Houses of Congress to Begin Business.

MESSAGE COMES TUESDAY

Senate Will First Pay Respects to Memory of Dead.

WILL ADJOURN ON THURSDAY

Philippine Government, Pure Food Bill, Admission of Southwest Territories Are Main Measures Before Upper Branch.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6 .- The first act of the Senate on convening tomorrov will be one of respect to the memory of two distinguished Senators-Senator Quay and Senator Hoar, Adjournment for the day will follow at once and will postpone receipt of the President's sage until Tuesday. That document will be received early Tuesday and very little, if any, further business beinto office of Messrs, Knox, of Pennsylvania, and Crane, of Massachusetts, will dered to go at once to Zeigler. be undertaken that day. For the remainder of the week exceedingly brief sessions are expected. On Thursday adjournment will be taken until the following Monday, Senator Lodge will press the House bill for the Philippines government as soon as it is possible to get that measure before the Senate and he has announced his intention not to brook ophas the vast advantage of being on the calendar as unfinished busines so that it cannot easily be displaced. It is not probable, however, that Mr. Lodge now press its adoption.

Hoar's Bill Will Be Deferred.

Before the close of the session last Spring, Senator Hoar gave notice that next Tuesday he would call up the bill providing means for the protection of the President, but owing to the death the Senator consideration of the bill will be deferred for some time.

Senator Hayburn gave notice last session that he would call up the pure food bill next Tuesday, but while it is generally understood that he will press the question at all proper times it is believed he will not make serious effort to proceed with it during the first few days of the session

Another measure which probably will be taken up early in the session is the bill for admission of the four South west Territories as two states. Nothing more than preliminary work, however can be done on any of these bills in the first week.

Filling Up Committees. It is expected that the Republica tion before the appropriation bills be gin to arrive from the House of Rep resentatives. Attention will be given to filling committee vacancles caused by the deaths of Senators Hanna, Hoar and Quay, but the disposition seems to be opposed to doing more in that direction at present than to passing to chairmanship of the committee on judiciary, which place will go to him by virtue of seniority.

HOUSE WILL START SLOWLY. First Week's Business is Expected to Be Quite Light.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4 .- Little in the way of legislative business is expected the first week of the session of Congress. The first day will be devoted to calling the roll and swearing in new members, who have been elected to fill H. Knapp, wife of Hon. Martin A. Knapp, vacancies. The usual committee will chairman of the Interstate Commerce vacancies. The usual committee will chairman of the Interstat be appointed to inform the President Commission, died here today. that Congress is in session and the resquorum of the House is ready for business will be passed. Tuesday the Pres-ident's message will be read, but it is not expected that any other business

Ill be transacted. There are a number of minor matters of legislation that may be considered on Wednesday and on Thursday, as no special order has been made for consideration of any general measure. It is possible that the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill may be reported Wednesday or Thursday. Friday is pension day and there will be more than 1000 private pension bills ready for the House to consider. Early adjournments each day are expected the first week in order to give time to shape the session business. Ob-jection may be interposed against administering the oath of office Thomas Heflin, elected to fill the va cancy caused by the death of Representative Thompson, from the Fifth Alabama District, on account of certain language Heflin is alleged to have used regarding the President of the United States. In case objection is made there is no doubt there will be a spirited party debate that would occupy much Alaskan Operators' Claims.

SEATTLE, Dec. 5.-Alaska operator resident in Seattle and others interested in the development of that country say they will urge upon Congress to extend Governmental aid or subsidy in the matter of railroad construction in the terri-tory, insisting that a rider to this effect se placed upon the bill passed by the last House guaranteeing 5 per cent income upon the money invested in such enter-prises in the Philippines and which is w coming up as unfinished business in

They allege that the United States is in futy bound to do at least as much, if not more in the matter of development for Alaska, which is American soil, as for her

SPEAKS TO SUNDAY CLUB.

Rev. Dr. Morrison Gives Interesting Discussion on "Manhood."

Rev. Dr. A. A. Morrison was the speak er at the Sunday Club of the Y. M. C. A. yesterday, and gave an interesting halfhour's talk on "Manhood." While the subject was, as Dr. Morrison said at the outset, a great, big, broad topic, although one would not always think so from some of the specimens of manhood met with, yet he covered it very fully and brought out all the characteristic elements of that quality in man. He analyzed manhood as consisting of four elements, the physical, intellectual, moral and spiritual, and effectually demonstrated the necessity of the co-existence of all to complete the perfect whole. In talking to men Dr. Morrison assumes the free and easy manner of good-fellowship with his hearers and in this way makes a thorough impression. His address was well received, as was evidenced by the close attention given by the audience. The introductory part of the meeting consisted as usual of a musical programme given by Coulter's orchestra. Miss Ethel Shea also pleased the audience by rendering two solos. Her rich contraits voice was heard to fine effect and hearty applause was given her.

