 Altar Society of St. Mary's Church, Albi-na, has elected the following officers:

President, Mrs. C. T. Smith; vice-president, Mrs. P. E. Sullivan; assistant vice-president, Mrs. J. W. Frost; financial secretary, Mrs. N. Brondel; recording secretary, Mrs. Joseph Noonan; treasurer, Mrs. Bock; board of directors, Mrs.
 Dunn, Mrs. F. W. Waecher, Mrs. Pendergart, Mrs. A. Marger, Mrs. Walsh and Mrs. C. J. Muehe. The next meeting of the society will be held on the 15th of the month, when reports for the year will be read.

"The Original Journals of the Lewis & Clark Expedition," edited by Reuben Gold Thwaites, volume 1 just received by the J. K. Gill Co., who are authorized to receive subscriptions. They are illustrated with original sketches of Indian implements, boats, trails, animals, fish, etc., also with numerous maps drawn by Clark's own hand. They contain much matter never before published. Regular edition, 7 volumes and atlas, $60; large paper edition, $150; edition de luxe, $25.

Mrs. MATHIECK'S OWN STORY.—The Sunday Oregonian tomorrow will publish a full-page synopsis of "Mrs. Mathieck's Own Story: My Fifteen Years' Experiences." Ever since her return to America, Mrs.
 Mathieck, in the seclusion of a New York mountain cottage and under the shelter of a sympathetic friend's roof, has been engaged in writing this book.
 To those who have been interested in this world-famous case, the article tomorrow must be of intense interest.

WILL GIVE A BANQUET.—At a meeting of the St. Johns Commercial Club, Thursday evening it was decided to give a banquet about January 1, and a committee composed of Messrs. Carlson, Chapel, Couch and Bickner, was appointed to make the arrangements. Also a meeting of citizens of St. Johns has been called for the evening of December 13 for the purpose of organizing a fire department.

PAINTSHOP NEXT.—Plans for the new paint and repair shop to be erected on the terminal ground in Lewis and Albi-na are practically completed. This building will be north of the transfer and machine shops, and will be 50 feet long. The old foundation built several years ago, will be used, only those walls which are in the foundation to make it conform to the plans.

WILL DISCUSS IMPROVEMENTS.—There will be an important meeting of the North Albina Improvement Club, Monday, December 12, at Patton's Church. Messages will be taken toward obtaining better water service and the prevention of a saloon located in the North Albina district.

thinking to follow the man and have him arrested. The young man carried out his intentions, followed the man to the depot, where the Seattle train was just ready to start, and saw him board it. No policeman was encountered, and the man escaped.

Breyman returned to the Central Police Station and related his story to Sergeant Hogue. He also notified Custom Collector Dunn.

SALOON MAN ARRESTED.
 Minor Found by Police in North-End Dive.

As a result of the finding of Nellie Smith, a minor, in the Favorite saloon dive, J. B. Moore, one of the proprietors, was arrested yesterday afternoon. He is charged with permitting a minor to be in his establishment. He was arrested upon complaint of Chief of Police Hunt, who was called before Municipal Judge Hogue and asked about the matter. He is in this the second case of this week where a minor has been found in North End dives, and Judge Hogue stated during court yesterday that he is getting very tired of such things. He announced that he would not tolerate minors being lured into such places and intimated that persons found guilty of aiding in the downfall of young girls will be severely dealt with.

EASY PAYMENTS
 On Saturday.

If you want them, $1 per week. The following prices don't look as though they were raised, do they? No, indeed. The fact is, you see we operate our own factory, make all these garments right here and we can strike a lower selling price than any one. Look at the specials for Saturday this week.

OLD LOCATION IS SELECTED.
 Mount Tabor Will Have a Fraternal Hall in the Spring.

At the meeting of the directors of the Woodmen of the World Hall Association of Mount Tabor yesterday, N. S. L. Normandin presiding, it was unanimously decided to erect the proposed fraternal hall on the old foundation of Oriental Hall, on West avenue. Oriental Hall was burned down three years ago. The ground secures a 50x100, but the new hall will be 40x70 and contain two stories, the lodg-room being on the second floor and the lower being reserved for other purposes.
 Work will not be started on the building until Spring. Capital stock of the
