REGARDED AS PERSECUTION.

Mitchell's Friends See No Reason for Henny Wanting Him as Witness.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, Dec. 9.—The persistent efforts that are being made to compel Senator Mitchell to appear in Portland as a witness in the land-fraud cases are regarded by the Senator's friends as a bit of personal persecution intended to convey the impression that the Senator has knowledge of facts which he wishes to conceal. This impression is strengthened by the fact that Senator Mitchell's name has always been linked with the land cases, either by Special Assistant Attorney General Henny, or by Secretary Hitchcock, both of whom are very unfriendly toward him, but who apparently have no grounds upon which to attack him openly.

The main reason assigned for desiring Senator Mitchell's testimony is to bring out the identity of the Portland lawyer who introduced Puter to him.

There is good authority for the statement that this lawyer's identity is known both to District Attorney Hall and to Special Assistant Attorney General Henny. Yet, in spite of this fact, this lawyer was not summoned to testify in the recent case and, so far, has not been subpoenaed to appear in the case set for December 15.

The issuance of a subpoena for Senator Mitchell is regarded as another feature of the persecution. It is well known that the Senator, while attending a session of Congress, is not compelled to obey such a summons, nor indeed is a Representative in Congress. Moreover, the subpoena has no effect outside the State of Oregon. In view of the position Senator Mitchell has taken all along, Senator Mitchell's friends hold the issuance of this subpoena was altogether unjustifiable.

Just what testimony the Government wishes to obtain from Representative Hermann is not known. Mr. Hermann professes ignorance as to the entire matter. It is very apparent from statements which he made today that he will not return to Portland to testify. Mr. Hermann says his duties as a Congressman necessitate his presence in Washington, though he could without injury to the state's interests, go to Portland and testify in the next case, returning to Washington before Congress reconvenes after the holiday recess. He would be away only during the recess, when there is no particular demand for his presence in Washington. However, he is not disposed to yield to pressure.

Still Seeking Irrigation Site.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, Dec. 9.—Senator Mitchell was today advised by the reclamation service that investigations heretofore made have not resulted in locating favorable sites for an irrigation project on the Umatilla River. The project has not been abandoned, but will be further examined to locate, if possible, some feasible sites.

Cows Can Graze on Reserve.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, Dec. 9.—The Secretary of the Interior today granted permission for 500 cows to graze on the Ponchafo forest reserve in Idaho, but stipulates that only cows belonging to poor residents of the town shall enjoy this privilege.

Appointment for Idahoan.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, Dec. 9.—Ross W. Kingsbury, of Boise, was today appointed Second Lieutenant in the Marine Corps at the request of Senator Heyburn. He will be stationed at Annapolis for a year.

Charges of Much Padding at Election.

DENVER, Dec. 9.—The State Supreme Court today took up the content charges against Thomas Culp and M. L. Devaney, judges at the late election. Attorney Thomas Ward announced that the prosecution would prove that only 238 persons entered the booths, where they presided, to vote, while the returns showed that 417 ballots had been counted. Mr. Ward alleged also that it would be shown that the two judges interfered with the Republican watcher.

After hearing the testimony of the watchers and others in support of the charges the court ordered that the ballot box should be opened tomorrow and its contents submitted for examination to two experts in penmanship.

A warrant has been issued for James Riley, the third judge in this precinct, but he has not been found.

Two additional arrests were made today as Supreme Court warrants charging content. Clarence Dixon and Charles McAtter, election officials, were the persons taken into custody. The usual bond of $500 was furnished.

PRIZE BIRDS AT CORVALLIS.

Awards Made in a Number of Classes—Ladies Serve Tea.

CORVALLIS, Or., Dec. 9.—(Special).—Attendance at the poultry show on this the second day is large, and the comment on the character and excellence of the exhibits is general. ## MEET ON GRIDIRON TODAY

MULTNOMAH AND WILLAMETTE WILL COME TOGETHER.

Salem Team Is a Strong One, and Its Friends Expect a Scoreless Game.

"Down agin, up agin, gone agin. Long-again," is the yell prepared by the M. A. A. C.'s to strike terror into the hearts of the husky Willamettes today. But, from all indications, it will take the full action of the doughty halfback, in addition to the yell to conquer the boys from Salem. They came here with a good reputation, and it is even whispered in Salem that the score will in all probability be 0 to 0. This the Multnomahs think is a little presumptuous, yet they will take no chances on easy playing.

Chauncey Bishop, Willamette's coach, and who will play in the game today, arrived in town last night and spent the evening in telling of the prowess of his team. He also brought the news that over 300 people had purchased tickets for the excursion to be run from Salem for the game. This he thought, was an indication that Salem believed its men could do what Eugene could not, and they wanted to be in at the death.

The Multnomahs, in spite of a lack of practice, will go into the game in good shape and fully expect to win.

The line-up will be:

M. A. A. C. Position. Willamette.

Justus ..... L. E. R. Pollard

Row ..... L. G. R. Marker

Seely ..... R. G. L. James

Kirkley ..... R. T. L. Rader

Dowling ..... R. E. L. Patton

Johnson ..... R. Q. Beach

Longman ..... R. H. R. Long

The Canadians' backers say their favorites will win, and the other Britishers dispute this. It will be a warm contest.
