ZENITHS WIN THE GAME.

Badly Defeat Company F at Indoor Baseball.

Company F was defeated at indoor base ball at the Armory last evening by the Zeniths, a team of outsiders, who played very good ball. It looks as if the preemption of the militiamen on indoor base ball were going to be broken in on early this year, and as if more general interest were being taken in the sport.

The Zeniths' victory came in the fourth inning, when eight runs were made, Company F taking its pitcher out of the box and substituting another without stopping teh slaughter. The game up to that time had been ragged, but afterward became steadler, and "F" had rather the better But the start made by the Zeniths was not to be overcome.

Score by innings: Company F...... 002822120-12 Batteries-F: McAtee, Gildner and Butler; Zenithe: Parker and Henderson.
