THE HOME OF CHRISTMAS

WANTED—Fifty girls; must be over 16 years of age. Apply at Superintendent's desk this morning.

THE CHRISTMAS POSTOFFICE Santa Claus has placed mailboxes at the entrances to all the elevators on each floor for the reception of letters from his little friends. Write and he'll try hard to get it for you. Place your letter in any of the boxes.

This Store Will Remain Open Evenings Christmas

Starting Tonight! Special Evening Christmas Sales from 7 to 9 P. M. Mark the Event! An Astounding Aggregation of Matchless Special Values, in Force for Two Hours today—7 to 9 P. M.—Added to the Hosts of Remarkable Bargains of the "Managers' Sale" Advertised During the Week!

All forming A BARGAIN CARNIVAL UNPRECEDENTED IN THE ANNALS OF MODERN WESTERN MERCHANDISING! The store grows busier and busier—and we need more help. Now, we can't take everybody who applies—the business wave of Yuletide is upon us, and we have least time for breaking new people in. There is opportunity for some who can, we know, immediately take up certain duties—opportunities worth coming to see about. And the beauty of it is that those coming in now have opportunity to show either immediate fitness or adaptability—and that means hope of continuous employment or the knowledge that you are apt to be sent for when an opening does occur. With this Christmas rush season necessarily comes longer hours for helpers, as willingly accorded us by our splendid employes as they are reluctantly asked by us. But—there's a Summer vacation without loss of pay ahead—fellows and girls—and we close Saturday nights again after Ohristmas, and Saturday afternoons next Summer. Tempus fugit. It's a cheery, willing lot of salespeople that will wait on you evenings until Christmas, and bargains were never so great and so plentiful. OPEN EVENINGS UNTIL CHRISTMAS.

In these practical, incredulous times, even so sacred a celebrity as Santa Claus is in peril from the shafts and arrows of infidelity. Indeed, so hardened and irreverent are some heretics that they even advocate the disillusionment of children regarding the reality of the patron saint of children. Such iconoclasm is not to be commended. Faith in Santa Claus is one of the most precious possessions accorded to children, and should be safeguarded. To this end we have under engagement up in Playland Park—Toyniand—a real, live, flesh and blood Santa Claus. His office hours from now on until Christmas, starting today—Saturday—will be from 2 to 5 and 7:30 to 9:30 P. M. Bring or send the children—they're safe, the building is fireproof. Only steel, fireproof building in the city. Fourth floor. Three commodious elevators, largest on the Coast.