Dr. Chadwick Says She Has Been Greatly Wronged.

HE CABLES FROM EUROPE

Financial Troubles of the Cleveland Woman Have Nearly Caused Nervous Prostration-Creditors Are to Be Paid in Full.

NEW YORK, Dec. 4.-Dr. Leroy S. Chadwick, the husband of Cassie L. Chadwick. whose financial troubles have been undergoing the threshing-out process for the past week, has come out with a brief statement from Europe. Today he cabled to Philip Carpenter, Mrs. Chadwick's counsel, from some place abroad, the name of which Mr. Carpenter would not disclose, requesting that gentleman "to deny the published statements reflecting on Mrs. Chadwick's life and character, They are absolutely false," The cablegram reads:

"I wish it understood that I stand by Mrs. Chadwick in every particular in her present troubles. I feel that she has been greatly wronged by the publication, and I believe she is being persecuted by some of her creditors."

Dr Chadwick explained that he had dispatched his cablegram just as soon as he saw the report of his wife's troubles, Mr. Carpenter also made a statement today.

"Dr. Chadwick," he said, "Is abroad for his health, and the Newton suit was not brought until some three weeks after he

"Before going away Dr. Chadwick consulted me in regard to the Newton claim, and with him I met Mr. Newton and his Boston attorney. The matter was then arranged seemingly to the satisfaction of all concerned, and then the doctor sailed. All the members of the doctor's family are standing by Mrs. Chadwick loyally and are in entire sympathy with her.
"I know that Dr. Chadwick would be by his wife's side, looking out for her, if he were in this country."

All Claims Will Be Paid.

"There is no doubt that all the claims against Mrs. Chadwick will be paid if her smaller creditors will only exercise a lit-tic patience. Bankruptcy proceedings and attachment suits do their promoters no good whatever, and creditors resorting to these and other harassing methods will certainly not hasten the settlement of "Mrs. Chadwick has acted in the most honorable way in all her dealings that have come to my knowledge. One very good evidence of this is found in the unshaken confidence still reposed in her by her largest creditors and those who know

Mrs. Chadwick remained in her rooms in the Holland House all day. Dr. Moore, her physician, called in the morning and found Mrs. Chadwick in a highly nervous state. Her condition was such that Dr. Moore called a consultation, and they made a thorough examination. The medi-cal men found no organic trouble but said that the patient was almost prostrated from the exciting events of the past week. They will keep close watch on her during the next few days.

Carpenter Confers With Sick Woman In the afternoon Philip Carpenter was admitted to the sickroom and had a long conference with Mrs. Chadwick. He went over the various phases of the case with her, especially those points which have to do with the bankruptcy case in Cleveland. As a result of this conference, Mr. Car-penter decided to notify all small clients that their claims would be paid this week and he called up the attorney for millinery house which procured an attachment against the Cieveland woman and notified him of his intention. Mr. Carpenter attaches no importance to the writ served on Mrs. Chadwick yes-erday, as he declared in an interview today that wearing apparel is exempt from attachment. He says the fact that Deputy Sheriff Rinn, who served the papers neither took anything with him nor put a er in charge, demonstrated in his ion the deputy's inability to find anything attachable. imultaneously with the announcement reigned by the Associated Press from eveland that President Beckwith, of the suspended Citizens' National Bank of Oberlin, was to be placed under arrest, an official of the United States Secret Service appeared at the Holland and took up his station there. Young Chadwick Has Disappeared. Emil, the young son of Mrs. Chadwick, who has been staying near his mother for several days, was the subject of some in-quiry today. It was said that he had left the hotel. This could not be verified. It was rumored that the boy had left town with the jewels alleged to belong to his mother, and that she would follow him tonight or tomorrow. This was denied by Mr. Carpenter, who said that his client ould remain in New York at least

