THE MORNING OREGONIAN, WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 21, 1904

course, as a member of the Pierce County delegation, it would be impossible, even were I so disposed, to vote for any other candidate so long as there was the slightest show to re-elect Senator Foster. If we should be so unfortunate, however, as to fail in our efforts to elect the man whom we think is entitled to a re-election and in case there is no general uprising of the citizens demanding that I, myself, be a candidate, I should be glad indeed to contribute in my feeble way to the suc-cess of Mr Sweeny."

With a full appreciation of the possibil-ities of the Davis candidacy, Mr. Sweeny stated that whenever that general uprising of citizens took place he would do what he could to aid the movement. The seeting was attended by Senators W. E. Bronson, Lincoln Davis, C. L. Stewart, M. Le Crone: Representatives Fred Idemiller, David Levin, Jesse Poyus, Dr. J. H. Sheets, Las Van Slyke, George T. 3. H. Sneets, Lee van Siyke, George L. Reid, N. B. McNicoli and Thomas Hamil-ton. Others in attendance were J. M. Ashton, Jesse H. Read, L. J. Pentecost, B. W. Colner, George B. Kandle and Sen-W. Colner, George B. Kandle and Senator E. M. Pands, of Vancouver.

It is of course, pretty well understood that United States Senators are not elected at banquets, but the genuine spirit of good-fellowship which Sweeny injected into the front ranks of the Foster support ubtedly has considerable significance. There is no questioning the fact that the followers of the Foster flag, and if that hanner is hauled down the Spokane man is almost certain to secure some of the recruits who will seek a new candidate years ago, so I will now stay where I am until the last roll is called." It is perhaps unnecessary to state that this kind of support is fully as weak as that of Foster, so far as King County is concerned, in the event that a break to some other Sestile man might be advis-able. With balloting for the Senator still 30 days away, the situation is already be-coming decideally interesting, and the ad-vent of Sweeny on Poget Bound has not tended to simplify matters. A number of prominent lumbermen from the south-west deny the report that they are inweat deny the report that they are in any way pledged to support Foster, some of them going so far as to state that they will not under any circumstances vote for him. NEWBERG WILL EXHIBIT.

Board of Trade Committee Will Act Independently if Necessary.

NEWBURG, Or., Dec. 30.-(Special.)-At a meeting held last night the Newberg Board of Trade took up the subject of our exhibit at the Lewis and Clark Fair. It had appeared that Yamhill County is not going to make any effort at a display. It was the feeling of all present that Newberg must wait no longer, but assert itself toward arranging an ade-quate and independent exhibit of the man-ufacturing industries and agricultural re-sources of this vicinity. To this end a committee composed of Clarence Butt. W. C. Woodward and Dr. George Larkin was appointed.

Another important matter considered was that of better train service. No en-conragement being held out by the South-ern Pacific Company, the Board decided to turn its attention toward interesting capital in our electric line service through this rich section of country. F. A. Mor-ris, E. H. Woodward, William Christie, F. H. Caidwell and J. C. Hodson were appointed as a committee to push the matter

Good roads was another important question discussed, also the free ferry across the Williamette River. As a committe to take up the matter of improving the service, Clarence Butt, Dr. H. A. Little-field and F. A. Morris were appointed.

For Grand Ronde Exhibits.

LA GRANDE, Or., Dec. 20.-(Special.)-The contract for an exhibit hall in La Grande was let today by M. L. Causey to Peter Bosquet for $500. The building will be 60 feet in length by 10 feet wide and the ceiling will be 14 feet high. This hall will be used only for the exhibition of Grand Ronde fruits, grains, grasses and different produce grown here. The Commercial Club and citizens in different parts of the valley subscribed for the building.

TALK ON FRUIT TOPICS.

Northwest Fruitgrowers' Association

Will Consider New Legislation.

