Attention of President Called to Condition at Bremerton. WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—President Roosevelt today invited to-day by Representative Humphrey, of Washington, to a telegram received by Mr. Humphrey from some of his constituents, protesting against what is declared to be exorbitant tonnage rates charged at the Bremerton naval station for the docking and repair of vessels. The telegram calls attention to a charge of 25 cents a ton for the docking of the steamer Shawmut, the owners declaring that they could have the work done at the British dock at Esquimaux for 10 cents a ton. The charges at the American station result, Mr. Humphrey says, in a large amount of such work going to the British station, to the detriment of the Americans. The matter will be considered by the officials of the Navy Department.

DEMAND FOR CHADWICK JEWELS. Receiver Seeks to Get Them From New York Hotel. NEW YORK, Dec. 21.—Nathan Loewer, receiver in Cleveland for the affairs of Mr. Cassie L. Chadwick, made a demand today for the jewelry and diamonds in this city, on J. F. Caddigan, the proprietor of the Hoffman House, for all the jewelry and other valuables alleged to be in his possession, being held for the owner, Mrs. Chadwick. Under the date of December 19, Mr. Loewer wrote to him as follows:

Understood you this morning as follows: "I hereby demand of you all the property of Cassie L. Chadwick now in your possession or under your control, and I hereby notify you not to deliver same to any other person."

Information has reached me that certain property, consisting of jewelry, diamonds and valuables, and belonging to Cassie L. Chadwick, is now in the possession of J. F. Caddigan, the proprietor of the Hoffman House, and under your control, and I shall hold you responsible for a faithful accounting for same. If you will advise me as to the charges which you have been paid in connection with the property, and if you will advise me if you will deliver same to me in Cleveland."

Charles L. Greenhall, of this city, said today that he had represented the property of Mrs. Chadwick, a Cleveland lawyer, he had called at the Hoffman House and seen Mr. Caddigan. He said that he had demanded for the property, but that he did not receive any satisfaction, nor did he learn whether there was any property of Mrs. Chadwick in the hotel. He declared that the proprietor said that he would communicate with him later through his lawyer.

Chadwick Satchel is Missing. CLEVELAND, Dec. 21.—Still another satchel, one thought by Receiver Loewer to contain valuables belonging to Mrs. Chadwick, today was found to be missing. This developed in an examination of Mrs. Mary Lonsdale, Mrs. Chadwick's former housekeeper, held before Referee in Bankruptcy Remington.

The discovery is in addition to the missing trunk and grip that disappeared from the Holland House in New York the day before Mrs. Chadwick was arrested.

Mrs. Lonsdale told of accompanying Mrs. Chadwick to the Holland Hotel here at the latter's request, and of taking the satchel into a room. Judge Albright, of Canton, and several men, the witness said, were present in an adjoining room. As to what had become of the satchel, the witness replied:

"I was instructed to give the large one to D. L. Pine, of this city. I called him up by telephone and told him about it and asked him to come for it. He arrived after Mrs. Chadwick had left from New York, and I gave it to him."

The satchel, she said, contained letters and papers. She did not know what had become of the other satchel. An effort will be made to have Mr. Pine appear in court today, and to determine the whereabouts of the satchel and what it contained.

When the hearing was resumed in the bankruptcy court in the afternoon, Mr. Pine was present. He admitted that he secured the satchel and kept it until Emil Hoover, Mrs. Chadwick's son, called for it last Sunday night. Emil told him that his mother's attorney, J. P. Davy, wanted it. He said he was not over-anxious as to what the satchel contained but thought there were papers in it.

Inquiries continue to come from other cities for a detailed description of the dead girl, but in no case has the sealing of the description resulted in the receipt of further information or inquiry.

EXTENT OF THE BIG FAIR. But few Portland people know that the World's Fair which will be opened in Portland on June next will contain 2500 individual exhibits. On the Fair grounds there are now in course of erection, or already completed, 25 distinctive exhibit buildings. The Fair site covers an area of 125 acres of land and 220 acres of water. The project of the Exposition will involve the outlay of about $5,000,000, and the Fair will be formally opened to the public entirely free from 1905. The New Year's program that will be published on January 2 will be a special Exposition number. The engravings of the numerous exhibit buildings, grounds, etc., will be made especially attractive. The paper will be mailed to any address in the United States or Canada, postage prepaid, for 10 cents a copy. Address The Oregonian, Portland, Or.
