

SEVENTH ANNUAL EXHIBIT OF THE HOUSE OF EILERS

November Twenty-eight to December Eight

Cultured and musical people of Portland and the Northwest are honoring its musical center at this time. These annual functions of ours are epoch-making events. In each one the public witnesses a notable advance in piano-making and piano-merchandising. Visitors this season are finding a store unrivaled in its immense assortment of pianos of the most famous makes and matchless tone quality. The display is an expression of the taste requirements of our patrons. Their universal approval is spontaneous and enthusiastic. It is an art exhibit that in style and variety distances the most ambitious efforts of the greatest metropolitan stores. It is a demonstration of the wonderful purchasing power of the Eilers Piano House. Another feature, and one no less important, is the absence of the prohibitory prices that usually prevail in such high-class instruments. We realize the vital importance of correct buying and correct selling. A practical expression of this will be found in the moderate prices at which every one of these pianos is offered. The public is cordially invited to a thorough inspection.

to revive her. The first impression of those interested in the case was that she had attempted to commit suicide by taking poison, but this was found to be untrue.

The woman was finally removed to Good Samaritan Hospital, where she became stronger, but she was still mentally deranged at an early hour this morning. It is thought she will recover.

The woman disappeared Monday night from a North End lodging-house, and efforts to locate her proved vain. She had been worrying over the fact that she must soon undergo a serious operation, the second one within a few weeks.

TOUR OF FREIGHT AGENTS.

The party of Eastern general freight agents of the Northern Pacific which is now on its way West for a visit through the Pacific Coast territory, will reach Portland on Friday night or Saturday morning.

The excursion was put under the chaperonage of S. G. Fulton, assistant general freight agent, as soon as it reached the territory of that official, and he left several days ago to join the train in Eastern Washington. While in Portland the party will be shown all of the manufacturing plants, will be taken over the harbor and shown the wharves and taken for a visit to the Lewis and Clark grounds. An informal luncheon will be given the party at the Commercial Club and an opportunity given as many of them as possible to meet with the leading business men of the city.

The exact date of the arrival here is not known on account of the arrangements that are being made for the entertainment of the excursionists in Washington. In all probability Friday will be spent in visiting Gray's Harbor, and if this is done the train will not reach Portland until Saturday morning.

Last Sunday was spent at North Yakima; Monday and Tuesday were given to Seattle, and today the visitors will be the guests of Bellingham. Tomorrow will be spent at Tacoma, where the general offices and shops of the Northern Pacific will be visited.

E. H. Forester, general agent of the freight department at San Francisco, will reach Portland this evening and will go on to join the party at Tacoma. A. D. Charlton, assistant general passenger agent, will also accompany the visitors on their trip to Portland, he having left last night for Seattle to join the party.

LONG DEVOTIONS ENDED.

Another Catholic Feast Soon to Be Observed.

The feast of the immaculate conception, which will be celebrated tomorrow in the Catholic churches of the world, has a two-fold significance this year, in that it is not only the annual feast of the blessed virgin, but the 50th anniversary of the date on which Pope Pius IX defined the dogma of the immaculate conception. Masses will be held on Sunday, with the exception that His Reverence Archbishop Christie will pontificate at the solemn high mass at 10:30 A. M.

The 40 hours' devotion, which ended yesterday, was observed by masses and instruction.

tion Scientists entertain definite ideas in regard to the origin and treatment of disease, and while these ideas may seem unusual and even irrational to some persons it is believed by Christian Scientists to be due to a misunderstanding of their doctrine. In order that popular misconceptions in regard to the healing of this religion, as well as prejudice on theological grounds, may be removed by a clear statement of the truth about it, the First Church of Christ, Scientist, has provided a board of lecturership of which Mr. Young is a member, to present Christian Science publicly as it is. This lecture, therefore, is for the benefit of the inquiring public rather than for Christian Scientists.

The lecture will be given at the Marquam Theater next Sunday afternoon. The doors of the theater will be open at 2 o'clock and the lecture will begin promptly at 3, after which time the doors will be closed. In order that those who especially desire may reserve their seats and avoid the possibility of being disappointed by reason of the usual large attendance, arrangements have been made to provide reserve tickets, which will retain seats until 15 minutes before the beginning of the lecture and these may be obtained without charge at the box office of the Marquam any time on Saturday.

HEARS "THE CURFEW BELL"

Audience Gathers at Cantata at First Christian Church.

The cantata "The Curfew Bell," sung at the First Christian Church last night and conducted by Miss Katherine Linehan, was one of the most successful church entertainments of the season. The leads were taken by Miss L. Linehan, soprano; Miss Luger, contralto; Lauren Pease, tenor; and J. Adrian Epping, baritone, accompanied by a fine chorus of 40 voices. Mrs. G. Everett Baker and Mr. Houghton were the accompanists. Previous to the singing of the cantata Miss Lena Parker gave a reading of Rose Hawthorne's well-known poem of the same name. In addition to this number there were solos by Mr. Pease, Miss Luger, Miss Ethel Barksdale, Miss Linehan and Mr. Epping, with Miss Leonora Fisher as accompanist. All the musicians were in excellent voice, and the programme was much enjoyed.

A banquet opened at the church last evening in addition to the Christmas entertainment, and the large crowd of people who gathered at the entertainment first dropped into the church parlors afterward to patronize the many pretty booths and take refreshments. The fancy work booth was presided over by Mrs. A. M. Shaw, Mrs. G. C. Meier and Mrs. A. Mrs. D. H. Smith, Mrs. C. H. Pomroy, Mrs. S. J. Hoopengardner and Mrs. C. H. Watkins.

The bazzar, like the cantata, was a marked success, and a considerable sum was raised for the benefit of the church.

