GREATER FREEDOM FOR PRESS

Minister Sviatopolk-Mirsky is Said years' penal servitude, to Regard Proposed Land Council the Best Solution of the Issue He Forced.

ST. PETERSBURG, Dec. 14.-There is no longer any doubt that the government intends to commit itself to very extensive reforms as the result of the liberal agitation begun when Prince Sviatopolk-Mirsky made his advent as Minister of the Interior. The Zemstvoist demands for a firect body to make the laws of the na tion will not be granted, but some me-dium in the form of a representative con-suitative body which can convey the wishes of the people direct to the Sov-ereign now seems the probable outcome. The plan for a consultative body, first proposed by the late Prince Vasilchol-koff. 26 years ago, in connection with the demand for a land perllament, forms the basis of the scheme at present under consideration. Prince Vasilcholkoff con-tended that nine-tenths of the population of Russia was totally unprepared to exercise political rights, thus precluding the possibility of general franchise. He proposed a Zemskaya Douma, or Land ed of Zemstvo representatives endowed with a consultative voice in the government. While nothing has been absolutely decided, Minister of the Interior Sviatopolk-Mirsky is said to favor this plan. In fact, it is his desire that Prince Vasiichoikoff's son shall succeed him in the event that complete failure of his health compels him to retire

Lower House of Hungarian Parliament Opens in Perfect Calm.

BUDAPEST, Hungary, Dec. 14.—The Lower House of the Hungarian Parlia-ment opened today in perfect caim. The royal rescript convoking the Diet was listened to attentively, and the House thereafter adjourned without the least attempt on the part of the opposition to renew the rioting of yesterday. The orderliness of the proceedings was attributed to the absence of President Percsel and his parliamentary bodyguard, who yesterday were driven from the House. The opposition, under the leadership of Count Appenyl and Francis Kossuth, took possession of the House as early as 6:30. nce of the rumor that the government proposed a sitting at 7 A. M. FIRE LOSS NOT SO GREAT.

Minneapolis' Damage Now Placed at $820,000.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Dec. 14.-Revised estimates of the losses occasioned by the fire early this morning show the total to be only about $820,000. The losses include the following:

O. H. Peck & Company, photographic supplies, building and stock, $80,000. Boutell Bros., furniture, building and stock, $375,000. Bintliff Manufacturing Company, pi ture frames and art goods, building and stock $120,000. Powers Mercantile Company, building and stock, $60,000.

Other miscellaneous losses will bring the total loss up to $70,000. Total insurance, $605,000.

Oberlin Men Alleged to Have Misapplied Funds of Banks, and Certified Checks When No Funds Were on Hand.

CLEVELAND, Dec. 14.-The Federal in dictments against Mrs. Chadwick today are five in number. Three of them charge her with aiding and abetting officers of a National bank to defraud the institution, and two charge her with conspiring against the United States. The grand jury also returned four indictments against President Beckwith of the Oberlin bank. Two charge him with misapplication of funds of a National bank; one with conspiracy to commit an offense against the United States, and one with certifying checks when no funds were on hand. Like ndictments were returned against Cash-

The first witness before the grand tury was United States Marshai Chandler, who presented to the grand jury the sworn statement of President Beckwith. This is the document which has been called the "confession" of Beckwith. It set forth, in effect, that there were two notes of $500,000 each, both signed in the name of Andrew Carnegie, and that Mrs. Chadwick declared positively, both thim and Cashier Spear, that she positive ly saw Mr. Carnegie eign his name to both notes. It was also set forth in the statement that a New York attorney who professed to be a representative of Andrew Carnegie had declared to Beckwith in Oberlin that the notes were genuine. indoreement of the notes by Beckwith and Spear was admitted, but the state-ment declared neither of them had any idea they were to be used in the manner in which Mrs. Chadwick handled them

Business men on the way, home, shop pers and laborers seemed to have been notified of the woman's arrival and crowded to the curb. The jeers and hoots were taken up along the entire line, and as each square that brought the party nearer the business center was passed the crowd continued to increase, and to avoid the increasing excitemen the officials arranged to approach the Federal building from the rear.

