RUNAWAY BOY ROSS REINTEGRATED. About two weeks ago Mr. Henry Craig of Macleay, Or., took compassion on a boy aged 12 years, who told a pitiful story about having been badly treated at home, and gave him a home. In return for his kindness the boy, after stealing about $5 in money and a rifle from his benefactor, left for parts unknown. He is a large boy for his age, with a German face, dark curly hair, brown hair clipped short, had on a dark suit of clothes. His name is George Kottzsch, and his home is Lewisville, Wash. The Boys' and Girls' Aid Society is seeking information that will lead to his capture.

INCORPORATION PAPERS READY. At the meeting of Milwaukee Grange, Patrons of Husbandry, last evening, it was reported that the incorporation papers of that Grange are ready to be filed. This is preliminary to the erection of a new hall, for which ground has been donated by T. B. A. Sellswood. A week from next Saturday election of officers will take place.

TALK ON CHILD LITERATURE. Miss Hassler will address the Home Training Association tomorrow afternoon at the regular weekly meeting in the reading-rooms of the Young Women's Christian Association. This will be her second talk to the association, and she will take up the subject of literature for children of 10 years and older.

FUNERAL OF MRS. GILBERT. Three Thousand Persons Attend Obedience of Noted Actress. NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—Three thousand persons, including many of the best known members of the theatrical profession, attended the funeral of Mrs. George Henry Gilbert, the actress, in the Bloomingdale Reformed Church today.

IMPRESSIVE SERVICES AT ST. FRANCIS. High mass was sung yesterday morning in St. Francis' Church, Broadway street, it being the opening of the 40-hour adoration service. Following the mass was the procession of the blessed sacrament, and the children singing the mass. It was a beautiful and impressive service, and many were present.

SEAMEN'S CONCERT TONIGHT. A most interesting concert will be given tonight at the Seamen's Institute, under the direction of Mrs. G. F. Livesley. The program will include readings by Miss Mort, vocal solos by Mrs. F. St. Martin, Miss Edie Gentry, Miss Fenemora, Miss Lily Bunfield, Miss Lillian Crossman, Miss Anita Morse and W. G. Hodden, vocal duet by Misses Vita Reed and Dot Bernard, violin solo by Miss Cornelia Barker, and selections by the Downey Mandolin Band; Miss Carlisle, accompanist.
