Firemen Conquer Very Stubborn Blaze.

MANY PEOPLE NEAR DEATH

Flames Start in Clothing Store on First Street.

SPREADS TO LODGING-HOUSE

Firemen and Police Have Evidence That Conflagration Was Started by an Incendiary, and One Arrest Is Made.

The lives of a score of men, women and children, asleep in the New Era House, scond and Taylor streets, were imperiled at 11:30 last night by fire that originated at 11:30 last might by fire that originated in the rear of a clothing store run by A. Gross. So sudden was the burst of fame which shot up and out in all directions that it is regarded as most fortunate that no one was even injured. Firemen and policemen assisted the women and children from the burning struc-ture to places of safety below.

Fire Chief Campbell, policemen and citizens, who were quickly on the scene, de-clare that the fire is of very suspicious origin, and do not hesitate to state that they believe it to have been set by an incendiary. Today a searching investigation will be made. Sergeant of Police Slover, who was near when the fire broke out, say a man running or walking very hurriedly from the place and followed him to Third and Oak streets. He was muttering to himself all the way along and acted very sus-"It's nothing but smoke, nothing but smoke," he was mumbling. At Third and Oak he stopped to read a paper he carried and was placed under ar-

At the Central Station the stranger gave the name of J. E. Nellson. When searched he was found to possess a pair of brass knuckles. He was formerly connected with the Fire Department, and the police think these facts make a rather strong circumstance, in view of the fire. He was becked on a charge of drunkenness and locked up for the night. This morning he will be compelled to answer questions from Chief of Police Hunt and special

When the firemen arrived on the scene they saw flames shooting out from a window on the Taylor-street side of the store, to the rear. A chemical stream was ed on and the fire was quickly smoth-

Lodgers Have Narrow Escape.

Chief Campbell , glanced about and thought it was all over, but just as the firemen were uncoupling the hose from the themical lines, there was a strong blast and instantly the whole building was in flames. The fire this time leaped to the second story, enveloping the rooming-house. It was then that the lodgers had a hard struggle to keep from being burned, but hy quick work on the part of the police, led by Sergeant Hogeboom, Gross, proprietor of the ciothing store, but was unable to awaken any one at the house, it was suid, and he was not at the scene of the fire at all last He could not be located. Neither any of his clerks there. It was stated that the store was closed at about the usual hour-5 o'clock-last night. The loss at the store could not be learned, but it will be heavy, as much of the goods were destroyed. There has been a special sale in progress there for some time.

Restaurant Is Damaged. The Delmonico Restaurant, next door to the clothing store, run by F. Donovan, suffered by water, but he was unable to state the amount of damage. He carried some insurance, he stated.

Jerry Delury, operating a candy and cigar store next to the restaurant to the south, estimated his loss at $1000, fully covered by insurance.

A photograph gallery, operated by W. E. Townsend, on the second floor, was completely destroyed. The damage is esitmated at $800. He carried but a small amount of insurance.

Policeman Price chanced to be near when the fire broke out. He went above and awakened the sleepers. Directly above the store where the flames burst out slept Mr. and Mrs. W. Sittle and their two little children. In an adjoining room, right above the fire, was J. F. Steele. He had not yet gone to sleep. He stated that he smelled kerosene when the fiames started. The landlady, Mrs. Hanavan, and her children were also asleep. All of the lodgers gathered what they could carry and took it to safe places. There are 17 rooms in the house, and nearly all were filled, some being occupied by families.

After the fire was over, an insurance detective and several policemen and fire-men made a close search of the clothing store and discovered in the rear, right against the wall, a small box, which had evidently been filled with ashes. The ashes were still hot, after being drenched with water. It is believed by some of the offi-cers the fire started from that place. All agreed that oil helped to feed the flames,

TELEGRAPH POLES MUST GO Supreme Court Holds Railroad Can Exclude Line From Its Property.

WASHINGTON Dec. 12.-The Supreme Court of the United States today decided the case of the Western Union Telegraph Company vs. the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, involving the right of the railroad company to put the telegraph com-pany's poles from its right of way, in fa-vor of the railroad company. The opinion was handed down by Justice McKenna. The court held that the Congressional act of 1866, which controlled in the case, does not grant eminent domain to telegraph ompanies over the private property of rallroad companies.

The Supreme Court also decided another ase of the Western Union Telegraph Company vs. the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, involving the right of the telegraph company to condemn a part of the rallroad's right of way in Western Pennsylvania and appropriate it for its lines, in opposition to the telegraph company's

The case involving the right of the raitway company to remove the telegraph company's poles originated in New Jersey. Justice McKenna said the telegraph com-pany contends that the necessary implication from the provisions of the act of 1866 permitting telegraph companies to use post roads is that telegraph companies may appropriate for their poles and lines a part of the rights of way of railroads railroad right of way public property. To that extreme we cannot go. The right of way of a railroad is property devoted to ablic use, and has often been called a highway and as such is subject to a cer-tain extent to state and Federal control but it has already been recognized that a railroad right of way is so far private property as to be entitled to that provision of the Constitution which forbide its tak-ing, except under the power of eminent domain and upon payment of compensa-act of 1866 does not grant the right to telegraph companies to enter upon and occupy the rights of way of railroad companies, except with the consent of the lat-ter, or grant eminent domain. Nor does the statute of New Jersey make those rights of way public property so as to subject them to such occupation under the provisions of the act of 1866. It is admitted that the statutes of New Jer not confer the right of eminent domain

The contention of the telegraph company In the second case, as in the case involving the right of the railroad to remove the the telegraph company has the right to maintain its lines of telegraph over and along the lines of the railroad company upon making compensation to the railroad company for the use so appropriated, so ong as the maintenance of its telegraph lines does not materially interfere with the ordinary travel of such roads, and Up to the time of the second burst of that the right can be asserted by pro-

Loses His Reason.

