

IN CELL AT TOMBS

Mrs. Chadwick Unable to Give $15,000 Bail.

NO PRIVILEGES AT PRISON

Warden Denies Request That Maid Be Allowed to Remain With Her, and Will Keep the Woman Entirely Isolated.

NEW YORK, Dec. 8.—Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick is tonight occupying one of the sparsely-furnished cells in the Tombs. After a fruitless search all day for bail, her attorneys gave up the fight tonight.

Mrs. Chadwick was when, tried and almost fainting. She was made her way across the hall to the elevator leading heavily on the Marshall's arm and that of her son, Emil. Behind them came her nurse, Freda Swanson, and Deputy Marshal Kennedy.

Mrs. Chadwick gave a hand-bag and a few trinkets to the nurse, and whispered some instructions to her son. She was then taken to the matron's room. She asked to say good night to her son, and the matron refused to let her see him.

Held in $15,000 Bail.

In the interval she had been arraigned before United States Commissioner Shields and held in $15,000 bail, which she was unable to furnish.

Efforts to get bail will continue tomorrow, although Mrs. Chadwick expressed the desire tonight to go to Cleveland as soon as possible.

Mrs. Chadwick died at 7 o'clock in the Marshall Henkel's office under conditions in strange contrast to the manner in which she lived in New York hotels.

Will Be Entirely Alone.

Mrs. Chadwick will be placed in a cell on the first floor of the prison, which will be entirely alone on the tier, which is set apart from the other women prisoners.

Faints Before Cameras.

Sudden Flash of Powder From Many Machines Startles Mrs. Chadwick.

NEW YORK, Dec. 8.—As Mrs. Chadwick came into the corridor to return to the United States Marshal's office after her arraignment, the battery of cameras which had been set up outside the courtroom door was turned upon her.
