Ambassadors of the Two Countries Called Home to Discuss Situation -Emperor Says Development Will Not Be Abandoned.

SPECIAL CABLE. BERLIN, Dec. 22.—Sensational correspondence has passed between the German and British governments during the last four weeks with reference to the warlike and provocative attitude official British press, especially the Army and Navy Gazette.

The Kaiser took a hand in the negotiations and made his vigorous personality felt in a positive way. He instructed that the British Cabinet such an event the talk which Germany considered an affront must stop.

greater danger. Both Fremier Balfour and Lord Lansdowne have been told that Germany is impatient of this distrust of its nava! policy, which it accuses the National Review, the Army and Navy Gazette and other papers of generating among the British people. The Fatherland wishes Britain to understand once for all that it has not the slightest intention of abandoning the development of its navy and its merchant marine at British behast, no matter how much of a bogey they constitute.

Ships May Be Raised.

ST. PETERSSURG, Dec. 21,-While declining to give details, the admiralty admits that Russian advices from Port Arthur, sent by General Stoessel, substantially confirm the Japanese advices of the partial wrecking of the Russian ships in the harbor, and the censor has been instructed to permit the publication of the dispatches. It is alleged that several of the larger ships and a respectable number of torpedo-boat destroyers are still sea-worthy, but they are not being con-sidered as a factor in the coming right between Admiral Togo's ships and the Russian second Pacific squad-

The whole series of misfortunes which has attended the Port Arthur squadron is a bitter chapter in Russian naval annals, but since the arrival of the latest advices there has been less disposition to criticise Rear Admiral Wirenius' fallure to make a sortie, General Stoessel having decided that further defense of the fortress would be impossible if the guns of the warships and the sailors landed were re-embarked. Had the ships been able to go out under the conditions existing, they would have been at the mercy of the Japanese and have been sacrificed without hope of inflicting commensurate damage. If the fortress is relieved, it is believed that most of the ships will be raised and saved.

VALUE OF BALLOON IN WAR.

Operator With the Russians Reaches Interesting Conclusions.

MUKDEN, Dec. 21.—Some interesting onclusions reached in practical work in the field have been given by Mr. Nandt, who has been in charge of the balloon corps in the Far East during the greater part of the war. He still thinks the balloon has a distinct future in warfare, and there have been a number of occasions when the balloons did valuable work in scouting, but on the whole, he says that the weather in Manchuria is too damp for balloons to be at their best. It has proved exceedingly difficult to get photographs of any value. When the balloon was low, the vibration owing to air currents was excessive. Light was seldom favorable, and frequently the balloon was too high for the pictures to be of any use. In the attack on Poutiloff (Lone Tree) Hill, he says there was presented a very interesting panorama of the battlefield, but it was often impossi-ble to tell with certainty which were Russian lines and which were Japanese. The best work of the balloon corps was done during the retreat from Liao Yang, when he says for scouting purposes they were really valuable, often almost indispensa-

DULUTH, Minn., Dec. 21.-Incensed over the large number of murders and robberies that have been committed lately by Indians in the northern part of Itasca County, near the international boundary, the settlers and home-steaders, according to Enoch Neighton, a settler, who was here today, have formed themselves into a vigilance committee for the purpose of avenging the deaths of some of their comrades. The latest tragedy in the North country which has come to light is that of a settler, Thomas McKinsley, aged 80, who, while alone in his cabin at Pelland, was attacked by two Indians. In order to protect himself, the old man fired, killing one Indian. The other fled across the line and informed his fellow-braves, with the result that McKinsley's life is now menaced. Three Days Left to do Your Selecting Widow Dayis Is Married to Fred Lane, of Seattle.

Late South Chicago Real Estate Man Was Separated From His Wife on Account of His Jealousy of Lane.

CHICAGO, Dec. 21 .- (Special.)-Mrs. R. L. Davis, widow of the millionaire South Chicago real estate and business man, is now Mrs. Fred Lane, of Seattle, Wash. The announcement of this marriage today struck society in South Chicago and on the South Side speechless for a time. Then the tongues began to wag.

Behind it is a romance of seven years, story of a love affair which once approached the divorce court, and of a devotion that lasted through wifehood and widowhood, only to end in a wedding. Mr. and Mrs. Lane are now on their way to Southern California and will remain there until the middle of February, when they will return to Chicago to settle up the $1,000,000 estate of R. A. Davis.

The husband was extremely jealous of Lane and finally lived apart from his wife. Lane suddenly went West, locating at Seattle. January 8, 1993, Davis died at Phoenix, Ariz. Mrs. Davis inherited the estate, worth over $1,000,000. A few weeks ago Lane came to Chicago. Neither his friends nor the friends of Mrs. Davis, except a few knew that he was here. Plans were quietly made and last Thursday they were married.

BALLOTS IN ONE WRITING. Expert Reports Evidences of Fraud in Colorado Election.

DENVER, Dec. 21,-1ne report presented to the Supreme Court today by the handwriting experts who examined the ballots in the box from Precinct 2, Ward 4, of this city, showed that of 356 votes 144 were apparently fraudulent, One hundred and forty ballots, with the Democratic heading, were reported to have been written by five persons, one of whom had written 119. Four sallots with the Republican heading had been written by two persons. There were, in the box, 177 Democratic and 28 Republican ballots, which appeared to be regular,
'After receiving the report the court proceeded to hear from further testimony on the contempt charges against Isaac Gold-man and Edward Sweeney, election judges at this polling place.

M. M. Hanna, Republican expert, testified to his belief that on closer examination at least 100 of the ballots which appeared to be regular would prove to be fraudulent, George H. King, Democratic expert, also testified that there probably would be some fraudulent votes which has not been detected in the hurried examination of the ballots.

Sweeney and Goldman, who conducted their own defense, disclaimed knowledge of the fraudulent ballots and denied that they had wilfully violated the courts orders. Both threw themselves on the mercy of the court. Sweeney said his wife was dead and he wished to take her remains to Chicago. Chief Justice Gabbert an-nounced that the case would be taken un-der consideration and ordered the defendants to report in court Saturday,

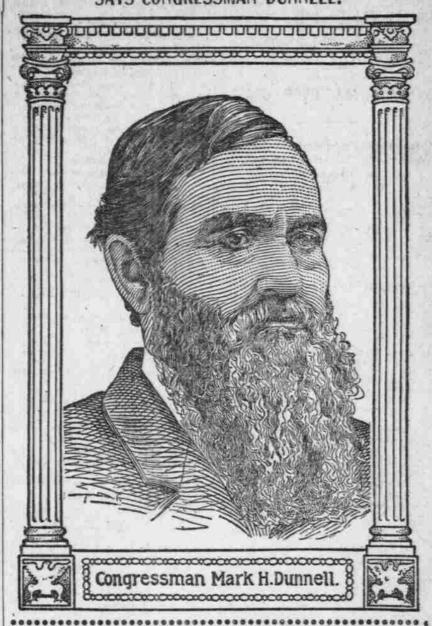

Each of the 23 men now serving sen-tences in jail for contempt of court has filed a petition for a rehearing and alleviation of sentence. The petitions dentical, and the grounds upon which they are based are solely technical, the principal one being a challenge of the right of the Supreme Court to assume urisdiction of the election, Patrick Higgins and William F.