Fully persuaded that he was in perfi. and that he was swimming for his life on the broad expanse of the Atlantic from the large hose conquered, and at 22.36 the fire was out.

"It looks very, very had, indeed," said Chief Campbell. "It will be fully investicable and furniture of his room last gan to build a intercoal out of the bed-ciothes and furniture of his room last night. But he made such a noise that the neighbors came to see what was the matter and sent for the police. Ser-geant Slover made an investigation, and took Aspaugh to the police station, where he was locked up until his demented con-dition can be inquired into.

Mrs. W. S. Harris, rooming at the Hotel Scott, lost her purse, containing $23, last night, about 8 o'clock. She had rested after walking upstairs and sat in a chair, but on going to her room imme-diately afterward remembered she had left her purse in the chair at the top of the stairway. On going to the place, how-ever, she found that the purse and contents were missing. Detective Weiner is

Pacific Coast League Meeting Will Raise Admissions.

STILL SIX CLUBS IN 1905

Spokane Wants Tacoma's Place, but It is Too Far From Portland and Seattle - Better Northern Schedule Next Year.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 12-(Special.)-President Bert will call a meeting of the Pacific Coast Baseball League at his office next Thursday, and none of the clubs will be without representatives. Henry Harris and Parke Wilson will watch San Fran-cisco's interests; Cai Ewing and Pete Lohman, Oakiand's; James Agnew and Lou Cohen, Seattle's; James Morley, Los An-geles'; Mike Fisher and Dave Evans, Tacoma's, and William McCreedie and Walter McCreedie, Porland's.

About the first thing that, will be con-sidered will be the formation of the league It is an open secret that Spokane is after Tacoma's place, and is ready to furnish substantial bonds that it will carry a team through a season. Spokane 200 miles nearer Seattle and Port-land it might have a chance of supplanting Tacoma. With a championship team, the latter place only lent ordinary support, but it may do better next year when the ew grounds are built. No change will be made from a six-club league this year. The schedule is not going to be quickly disposed of. There was one bad feature to this meason's schedule which will be remedied next year if it can be. Tacoma and Seattle played together over a month in the north and this undoubtedly worked to the detriment of the game. The fans got very tired of seeing the same faces and attendance suffered in

More Even Divisions.

The old question of the division of the gate receipts will be revived. The north-ern clubs will fight to have the visiting club share equally with the home. As is well known, the home club takes 65 per cent of the gate and the visiting 35. This is to the advantage of San Francisco and Los Angeles, which furnish the largest crowds, but just whether these clubs will willing to "split the purse" remains to seen. It is possible the clube may effect some sort of a compromise and di-wide the gate 55 and 45 per cent.

There is one thing the Pacific Coast League is certain to do and this is to raise the price of admission to the games. There will be no more 25-cent baseball. If the league is to make money and pay high salaries, it must exact more money from its patrons. The players earn about as much money here us they do in the big leagues, where it costs il to occupy a de-

When President Bert was East it was proposed to him that his league join a combine composed of the Eastern, Southern, American Association and Western. As present arrangements are unsatisfac-tory, some change will be made. Bert will throw the entire question before the for discussion. The old officers

INDIANS VS. COLUMBIANS.

Junior Chemawa Team Wants Game With Youngsters of 'Varsity.

CHEMAWA, Or., Dec. 12-(Special.)-The "Hole-in-the-Wall" team of Chemawa will accept the challenge of the Columbia junior football eleven to a contest to be played as soon as possible.

The "Hole-in-the-Wall" team is a boy team, and resembles the Columbia team in many respects. Like the Columbia Juniors the Chemawa team has never been defeated in football, baseball or bas. ketball. The team is strictly speaking an aggregation of lightweights who in years to come will find places on the first teams.

This morning several of the employes weighed the boys on the team to see whether they would come under 110 pounds. It was found that Barney Vincent and Jimmie Evans, the midget ends of the team weighed but 74 and 75 counts. of the team, weighed but 74 and 79 pounds, respectively. Michele Wilson, the fullback, is the heaviest player on the team, his weight being 127 pounds.

It is hoped that a game can be arranged as soon as possible, as football practice will soon close at Chemawa. At present there is a general practice going on, for the reason that the first team has games scheduled with Astoria on Decem-ber 24 and Fort Stevens December 21. This brings out the entire 15 or 20 teams at

Knowing poor Toy Ho to be a good girl, and having heard a little previously of the alleged cruel treatment of her husband, Captain Gritzmacher immediately decided to turn her over to Mrs. W. S. Holt, matron of the Rescue Home. So to the Home poor, weary Toy Ho was taken. She was glad to be there. She could rest comportably, for the first time in years, she says. There she had no fear of an angry husband, no dread of his approaching footsteps and no terrer filled her breast lest an enemy attempt to kidnap her and sell her int the dread of all the women of her race,

"She can stay just as long as she wants," said Matron Holt. "She is known to a good girl, and so long as she wishes to be in the Home she can remain."

Toy Ho's life, it is claimed by her, has been anything but pleasant since she was married to Ho Fung. The ceremony was performed in San Francisco's celebrated Chinatown. The beautiful girl, then but 16 years old, was separated from her relatives and personal friends. Her husband wished to move to Portland, and, like a good wife, she willingly accompanied him.