HOOD RIVER, Or., Dec. 20 -(Special.)-E. L. Smith, president of the Northwest Fruitgrowers' Association, has been in-formed by Secretary C. J. Sincel-that the annual meeting of the association will be held at Bolse, January 16, 17 and 18.

held at Bolee, January 16, 17 and 18. A number of prominent fruitgrowers will attend from Hood River, among them A. I. Mason, president of the Hood River Applegrowers' Union, E. L. Smith and G. R. Castner, Mr. Mason will prepare a paper on the subject, "How Hood River Won Her Reputation for Fine Fruit."

The fruitgrowers of Hood River are anxious to secure legislation for the protection of the careful fruitgrower, and next Tucaday a mass meeting of inter-ested growers will be held in this city to discuss matters pertaining to proposed measures that will be introduced in the Legislature by Representative Jayne, of this city. E. L. Smith, president of the State Board of Horticulture, is very anx-ious to see measures taken to provide for a county fruit inspector.

Foster Boom Flattening.

There is no disguising the fact that the Foster boom is "wobbly." The teredos of suspicion, distrust and even hatred have honeycombed the structure until it only requires a few good, hard jolts to tumble it in ruins. The Senator is accused by members of his own delegation of being too much averse to contributing to campairs expenses to be a successful factor in a race with such men as Sweeny, Piles, Furth or John L. Wilson. As one adherents remarked at the close of the festivities last night, "There will be good skating in h-I before the Senator would ever put up for a spread such as we have just enjoyed."

This spirit may be all wrong, and it un doubtedly is all right for the Senator to keep his purse strings tightly drawn, but a previous experience should have taught him that a successful Senatorial campaign cannot be conducted on such lines. If eld Cincinnatus had lived in the State of Washington he could have continued his plowing until the end of time without the slightest danger of being called away to take the United States Senatorship.

It does not follow that a man must spend money in large quantities, but pol-itics in this state has reached a stage where something beside the "glad hand" not only desirable, but necessary. attle has realized this fact and has raised a very comfortable sum for the Piles campaign. Tacoma has also contributed to the expenses of the Poster campaign. work in this direction has been hampored by the economical tendencies of the candidate himself.

Senator's Tight Cigar Case.

Not only has Senator Foster failed to go over and banquet the Spokane delegat he has also neglected to buy any cigars for his own delegation. I am not parsing on the merits or demerits of the different methods now being pursued by the Senatorial candidates, but am statin facts as they exist. Foster has lost the loyal support of his delegation by lack of liberality in regard to the necessary expenses of a campaign. Sweeny is a bigbearted, generous fellow who contributes with an equally good grace to a church or a campaign fund, and his personality

The Sweeny invasion of the Puget Bound country has awakened renewed in-terest as to the ultimate action of the King County delegation. Mr. Piles, the Seattle candidate, has a smaller numeri-cal strength than that of Foster, but in the main it is much more loyal, and at least a portion of it will be voting for Piles when the last beliet is taken. As a matter of fact, this staying "to the last ditch" is already causing some uneasiness among the King County men, who are most anxious for a Senator from that

Only Piles for Seattle.

The King County men are slightly "balled up" by a pledge that has elimi-nated from the list of Seattle candidates all names but that of Samuel Piles. They suffered under a similar handlcap two years ago, when they were forced to stay with Freston. When the "last ditch" was reached at that time, and they saw the hopeleseness of doing anything for Pres-ten, a few of them voted for Ankeny, and years past one of the most prominent citiwrre rowarded with most villainous abuse from the beattle papers. One of those men, who is a holdover Senater and will wate for Piles, in a conversation today suid: "I am tied up in a knot with the rest of eneds and two dry-sine. The planer mills will have three planers, and an engine separate from the lumber mill. The work will be handled by John Clees. As soon as the new planer mills are completed, or before, the company will start to work to creet a shingle mill on the site of the old Centralia electric light plant, just north of the mill. The shingle mill will be small, having a capacity nearly 60,000 shingles a day. In addi-on to this, the company will gradually tend its logging road. The road is now extend its logging road. six miles in length, and the company is buying and cutting the timber on the way.