Those unhappy persons who suffer from nervousness and dyspepsia should use Carter's Little Nerve Pills, made expressly for this class.

GET CLOSER TO HEAVEN

FORMER DOWNTOWN RESIDENTS MOVE TO HILLSIDES.

Many Expensive Dwellings, Commanding Beautiful View, Are Erected Along New Car-Line.

The greatest building activity that has ever occurred on Portland Heights began shortly after the new car-line via King's Heights was built, and now a dozen houses are nearing completion and many more are being planned. These are all expensive, some of the more expensive having gardens and terraces surrounding them.

The building area is below the end of Twentieth street. At that point, just below C. F. Beebe's residence, M. C. Banfield is finishing a $30,000 house. Across the street A. D. Charlton has picked the most projecting point, overhanging the old power-house, to erect a home of similar magnificence. On the backbone of the hill, hanging over the Canon Road on the other side, Adolph Dekum is now laying the foundation for a house.

Facing the home of Walter Smith, who was one of the first to make the city famous for its roses, is now being finished the future home of James D. Hart. On the half block adjoining his father's home, Fred Page is building a large, roomy house. These two residences and that of Isadore Lang, across Twentieth street form an imposing row.

E. L. Hart and J. C. Luckel have recently moved into new homes two blocks further up. Rev. Bruce Wolverson has also completed a house on Laurel street.

Robert W. Lewis recently bought an irregular tract of about two acres on the more elevated portion of the heights, close to the highest point of the car-line and north of the grounds of J. C. Ainsworth. The price paid for the lots was $8000. Mr. Lewis will build an expensive house on the property in the Spring.

One hundred yards further north, W. B. Streeter is now building a big house, with wide verandas. It is on one of the highest points near by and has a view over the whole country.

MILWAUKIE'S NEW COUNCIL.

O. J. Roberts Is the Only Hold-Over Member.

With the exception of O. J. Roberts, Milwaukee now has an entirely new Council. Mr. Roberts is employed in the shops of the electric railway company in Milwaukee. He is regarded as a man of sound judgment, and while he has been in the Council he has been outspoken in his opinions on all questions. Phillip Streib, who recently moved to Milwaukee, was formerly a Portland business man. He is also a member of the board of directors of Milwaukee District. Mr. Streib is anxious that Milwaukee should build up Arthur Webster carried the largest vote for Councilman of any of the candidates. George M. Hively, the fourth member, is also well known and popular. Recorder Jesse Keck is an old railway man, and was employed on the Oregon

Water Power & Railway Company's cars until he met with an accident. Since his recovery he has kept the waiting station at Milwaukee. Treasurer Lechler lives in Milwaukee, but is a Portland business man. Arthur Dowling, Marshal, is an old resident.

One of the improvements that will be undertaken will be to open another street parallel with Main, for which there has been some agitation. Some few changes in the charter, relative to the collection of poll and road tax, will be attempted in the Legislature.

THOMAS M. HURLBURT RETURNS

Inspector of Government Surveys Finishes Fieldwork in Nevada.

Thomas M. Hurlburt, Government Inspector of Surveys in the Western division, is home on the East side to remain until the middle of February.

Mr. Hurlburt has been in the Nevada field most of the time since he left Portland last Summer. He has about a year's field notes to write, which will keep him busy for about two months.

While in Nevada Mr. Hurlburt heard a great deal about the Lewis and Clark Fair. "The Impression in Nevada is that the Fair will be a great success," said Mr. Hurlburt, "and that it will almost equal the St. Louis Fair."

Mr. Hurlburt is among the few who recovered from a serious attack of spotted fever, contracted while in Idaho last Summer from the bite of wood-tick. As soon as he knew he had the fever he started for Portland, where he recovered, thanks to the climate.

When he returned to Idaho his acquaintances there were surprised to see him alive and well.

Valuable Art Treasure Secured.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—A full-length portrait of Baron Arnold Leroy, executed by the great painter, Anton Van Dyck, has been presented by George A. Hearn to the Metropolitan Museum, of this city. It is valued at $15,000, and regarded as one of the most important and interesting examples of the great Dutch painter. The canvas was imported about 25 years ago. It was probably painted about 1820, and belonged to the artist's so-called Genoese Noted Divorce Suit Ended.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—The Constantini divorce suit, which has been before the court from time to time for more than a year, has ended, says a Herald dispatch from London, in an order by Sir Francis Jeune against the wife to make her husband a handsome allowance, to be increased on the death of her mother.

When Mr. Constantini obtained a divorce from his wife, Julia, daughter of the late Stephen Hall, a millionaire Greek merchant, he was awarded the record damages of $125,000. The case was also remarkable as being the only instance where the husband, who is himself admitted misconduct, had obtained a divorce.

American Trotting Association Meets.

CHICAGO, Dec. 6.—The eighth biennial congress of the American Trotting Association began here today. Leading breeders of trotting horses and patrons of harness racing from all parts of the country were present. Considerable interest centered in the election of President W. R. James, of Terre Haute, Ind. He received the support of the Western delegates. His election, however, was opposed by the Eastern men, who decided to present the name of an Eastern man for the position. The board of appeals will be in session for a week, as there are 150 cases on the docket. A decision is expected in the case of Cracoeus, whose record of 1:58, made two years ago on the Wichita (Kan.) track, has been questioned.

No woman's happiness can be complete without children; it is her nature to love and want them as much as you as it is to love the beautiful and pure.

The critical ordeal through which the expectant mother must pass, however, is so fraught with dread, pain, suffering and danger, that the very thought of it fills her with apprehension and horror. There is no necessity for the reproduction of life to be either painful or dangerous. The use of Mother's Friend so prepares the system for the coming event that it is safely passed without any danger. This great and wonderful remedy is always applied externally, and has carried thousands of women through the trying crisis without suffering.
