STILL IN THE RACE

Senator Kuykendall Bubbling Over With Confidence.

MAKES VISIT TO PORTLAND

Passes Through the City on His Way to Inspect Washington State School for Defective Youth at Vancouver.

State Senator W. Kuykendall, Lane County, arrived from Eugene last night and today will go to Vancouver with ex-State Senator Andrew C. Smith, of Portland, to inspect the Washington State School for Defective Washington State School for Defective Youths. Senator Kurkendall had little to any about his race for Presidency of the Senate, but his few remarks on that subject were full of confidence. When in Fortiand three weeks ago he re-marked that he fell reasonably sure of last night he was just as confident; even more so, thus indicating that he was not alarmed by Senator E. V. Carter's dash for the high place.

Senator Kuykendall denied that he had come to Portland on politics bent. His mission here, he said, was planned several weeks ago: therefore his appearance here at a time when the Presidency was so lively a subject of gossip, was a mere coincidence. If he did wish to see Multnomah's Senators, there was no evidence of it in his actions after his arrival, for he was not seen to closet himself with any of them nor with any chiefs of the Multnomah organization. That he expects to receive probably no aspirant for the Presidenthis county.

To Examine School. Senator Kuykendall and ex-Senator

Smith were appointed by the last Senante to the duty of reporting to this Legislature on the advisability of establishing a school for defective youth in Gregon. The purpose of the institution would be to train feble-minded children to useful employment. Ore-gon's insane asylum is held to be ill-udapted to the care of such wards. When asked whether he would favor creation of such an institution in Ore-gon, Dr. Kuykendali responded that he

MR. AND MRS. HENRY KLINDT.

THE DALLES, Or., Dec. 16 - Few exclai events have attracted more attention in city than the golden wedding celebration of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Klindt, which took place at their residence on November 16. Prominent among the visitors were Mr. and Mrs. A. Schernakau and Mira Schernakau, of Astoria, and Mr. George Gundof Portland, all pioneer residents of this locality

Mr. and Mrs. Kilndt have been residents of The Dalles since 1861, and since 1888 have lived where they now reside, on their handsome country place, two miles west of this city. Both are natives of Holstein, Germany, Mrs. Klindt coming to Amer-ica in 1847, Mr. Klindt in 1851. Although living in adjoining villages in the old country, the young people had never met until both families had settled in their new Davenport, Ia., and where they were married in 1854.

In 1859. Mr. Klindt went to California, returning to Iowa in 1861, and starting ith his family scross the plains for Oregon, which they reached in October of that ent at the golden wedding. > BRING FUGUITIVES HOME TO Appeal of United States in Greene-Gaynor Case Is Up in London.

LONDON, Dec. 16 .- The appeal of the United States against the decision of the Justice of the Crown at Quebec in the case of Greene and Gaynor, came up before the Privy Council today. Sir Edward Clarke, K. C., who with Donald McMaster, K. C., of Montreal, represents the United States, opened the case, reciting the well-known facts.

(It is now more than five years since Greene and Gaynor, who were con-cerned with Oberlin M. Carter in the Savannah harbor contract, escaped to Canada, and settled in Montreal. Carter was sentenced to five years in prison, and the United States Government applied for a writ of extradition for Greene and Gaynor. When the writ was made out by a Montreal extradition commission the two men fled down the St. Lawrence to Quebec. The United States officers went after them, caught them in Quebec after a hot and dra-
