Mrs. Chadwick Unable to Secure Bail.

DISACREES WITH LAWYER

She Desires to Waive Examination and Go to Ohio.

HOPES TO FIND FRIENDS THERE

Cleveland Adviser Wires She Had Better Not Return Just Yet, and She Gives In, but Hopes to Leave Today.

NEW YORK, Dec. 9 .- After a day of disagreements with her counsel as to whether she should waive examination and go to Cleveland, Mrs. Chadwick finally consented to remain another night in the Tombs, but expressed the hope she might leave tomorrow.

Mrs. Chadwick had made up her mind to ignore the advice of her local counsel and go to Cleveland, when late in the afton she received a telegram from her Cleveland counsel, Judge Albaugh, asking her not to return to Cleveland just yet. This telegram caused her to remain over

Mrs. Chadwick spent the greater part of the time from 7 o'clock in the morning until 4 this afternoon in the corridor in front of her cell. She talked to those who called to see her. Mrs. Chadwick was led to her cell by an attendant about 4 e'clock. To the matron she said;

"I am glad I am not going to Cleveland tenight. I am tired enough to sleep well, I think, even behind these awful bars. It has been an extremely trying day, and I am thankful it is over. I do not care to go through any more such ordeals." In her cell Mrs. Chadwick ate a hearty supper. She had chipped beef, sprinkled with grated onions, coffee and oranges. The matron said Mrs. Chadwick showed a marked improvement over her condition in the morning. After eating, Mrs. Chadwick lay on her cot, and said it was the first peaceful moment she had bad since her troubles in New York began.

Expects Friends to Help Her. Mrs. Chadwick desires to end her diffi-

tion and going direct to Cleveland to face the proceedings against her. There she expects to meet friends who will help her. These facts were brought out today by a telegram which Mrs. Chadwick sent to her son, Emil, at the Hotel Breslin, in which she told him to come and see her at once. The boy and in a safe deposit vault in Jersey City un-Freds, the nurse, hurried to Marshal til yesterday, when it was taken out and brought to this city by Ira Reynolds.

ball, he said: "The situation is exactly the same as last night. Men are willing to give bail, but, as in the Patterson case, they fear the notoriety."

Mrs. Chadwick's imprisonment in the Tombs has not tended toward her recovery from her pervous attacks of yester. day. This morning she was in a highly pervous state. She was very nervous during the night, and was wide awake until nearly (A. Mrs. York Says Mrs. Chadwick Was Not Peculiar as a Girl.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 8 .- Mrs. Allos M. York, of this city, has reiterated ber statement that she is the sister of Mrs. Cassle L. Chadwick, despite the latter's repudiation of relationship. She said: "My sister Ellzabeth Bigley, now Mrs.

Chndwick, was born near London, Capada, about 42 years ago. Her girlhood days were spent at Eastwood and Woodstock, which was the home of our family. She was not a great reader, and, as for having read books on mesmerism and the like, it is all nonsense. "When I was married and went to live

There was nothing peculiar about her as a girl, save that she was a deep thinker. She always seemed absorbed in thought, and would sit in silence by the hour. She seemed to be in a trance, and never would pay any attention to any one. She would come out of these thinking spells as if bewildered. She would never discuss her strange actions nor the many scrapes into which she got.

"She never, by word or act, indicated that she was powersed of any hypnotic power. At the time in Toledo when she was convicted of forgery under the name of Madame Devere, it is said that she hypnotized a man ranged scenario for the hypnotized as the said that she hypnotized a man named Joseph Lamb, an express agent, who was arrested with her. The papers were full of it at the time and all the talk was hypnotism. The hypnotism talk, I repeat, was nonsense. DAY PRINTER, NIGHT THIEF. Chicago Man Admits He is Charitable Highwayman Police Want.

CHICAGO, Dec. 3.-Acting by day as superintendent in the printing department of a local manufacturing company, and at night the part of charitable highwayman, said to have been the career of Edward. Clark, now under arrest. According to his confession he has played the varied role for a year and has been implicated in several hold-ups which have puzzled the police.

Incidentally, Clark declared that traveled all over the world, and that on one occasion while making a trip to China he struck down and killed three of a crowd of sailors who had mutinied. Her-bert Boyer, also a printer, was taken into custody as an accomplice.

In all the robberies Clark is said to have been a charitable thief, returning part of the stolen property to the victim. In one instance he ordered Boyer at the muzzle of a revolver to return a gold watch which they had stolen from a woman. In another case, he says, he and his companion were robbed by a bartender after they had robbed him. Clark's home is handsomely furnished and he has borne a good reputation.

ILLINOIS MINE ON FIRE. One Hundred Men Are Working When Blaze Starts, but All Escape.

PEORIA, Ill., Dec. 3.—The School mine at South Bartonville, one mile south of this city, was discovered to be on fire in the main entry at the foot of the shaft this morning. There were 100 men at work at the time, and for a while there was great excitement. The men, however, were taken to a second shaft, a half mile distant, and all made their escape, though some of them were overcome by smoke and gas. The fire in the mine is still burning, and the property loss will be heavy. The fire is supposed to have been started by the lamp of a trapper. Eight mules were suffocated.
