AMERICAN MAGNATES ACT

Clause Raising Price of Drafted Players From $750 to $1500 and Lim-Iting Number to One Turned Down-Vote on Foul Tie.

CHICAGO, Dec. 8.—If the action taken at the closing session of the American Baseball League meeting here tonight meets with the approval of the National Basebull Commission, the powers of the minor leagues will be curtailed to a great extent. The clause in the National agreement which bene-fits minor leagues by raising the price of drafted players from these organ imations from $750 to $1500, and limiting of the number of the players to be drafted from one club to one man, was turned down by the magnates, and President Johnson was authorized to nection with the National League's report and Chairman Hermann, of the National Commission, to frame a National agreement climinating this

President Johnson will leave for Cin-cinnati tomorrow, where he will meet with Chairman Herman and go over the matter in detail. What disposition was made of the Washington Club is not known, as all the magnates declined to discuss the STANFORD MEN ON DIAMOND. Portland Will Be Well Represented in Next Year's Team.

ETANFORD UNIVERSITY, Dec. 8 .-(Special.)—Fall baseball practice has begun. A large squad turned out, and prospects are bright for the develop-ment of a good team next Spring. Portland should be well represented on the varsity if those who are now out make good. The team will be captained by good. The team will be captained by 'Al Trowbridge, the crackerjack short-stop of last year. Al received his early baseball training on Portland High | Coach Steckle is Allowed to Play, and School fines, and upon coming here im-mediately qualified, first in the outfield and later at shortstop.

"Bull" Chalmers will probably hold down his old position at left field, which he filled so well last year. "Stump" Stott is the best candidate now trying for catcher, and he should make the position easily. Ed Stillman, another Portland Academy boy, will also try for this position.

The man from whom baseball enthusiasts expect most, however, is little "Kenny" Fenton, the athletic freshman from Portland Academy, Fenton proved his mettie in football, and he is expected to do great things in baseball next Spring. Coming as he does from the Multnomah Club team with a reputation as a crack hitter and fielder everybody expects to see him make good. He is trying for second base.

Six-Furiong Event at Oakland. SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 8.-Favorites did not fare well at Oakland today, only two getting home in front. Ketchum of Charge of Fraud.

CHICAGO, Dec. &-George W. Ketchum of Toledo was found not guilty of establishing a fraudulent record for his trot-ting stallion Cresceus at the Wichita, Kan, track on October 19, 1960, after a hearing of the case before the board of appeals of the American Trotting Association here tonight. The board declared that the evidence fell short of sufficiency in establishing criminal participation in the claimed fraudulent agreement for an illegitimate record, so far as Mr. Ketchum was concerned. While freeing Mr. Ketchum from the charge, the board found the officials of the Southern Kan-sas Fair Association, on whose track the race was run, guilty of connivance to establish a fraudulent record, and ex-pelled from the American Trotting Association President C. H. Irwin and all the other officials connected with the Wichita track at that time. The expulsion of these officials also means that the world's record for trotting stallions of 1:55%, claimed

CORVALLIS GAME SCHEDULED.

Contract Will Be Signed. "Off agin, on agin," summarizes yes-terday's negotiations in the Corvalits-Multnomah Christmas game. In the morn-ing it looked as if all chances for such a game were off, but late in the afternoon satisfactory arrangements were made and on receipt of a confirmatory telegram Manager Watkins sent the contract to Corvallis for signature. This assures a great game for the foot ball-loving public. A concession made to Manager Stimson was that Coach Steckle should be allowed to play, and he will occupy a tackle position. Since Captain Pilkington, Bundy and Root, who were out of the Corvallis-Eugene game, will be in the line-up against Multnomah, it can easily be believed that the club boys will go into the hardest game of the season on Christmas Day.