Much interest attaches to the cablegram sent by Dr. Chadwick from Europe today. Dr. Chadwick sailed from New York November 3, arriving at Havre, France, at 7 o'clock on November 10. He was accom-panied by his 20-year-old daughter. They went to Europe for the doctor's health and for the completion of Miss Chadwick's education. They are said to have gone from Havre November 10 to Paris, where they put up in a quiet place, always pat-ronized by the physician when in the French capital. While Dr. and Miss Chadwick cannot be definitely located at the present time, it is believed they are very ear Paris, and that the Doctor, his French agents, is kept fully informed leave the country until her financial diffi-culties have been adjusted, but after that it is expected she will join her husbane and stepdaughter and take a long rest at some point along the Mediterranean. George Ryall, attorney for Herbert D. Newton, said late tonight that there had been no developments in the Chadwick case since yesterday. The attachment proceedings and the bankruptcy proceedings are not bothering us any," he said. "There is no question but that all these people will get their money. No definite time has been fixed for the payment of Mr. Newton's claim, but we are not in the least disturbed. We ughly satisfied with the situation

BANK OFFICIALS ARE ARRESTED Outcome of the Chadwick Case In

Cleveland. CLEVELAND, Dec. 4-As the result of the extended conference between the United States District Attorney, the bank examiners who have been looking into the affairs of the falled Citizens Bank of Oberlin and their counsel, which lasted until late last night and all of today, President Beckwith and Cashier Spear, of that bank, were placed under arrest late tought by United States, Marshal late tonight by United States Marshal Chandler, of Cleveland, at their homes at Oberlin. Marshal Chandler personally took charge of the warrants and several deputies accompanied him

The arrests of Beckwith and Spear are the first that have been made in the Chadwick case. The Citizens National Bank, with which they are connected, is creditor to the extent of $260,000 of Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick. The bank is capitalized at but $90,000. Since the disclosure of the bank's dealings with Mrs Chadwick, the president, cashier and di-rectors have held conferences and meetings frequently. All the time there has been expressed by President Beckwith at east a hope of a reimbursement of the bank's loan to Mrs. Chadwick, but so far as known no remittance has been received President Beckwith has been in a state bordering on physical collapse for nearly a week, and for the past three or four days has been confined to his bed. He has expressed the utmost regret over the outcome of the bank's dealings with Mrs. Chadwick and given no intimation as to why such great sums of money has been lent from the bank to Mrs. Chadwick. lent from the bank to Mrs. Chadwick. The warrants on which Beckwith and Spear were arrested charge them with violation of the Federal banking laws. Nathan Loeser, receiver for Mrs. Chad-wick's property, said tonight that he would qualify in that office tomorrow and would then file his bond for $10,000. Loeser said also that he would try to have a chattel mortgage held by the Elyria bank set aside on the ground that it is a preference and that all creditors should share Proud Queen Mother Makes Rounds of Room With Infant Son That All May See Italy's Puture King.

ROME, Dec. 4. The Infaitt Crown Prince of Italy was baptized at the Quirinal today. The weather was showery, but this did not prevent a great crowd from gathering at the palace to witness the passage of the carriages with their distinguished occupants. The ballroom of the Quitinal, which had been transformed into a chapel, was beautifully decorated. The altar stodd golden candiesticks and a crucifix in the Above the altar was a picture, which had been taken from the Quirinal Chapel, representing the nativity of the Madonna and child. Above this was a balcony for the court quintet. On either side of the steps leading to the altar were three pyramids of exquisite white flowers, joined together by garlands of the same blos-The space between the windows was banked with flowers, making a per-feet bower. Before the altar were rows of gilded chairs.

On the left of the altar was a box for the Princesses Yolande and Mufalda, and for other children of the court. Under this, in red brocade with palms, was another box for diplomats whose countries had sent royal representatives, such as Great Britain, Germany, Portugal and Servia. The diplomats from other countries were not invited. Opposite this box and on the other side of the altar was a box for wearers of the collar of the Annunziata, who rank as cousins of the

When all the guests had assembled, six canons and the court chaplain, Monsignor Beccaria, entered processionally, taking their places at the altar. Immediately after the appearance of the clergy, the doors of the private apartments of the palace were opened to allow the royal cortege, headed by the master of ceremonies and the prefect of the palace, to pass. Countess Bruschi Falgari, lady-in-waiting, carried the Crown Prince in on an exquisite lace embroidered robe, and lying on a lace pillow.

The speciacle was magnificent in the extreme. All the ladies present, including those of the royal party, were dressed in white, with creamy lace veils on their heads, their persons glittering with jewels, the uniforms of the diplomatic and military representatives giving an added tone of color. The effect was heightened by the exquisite music of a
