OPEN EVENINGS UNTIL CHRISTMAS.

An Astounding Array of Sensational Saturday CHRISTMAS BARGAINS

For the Leave-Things-Till-the-Last-Minute Folk

STORE OPEN UNTIL 10 O'CLOCK THIS EVENING - CLOSED ALL DAY MONDAY

WE RECEIVED AN ANONYMOUS POSTAL THE OTHER DAY taking us to task for keeping this "Different" "Daylight Store" Open Evenings this pre-Christmas week. By a strange coincidence, the identity of the blighting ass who wrote it was disclosed to the writer, who no longer wondered at the lack of courage displayed by a writer who was too cowardly to sign his name to his petulant, silly spiel. Now then, Christmas shopping must be done in limited time. Folks put by for a year for Christmas gifts, then spend their hoard in a week. The selling of weeks is crowded into one—and it don't fit any more than a square peg fits a round auger hole. So we do what we can to help, and the great public shows its appreciation by overwhelming patronage. When manufacturers will blow their factory whistles for dismissal of their helpers at noon—and pay them a full day's pay—then there will be no necessity for staying at the store evenings before Christmas—and we won't. But, so long as all Portland and a good part of the surrounding country folk favor us with their Christmas patronage, under present existing conditions, we must make one exception to our rule and keep open shop evenings for this one week in the year, whether it suits our anonymous worsted friend (?) or not. Our own people (almost a thousand helpers are here now), are given opportunities to shop every day, when the store is least busy. Today we close at 10 P. M. On Christmas Monday this store will be closed all day. On Tuesday, December 27, the usual 6 o'clock closing will be resumed every day—Saturdays included, until next Christmas.