As the carriages neared the building. the crowds on the sidewalks broke into the streets and many began to run alongside the carriages, expecting to see Mrs. Chadwick as she entered the building by the main entrance. In this the crowd was disappointed, for the carriage with the prisoner was driven into an alley in the rear of the building. There was much delay here because of the narrow passageway being blocked with wagons. The crowd already there was augmented by that which had assembled before the

After consuming 20 minutes in going a distance of about twice as many feet the prisoner's carriage was drawn up at the rear of the Federal building, and with the officers she was taken to the Marshal's office on the fifth floor on the freight elevator. The police continued to beat back the crowd, and out of the next carriage the nurse Freda was assisted and taken up to join her mistress. While Mrs. Chadwick, with her nurse, was in the Federal building, Emil, in the carriage outside, was subjected to the scrutiny of the mob and was forced to listen to anathemas and maledictions as well as sarcastic and bitter references to "notes," 'diamonds." "securities" and the like.

The insults and jeers were not confined to one class. They seemed to be heartily taken up by everyone on the streets in o'clock this morning and will set for trial before the present jury all cases ready to be proceeded with. HURRIED AWAY TO JAIL.

Mrs. Chadwick Has No Desire to Con-BERNARDINO. sider New Indictments. CLEVELAND, O., Dec. 16 .- On her ar rival at the Federal building, Mrs. Chadwick was at once taken to the office of Clerk Carleton, of the United States Court, and there attended by Freda Swanstrom, who came in after her awaited the arrival of her attorney, Mr. Kerruish. The door was guarded by United States Marshals and two members of the local police force, while Mrs. Chadwick and her attorney held an extended conference. District Attorney Sullivan entered the room at the commencement of the conference, and was introduced to Mrs. Chadwick. Nothing was said by Mr. Kerruish or Mrs. Chadwick concerning ball, and it was thought by District Attorney Sullivan that she would plead to the indictments that had just been found against her. He went to the courtroom of Judge Wing, on the sixth floor to arrange the matter, but she announced she did not care to plead at that time, and preparations were at once made to take her to jail.

Mrs. Chadwick was taken directly to the jall. When she was about to leave the Federal building the excitement was greater, if possible, than before. The carriage, after a few delays, forced a passage, and once out of the alley, Mrs. Chadwick was hurried away to the jail. She passed through streets with thronged curbs, only to run the gantlet of another mob that had been gathering for hours. Into the jail the prisoner was hurrled to the accompaniment of more shouts and jeers, and the clicking of photographers'

NO HOPE OF GIVING BAIL.

Should She Be Released Woman Would Be Immediately Rearrested. CLEVELAND, O., Dec. 14.-There is no probability of Mrs. Chadwick being released on ball. She would be called upon to furnishe the Government bonds of $15,000 on each indictment, or a total of $75,000. Should she give this, she would be rearrested on the two county indictments and asked for an additional bond of $25,-000. There is, moreover, a possibility that she may be indicted a third time by the county, and if this should happen, she would be asked for additional surety amounting to $12,500. To insure her freedom pending trial, she must, therefore, be prepared to furnish bonds amounting to $112,500. She will not attempt this, but will remain in jail until her case is reached on the docket.

CARNEGIE WILLING TO APPEAR After He Returns From Florida, He

Will Testify at Cleveland. NEW YORK, Dec. 14.-That Andrew Carnegie is willing to appear against Mrs. Chadwick, when his health has sufficiently improved, was made clear in a state ment given out today at Mr. Carnegie's residence by his secretary. "Mr. Carnegie's only reason for not going to Cleveland at this time has already been given," said the secretary. "His health will not permit of his taking the trip save at considerable risk, as his physician has already said he is suffering from lumbago.

"He has been willing to make a depo sition at his home, and later, on his return from Florida, he will lend his as-sistance and be present to testify to any only reason for not going to Cleveland now is that he is unable to stand the journey in this weather."