Compelled to Appear in Land Case.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Wash ington, Dec. 8 .- Senator Mitchell has received no intimation that his presence is desired in Portland as a witness in the i nd-fraud cases. The only information he has is conveyed in the dispatch received tonight asking whether he will go to Portland in response to a subpena. "I have not received any subpena, and have no knowledge that one has been issued," said Senator Mitchell, "I cannot say what I shall do if such subpena is received. Everything depends on circumstances. If I am wanted at a time when I can leave without detriment to the state's interests here I may go to Portland, but I can say nothing definite until I have that

Representative Hermann refused to make any statement as to his course in regard to being subpensed. He will not make any reply to questions asked of him. It is understood here that the court can-not compel either Senator Mitchell or Representative Hermann to appear in Portland in response to subpenas, as both are exempt; first, because they are in attendance upon session of their respective houses, and, secondly, because they are outside the state in which the cases are being tried. It is therefore optional with them whether they shall offer their testimony at this time

LAWYER LOSES FEE

Jury Decides Case Against Walter G. Hayes.

REPRESENTED BOTH SIDES

Appeared Both for Oryal Ross and Mrs. Ross in Divorce Sult and Sued Husband for Forty Dollars.

In a suit for the collection of $40, alleged to be due him for professional services, Attorney Walter G. Hayes yesterday loet his fee, the jury bringing in a verdict in favor of the defendant, Orval Ross.

It was a spicy case and occupied two hours of the court's and the jury's valuable time. During the progress of the trial hot and flery darts were hurled at Attorney Hayes by Attorney Charles Schnabel, for the defense, and against Schnabel by Attorney H. H. Riddell, representing Hayes.

A rather peculiar state of facts came to light during the trial, showing that Attorney Hayes acted both for Orval Ross and Mrs. Ross in a suit for divorce, filed at Oregon City, six months ago.

"I do not know, gentlemen, what you think about an attorney accepting a fee from both sides of a case, but I can state emphatically that such a course is below my standard," said Attorney Schnabel to the jury during his argument, and he looked sharply at Hayes. "Of course, there may be times when a man, by peculiar circumstances, might bring him-self to see such a thing in another light. But, in addition to collecting a fee from both parties, Hayes did not present his bill properly, but sent duns to Mrs. Ross, who was in Scattle, addressing them in en-velopes from the District Attorney's office and using the office stationery so as to scare her into the bellef that she must pay. He did the same thing to the man."

Schnabel also found fault because the omplaints had been amended three times, and when Attorney Riddell made his argument he told the jury that four out of every five of Schnabel's complaints had to be amended.

'Not unless I'm afraid of my case," Schnahel spoke up.
Waldemar Seton, Justice of the Peace for East Portland, was placed on the stand and asked what he thought of an attorney collecting fees from both parties in a divorce case.

"If I could do that I would think I was very fortunate," said the Justice, ROCKPILE CAUSES TROUBLE. Chief Hunt Only Supplies Three Prisoners for the Work.

'Why only three prisoners were supplied by Chief Hunt for the new rockpile gang yesterday morning will be one of the questions asked at the meeting of the Executive Board this after-noon. Balfour, Guthrie & Co. appear as 11clants in a suit filed in the United States Court yesterday against the Portland & Asiatic Steamship Company. The complaint alleges that in July, 1904. the steamship company agreed with the libelants to carry 2009 tons of flour to Oriental ports on the steamship Nice media, sailing on or about August 23. When offered 1800 tons of flour under this agreement, the respondent, it is alleged, refused to receive same. In order to get the flour to Japan before October 1, when the increase of Japanese customs duties took effect, it was necessary for the li-belants to ship the flour by rail from Portland to Puget Sound ports for ship-ment to Japan. Claiming a loss of this rail freight by reason of the falure of the respondents to carry out their agreement, the libelants ask for a judgment amounting to $1800.

Governor Chamberlain and Mayor Williams Gladden Hearts of Authors of Articles on Oregon.

An auspicious event was the reception tendered last evening at the Commercial Club to the winners of the prizes for articles on the subject of Oregon, published in different periodicals of the country. Music and bright speech mingled, and the reception throughout was one of the happy events of the season.

The presentation of the gold medals and cash awards was made by Governor Chamberlain and Mayor Williams, who made brief presentation speeches in each instance. Of these winners there were ten, five in the contest limited to Portland and five in the state contest. The winners in the state contest are: First prize, Colonel E. Hofer, of Salem; second, Siras H. Walker, of Albany: third, Mrs. Harriet Winthorne, of Woodeville; fourth, Fred Lockley, of Pendleton; fifth, Paul R. Lyster, of Gardiner City. Governor Cham-berlain paid each of the winners a nest compliment for the service they had done the commonwealth with their pens.
