Prominent Men Will Address State Convention at Salem.

LEGISLATORS ARE INVITED

Opportunity Will Be Given to Discuss Informally Subjects Concerning Which Laws Are Needed in Oregon.

SALEM, Or., Dec. 9.—(Special.)—"Educated Roadbuilders" will be the general topic of the principal addresses to be delivered at the Oregon Good Roads Convention to be held in this city next week.

Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, December 13 to 15, are the days upon which the convention will be held. The sessions will be held in the City Hall, where the large crowd that is expected to be present.

Many County Judges and Commissioners and Road Supervisors will also be present because the convention is of particular interest to them. County Judge Scott of Marion County, has addressed a circular letter to the Road Supervisors of this county urging all of them to be present.

PROBLEM FOR HOOD RIVER. Closing of Saloons Good a Great Source of Revenue.

HOOD RIVER, Or., Dec. 9.—(Special.)—The City of Hood River finds itself in some straits financially. With the closing of the saloons January 1, $120,000 must be returned as rebate on six months' license.

HOOD RIVER, Or., Dec. 9.—(Special.)—The city charter permits no tax levy of over 10 mills, and even this assessment on the property valuation would leave but little over $1000 after paying the license rebate.

MRS. MAYBRICK'S OWN STORY—FIFTEEN LOST YEARS.

FROM A NEW CONGRESSMAN TO HIS WIFE.

First of a series of letters by a newly-elected M. C., who tells how he diminished in importance the farther he got from home.

RUSSIA'S MAD WAT PARTY; ITS PERSONNEL. A well-informed St. Petersburg correspondent describes the strange part played by the British Queen's sister, mother of the Czar.

AMONG NEW HOLIDAY TOGS IN PORTLAND SHOPS. Wex Jones and a staff photographer made the rounds this week. What was seen in the way of novelties are set down in unconventional style.

HOW WHISKY WORKED RUIN OF AN INDIAN CHIEF. This is the story of Peo, once proud and powerful chief of the Umatillas, now a worthless vagabond.

TODAY'S OPPORTUNITIES FOR YOUNG WOMEN. Mrs. Ellen R. Miller speaks of teaching domestic science as a vocation for those who are educated and have the artistic temperament.

JOTTING OF OLD LIM JUCKLIN. Opie Read's philosopher makes some homely, truthful and helpful remarks on the subject of gambling.

HENRY JLEWS, VETERAN WALL-STREET BROKER, TALKS SHOP. In an interview with Frank Carpenter he tells how old stagers make fortunes without incurring risk of loss, and speaks of present chances for young men.

"THE SIMPLE LIFE," BY REV. CHARLES WAGNER. Two beautiful sermons are preached tomorrow: The Simple Pleasures and The Simple Needs—sermons publicly commended by President Roosevelt.

PECK'S BAD BOY ABROAD. The coming letter is from London, and Henny shows a part of that great city's seamy side.
