .- Mrs. Chadwick's movements today were also a subject of much interest, and when she loft the Holland House, where she has been living, and went to the Central Trust Company building in Wall street, her appearance attracted crowds of people. The result of her visit in Wall street was not announced, but it is announced she called on a firm of law-yers there. There was a story in circulation that Mrs. Chadwick contemplated leaving for Europe tomorrow. Relative to this, Philip Carpenter, one of her counsel said tonight, that his client would not leave for Europe, and added: "In fact, she will not leave this coun-

"In fact, she will not leave this country until every dollar of her indebtodness has been paid."

Mr. Carpenter also made the statement that Mrs. Chadwick is a "very wealthy woman," and "amply able to care for all the claims against her."

Mrs. Chadwick was in consultation this afternoon with the firm of Butler, Nolman, Joline & Mynders, lawyers of Wall street. It was stated on good authority tonight that this firm has been Mrs. Chadwick's counsel in this city Mrs. Chadwick's counsel in this city for a number of years, and one of her lawyers said that the fact that the This afternoon at 2:15 o'clock the matinee attraction at the Marquam Grand Theater will be the dramatic surprise of the season, "Who's Brown?" which was given last night for the first time in Portland. It was soon after the visit that Mr.

Newton's lawyers announced they were satisfied that the claim would be settled. Considerable interest was aroused today by a statement credited to a Cleve-land attorney to the effect that Mrs. Chadwick lost large sums of money through bucket-shops.

Another statement made in connection with the case today was that a number of years ago Mrs. Chadwick borrowed from Mrs. Schenley, the English woman who died several years ago possessed of many million dollars' worth of property in Pittsburg. It is said that notes for various sums made by Mrs. Chadwick were found among Mrs. Schenley's pa-pers after her death.

Among the many rumors in connection with the Chadwick case, one which gained wide circulation today was to the effect that Mrs. Chadwick would sail for Eu-rope tomorrow. It was said that she would go to join her husband, who is now believed to be in Paris.

TO MEET MULTNOMAH ELEVEN ON GRIDIRON.

Critics Say the Men From the City by the Sea Stand an Excellent Chance of Winning the Game.

Astoria, which is doing things in the football world this Fall, will be here this afternoon at 3 o'clock to play a game with Multnomah. It is not known what Astoria is going to do, but the city by the storm-blown jetty thinks its champions will lick Multnomah by about one touch-down.

will lick Multnomah by about one touchdown.

A comparison of previous acores will make out Astoria to be much strenger than Oregon and something to the better of the club players. Oregon defeated Albany 4 to 6 some time since. Astoria took the same college into camp a little while later with Il to 6. Multnomah a week afterward scored but 16 to 6. Albany, it will be remembered, is not an easy thing.
Its players are hard as nails and play
footbail all the way through the game.
So when Astoria lines up today it is going in to win, and Multnomah has trouble in store. It would not be asfe, however, to prophesy that Multnomah was going to get licked.

There have been a few changes in the Multnomah line-up. Seeley will be ost of it and Van Voorhees or Sinnott will play right guard. Grieve or Rintoul will be at center. Kirkley is doubtful, and Griffith, an acquisition from Albany, may take his place. Murphy will probably be superseded at quarter by Johnson. And Lonergan, who played fullback in the Oregon gan, who played fullback in the Gregori game, will be in his old-time position at right half. That is where he made his fame at Notre Dame, and if he follows up his work of Thankagiving day well, it will be seen that the club never had a better man back of the line. The com-plete line-up follows:
